Criminal Litigation 2016-2017 Martin Hannibal, Lisa Mountford, 2016-07-07 This title offers a comprehensive and practical guide to criminal litigation. It weaves together theory and practice making use of case studies to assist students and illustrate how to put their understanding in a practical context. BLACKSTONE'S MAGISTRATES' COURT HANDBOOK 2016 ANTHONY EDWARDS., Criminal Litigation 2015-2016 Martin Hannibal, Lisa Mountford, 2015-07-09 Criminal Litigation offers a comprehensive and practical guide to the areas of criminal litigation covered on the Legal Practice Course. Making effective use of realistic case studies backed up by online documentation the text combines theory with practical considerations and encourages students to focus on putting their knowledge into a practical context. Written in an informal and accessible style it covers all procedural and evidential issues that arise in criminal cases. The more complex areas of criminal litigation are examined using numerous diagrams, flowcharts and examples while potential changes in the law are highlighted by specially designed Looking Ahead boxes. Chapters end with key points summaries and self test questions enabling students to quickly sum up what they have read and test their own knowledge. The comprehensive Online Resource Centre offers vital support to students throughout their course. Updates are freely accessible to enable students to keep up to date with developments in the field while links to other useful websites and legislation encourage students to explore the subject area fully. Additional online chapters exploring the practice and dynamics of police station practice, regulatory crime and sentencing in road traffic accidents are included for students interested in pursuing specialist areas of accreditation. An interactive timeline distinguishing between the three classifications of offences: summary only, either way and indictable only helps students to see how the whole criminal litigation process fits together and the issues that they need to bear in mind at particular points. Lecturers are able to access video clips of fictional but realistic court proceedings that follow the case studies included in the text. Documentation supporting these case studies is also provided via the site. Additional videos cover the procedure at the police station and sentencing in the Crown Court.
