African Evangelicalism and the Transformation of Africa Jacob K. Olupona, 2025 What is the impact of Evangelical Christianity on Africa Evangelical Christianity and the Transformation of Africa will answer this question Evangelical Christianity is manifesting into a strong presence in African states perhaps more than in any other place in the world Given its exponential rise in Africa it is increasingly clear that Christianity in its evangelical form is exercising significant influence in virtually all spheres of life defining the essence of public and private life Drawing on original works from leading scholars in humanities and social science disciplines such as Afe Adogame Yolanda Covington Ward Jacob Olupona Derek Peterson Shobana Shankar and Nimi Wariboko this volume endeavors to produce a comprehensive study of Evangelical Christianity in Africa paying careful attention to disciplinary interconnections as well as social cultural political and economic forces Among other subjects essays in this volume address examples of evangelical subjectivity and identity formation against the current political backdrops of Nigeria Kenya the Democratic Republic of Congo and other nations While the book works to convey the core elements of the evangelical movement across the African continent it recognizes the importance of its diverse manifestations giving additional focus to Pentecostal groups and their distinct social cultural and political engagements At the same time it works to correct the unwarranted saturation of attention given to Pentecostal Charismatic movements in recent scholarship and expands the study of evangelicalism in Africa into the sphere of mainline churches and extra ecclesial organizations Authors also reflect on the ways that the African diaspora and transnational ties contribute to the make up of contemporary African evangelicalism In short this edited volume examines how the centrality of religion in African affairs political economic cultural ideological domains has contributed to turning Evangelical Christianity into the official face of the Christian Church in Africa today

Religion and Anthropology Brian Morris, 2006 This important study provides a critical introduction to the social anthropology of religion focusing on more recent classical ethnographies Comprehensive free of scholastic jargon engaging and comparative in approach it covers all the major religious traditions that have been studied concretely by anthropologists Shamanism Buddhism Islam Hinduism Christianity and its relation to African and Melanesian religions and contemporary Neo Paganism Page 4 of cover

The Anthropology of Religious Conversion Andrew Buckser, Stephen D. Glazier, 2003-08-18 The Anthropology of Religious Conversion paints a picture of conversion far more complex than its customary image in anthropology and religious studies Conversion is very seldom simply a sudden moment of insight or inspiration it is a change both of individual consciousness and of social belonging of mental attitude and of physical experience whose unfolding depends both on its cultural setting and on the distinct individuals who undergo it The book explores religious conversion in a variety of cultural settings and considers how anthropological approaches can help us understand the phenomenon Fourteen case studies span historical and geographical contexts including the contemporary United States modern and medieval Europe and non western societies in South Asia Melanesia and South America They discuss conversion to Christianity Judaism Hinduism Islam and Spiritualism Combining ethnographic description with theoretical analysis authors consider the nature and meaning of conversion its social and political dimensions and its relationship to individual religious experience Religions in Practice John Richard Bowen,2008 This widely used textbook offers a unique perspective on how people engage in everyday religious practices such as prayer sacrifice initiation and healing by investigating broad scale issues such as transnationalism gender and religious laws No other text examines the full spectrum of religions from small scale societies to full blown world religious movements The in depth treatment of Islam Hinduism and Christianity is of particular interest to students and is easily expanded to include field projects directly related to material covered in the text As one reviewer writes In our post 9 11 era it is great to have a book whose author has done fieldwork in Indonesia and is so knowledgeable about Islam Religion and Anthropology Brian Morris,2006

Ordinary Lives and Grand Schemes Joska Samuli Schielke,Liza Debevec,2012 Everyday practice of religion is complex in its nature ambivalent and at times contradictory The task of an anthropology of religious practice is therefore precisely to see how people navigate and make sense of that complexity and what the significance of religious beliefs and practices in a given setting can be Rather than putting everyday practice and normative doctrine on different analytical planes the authors argue that the articulation of religious doctrine is also an everyday practice and must be understood as such The
