One World A Global Anthology Of Short Stories:

One World Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, Jhumpa Lahiri, 2009-05-01 This book is made up of twenty three stories each from a different author from across the globe All belong to one world united in their diversity and ethnicity And together they have one aim to involve and move the reader The range of authors takes in such literary greats as Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie and Jhumpa Lahiri and emerging authors such as Elaine Chiew Petina Gappah and Henrietta Rose Innes The members of the collective are Elaine Chiew Malaysia Molar Wood Nigeria Jhumpa Lahiri United States Martin A Ramos Puerto Rico Lauri Kubutsile Botswana Chika Unigwe Nigeria Ravi Mangla United States Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Nigeria Skye Brannon United States Jude Dibia Nigeria Shabnam Nadiya Bangladesh Petina Gappah Zimbabwe Ivan Gabirel Reborek Australia Vanessa Gebbie Britain Emmanuel Dipita Kwa Cameroon Henrietta Rose Innes South Africa Lucinda Nelson Dhavan India Adetokunbo Abiola Nigeria Wadzanai Mhute Zimbabwe Konstantinos Tzikas Greece Ken Kamoche Kenya Sequoia Nagamatsu United States Ovo Adagha Nigeria From the Introduction The concept of One World is often a multi colored tapestry into which sundry if not contending patterns can be woven for those of us who worked on this project One World goes beyond the everyday notion of the globe as a physical geographic entity Rather we understand it as a universal idea one that transcends national boundaries to comment on the most prevailing aspects of the human condition This attempt to redefine the borders of the world we live in through the short story recognizes the many conflicting issues of race language economy gender and ethnicity which separate and limit us We readily acknowledge however that regardless of our differences or the disparities in our stories we are united by our humanity We invite the reader on a personal journey across continents countries cultures and landscapes to reflect on these beautiful at times chaotic renditions on the human experience We hope the reach of this path will transcend the borders of each story and perhaps function as an agent of change Welcome to our world

One World Two Chris Brazier, Ovo Adagha, 2016-08-22 One World Two is the eagerly awaited follow up to One World and another globe trotting collection of stories But it is more than simply an anthology of short fiction as it contains representative literature from all over the world conveying the reader on thought provoking journeys across continents cultures and landscapes One World Two is even more ambitious than Volume One in its geographic scope featuring twenty one writers drawn from every continent Most of the stories are unique to this volume while others are appearing for the first time in English Egypt's Mansoura Ez Eldin and Brazil's Vanessa Barbara The themes and writing styles are as richly diverse as their writers origins The collection is built around a loose theme of building bridges It is interested in the human condition as a dynamic central line linking individuals cultures and experiences east and west north and south and perhaps most importantly past present and future This book features established stars such as Edwidge Danticat Breath Eyes Memory Viet Thanh Nguyen The Sympathizer and Aminatta Forna The Hired Man and authors who are steadily building a reputation such as Fan Wu Ana Menendez and Daniel Alarcon In order of appearance the authors are Yewande Omotoso Viet Thanh Nguyen

One World Chris Brazier,2014 One World Two Aminatta Forna,Chris Brazier,2016 One World Two is even more ambitious than Volume One in its geographic scope featuring 21 writers drawn from every continent Most of the stories are unique to this volume while others are appearing for the first time in English as in the case of the contributions from Egypt s Mansoura Ez Eldin and Brazil s Vanessa Barbara Some of the writers are established stars while others are still building a reputation There is a loose theme of bridges between people and cultures but the themes and writing styles are as richly diverse as their writers origins Edinburgh Companion to the Short Story in English Paul Delaney,2018-02-01 Provides a clear introduction to the key terms and frameworks in cognitive poetics and stylistics Using Literature in English

Language Education Janice Bland,2018-08-23 Covering Green s The Fault in Our Stars Collins The Hunger Games Selznick s The Invention of Hugo Cabret Rowling s Wizards of the Wandering Inn Staaake s Bluebird and Winton s Lockie Leonard contributors consider how literature can be used for teaching literary literacy creative writing intercultural learning critical pedagogy and deep reading in school settings where English is the teaching medium Leading scholars from around the world explore pedagogical principles for English Language Teaching ELT widening children s and teenagers literacy competences as well as their horizons through insightful engagement with texts From challenging picturebooks for primary and secondary students to graphic novels to story apps film and drama as well as speculative fiction on provocative topics recent research on literature education in ELT settings combines with cognitive criticism in the field of children s young adult and adult literature African Migration, Human Rights and Literature

Fareda Banda,2020-12-24 This innovative book looks at the topic of migration through the prism of law and literature The author uses a rich mix of novels short stories literary realism human rights and comparative literature to explore the experiences of African migrants and asylum seekers The book is divided into two Part one is conceptual and focuses on art activism and the myriad ways in which people have sought to write justice Using Mazrui s diasporas of slavery and colonialism it then considers histories of migration across the centuries before honing in on the recent anti migration policies of western states Achiume is used to show how these histories of imposition and exploitation create a bond which bestows on Africans a status as co sovereigns of the First World through citizenship The many fictional examples of the schemes used to gain entry are set against the formal legal processes Attention is paid to life post arrival which for asylum seekers may include periods in detention The impact of the increased hostility of receiving states is examined in light of their human rights obligations Consideration is paid to how Africans navigate their post migration lives which includes reconciling themselves to status fracture taking on jobs for which they are over qualified while simultaneously dealing with the resentment borne of status threat on the part of the citizenry Part two moves from the general to consider the intersections of gender and status focusing on women LGBTI individuals and children Focusing on their human rights and the fictional literature chapter four looks at women who have been trafficked as well as domestic workers and hotel maids while chapter five is on LGBTI people whose legal and literary stories are only now being told The final substantive chapter considers the experiences of children who may arrive as unaccompanied minors Using a mixture of poetry and first person accounts the chapter examines the post arrival lives of children some of whom may be citizens but who are continually made to feel like outsiders The conclusion follows starting with two stories about walls by Hadero and Lanchester which are used to illustrate the themes discussed in the book Few African lawyers write about literature and few books and articles in Western law and literature look at books by or about Africans so a book that engages with both is long overdue This book provides fascinating reading for academics students of law literature gender and migration studies and indeed the general public

Poetics is about how we read postcolonial and world literatures today and about how the structures of that writing shape our reading. The book's eight chapters explore the ways in which postcolonial writing in English from various 21st century contexts including southern and West Africa and Black and Asian Britain interacts with our imaginative understanding of the world. Throughout the focus is on reading practices where reading is taken as an inventive border traversing activity one that postcolonial writing with its interests in margins intersections subversions and crossings specifically encourages. This close sustained focus on reading reception and literariness is an outstanding feature of the study as is its wide generic range embracing poetry essays and life writing as well as fiction. The field defining scholar Elleke Boehmer holds that literature has the capacity to keep reimagining and refreshing how we understand ourselves in relation to the world and to some of the most pressing questions of our time including resistance reconciliation survival after terror and migration.
