Onions Are My Husband Survival And Accumulation By West African Market Women:

Onions Are My Husband Gracia Clark, 1995-01-01 In the most comprehensive analysis to date of the world of open air marketplaces of West Africa Gracia Clark studies the market women of Kumasi Ghana in order to understand the key social forces that generate maintain and continually reshape the shifting market dynamics Probably the largest of its kind in West Africa the Kumasi Central Market houses women whose positions vary from hawkers of meals and cheap manufactured goods to powerful wholesalers who control the flow of important staples Drawing on more than four years of field research during which she worked alongside several influential market Queens Clark explains the economic political gender and ethnic complexities involved in the operation of the marketplace and examines the resourcefulness of the market women in surviving the various hazards they routinely encounter from coups d etat to persistent sabotage of their positions from within

African Market Women Gracia C. Clark, 2010-03-08 A wonderfully evocative compilation of seven life histories from Kumasi Ghana of women Gracia Clark encountered in the course of a lifetime of fieldwork African Studies Review In these lively life stories women market traders from Ghana comment on changing social and economic times and on reasons for their prosperity or decline in fortunes Gracia Clark shows that market women are intimately connected with economic policy on a global scale Many work at the intersection of sophisticated networks of transnational commerce and migration They have dramatic memories of independence and the growth of their new nation including political rivalries price controls and violent raids on the market The experiences of these women give substance to their reflections on globalization capital accumulation colonialism technological change environmental degradation teenage pregnancy marriage children changing gender roles and spirituality Clark s commentary illuminates the complex historical and cultural setting of these deeply revealing lives Shows in direct speech how family kinship marriage and age generation work together in a daily life which is shaped by political demographic cultural and wholly accidental change in people s circumstances Jane Guyer Johns Hopkins University Overall this is an excellent book it will be useful in undergraduate teaching and makes an important contribution to our understanding of the richness and variety of women s lives in West Africa Journal of Africa Clark offers intriguing insights into the lives of seven Akan women traders Recommended Choice Ghana Jeffrey Ahlman, 2023-10-05 Few African countries have attracted the international attention that Ghana has In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the then colonial Gold Coast emerged as a key political and intellectual hub for British West Africa Half a century later when Ghana became the first sub Saharan state to emerge from European colonial rule it became a key site for a burgeoning transnational African anticolonial politics that drew activists freedom fighters and intellectuals from around the world As the twentieth century came to a close Ghana also became an international symbol of the putative successes of post Cold War African liberalization and democratization projects Here Jeffrey Ahlman narrates this rich political history stretching from the beginnings of the very idea of the Gold Coast to the country s 1992 democratization which paved the way for the Fourth

Republic At the same time he offers a rich social history stretching that examines the sometimes overlapping sometimes divergent nature of what it means to be Ghanaian through discussions of marriage ethnicity and migration of cocoa as a cultural system of the multiple meanings of chieftaincy and of other contemporary markers of identity Throughout it all Ahlman distills decades of work by other scholars while also drawing on a wide array of archival oral journalistic and governmental sources in order to provide his own fresh insights For its clear comprehensive coverage not only of Ghanaian history but also of the major debates shaping nineteenth and twentieth century African politics and society more broadly Ghana A Political and Social History is a must read for students and scholars of African Studies

Gender and Food Marcia Texler Segal, Vasilikie (Vicky) Demos, 2016-09-02 Volume 22 explores the complex relationships between gender and food in a variety of locations and time periods using a range of research methods Gender inequality as it affects the struggle for access to land the affordability of food and its nutritional value is identified as a major social policy issue

Entrepreneurship in Africa Moses E. Ochonu, 2018-02-05 A tapestry of innovation ideas and commerce Africa and its entrepreneurial hubs are deeply connected to those of the past Moses E Ochonu and an international group of contributors explores the lived experiences of African innovators who have created value for themselves and their communities Profiles of vendors farmers craftspeople healers spiritual consultants warriors musicians technological innovators political mobilizers and laborers featured in this volume show African models of entrepreneurship in action As a whole the essays consider the history of entrepreneurship in Africa illustrating its multiple origins and showing how it differs from the Western capitalist experience As they establish historical patterns of business creativity these explorations open new avenues for understanding indigenous enterprise and homegrown commerce and their relationship to social economic and political debates in Africa today

Northern Ghanaian Women's Artistry Brittany Sheldon, 2023-12-06 Many existing studies present women's artistry as a consistent and enduring element of Indigenous culture emphasizing overarching systems of artistic practices aesthetic goals and symbolic repertoires Brittany Sheldon complicates this image within Northern Ghanaian Women's Artistry Visualizing Culture by emphasizing variations in individual training knowledge experience techniques skills and ideas that inevitably exist among artists and within their communities This book traces women's wall painting known as bamb lse in northern Ghana Based on extensive observations and numerous interviews Sheldon digs into women artists experiences and knowledge and describes their technical processes This book delves into the history of bamb lse how this tradition has changed over time and how it is tied to understandings of gender social hierarchy cultural identity and memory Rather than portraying the tradition as static Sheldon demonstrates how women adapt their artistry to changing circumstances including shifting preferences incentives markets and audiences With its vivid descriptions and detailed discussions this book brings women artists and their wall paintings to life for readers and as such it is relevant to scholars and students of African art history anthropology and gender studies

Global Perspectives on Football in Africa Susann Baller, Giorgio

Miescher, Ciraj Rassool, 2013-10-31 Football in many ways is a visual endeavour From the visual experience within the stadium itself to worldwide media representations from advertisements to football art and artefacts football is much about seeing and being seen about watching making visual and being visualised The FIFA World Cup 2010 in South Africa has turned into a perfect example of the visual dimensions of football Stadiums have been built and marketed as tourist attractions mass media and internet platforms are advertising South African cities and venues logos and emblems are displayed and celebrated exhibitions are organised in museums world wide This book explores the social cultural and political role of football in Africa by focusing on the issue of its visibility and invisibility The contributions consider the history and present of football in different parts of Africa They examine historical and recent pictures and images of football and football players as well as places and spaces of their production and perception They analyse the visual dimensions expressed in sports infrastructure football media scapes and in expressive and material arts This book thus contributes to the growing interest in football in Africa by exploring a new field of research into sports This book was previously published as a special issue of Soccer and Society

Routledge Handbook of Food and Nutrition Security Bill Pritchard, Rodomiro Ortiz, Meera Shekar, 2016-03-31 The concept of food and nutrition security has evolved and risen to the top of the international policy agenda over the last decade Yet it is a complex and multi faceted issue requiring a broad and inter disciplinary perspective for full understanding This Handbook represents the most comprehensive compilation of our current knowledge of food and nutrition security from a global perspective It is organized to reflect the wide scope of the contents its four sections corresponding to the accepted current definitional frameworks prevailing in the work of multilateral agencies and mainstream scholarship The first section addresses the struggles and progression of ideas and debates about the subject in recent years The other sections focus on three key themes how food has been is and should be made available including by improvements in agricultural productivity the ways in which politico economic and social arenas have shaped access to food and the effects of food and nutrition systems in addressing human health known as food utilisation Overall the volume synthesizes a vast field of information drawn from agriculture soil science climatology economics sociology human and physical geography the nutrition and health sciences environmental science and development studies
