Online Book Feast Excess Cultural History Sensibility:

Feast of Excess George Cotkin, 2016 Feast of Excess is an engaging and accessible portrait of The New Sensibility as it was named by Susan Sontag in 1965 The New Sensibility sought to push culture in extreme directions either towards stark minimalism or gaudy maximalism Through vignette profiles of prominent figures John Cage Patricia Highsmith Allen Ginsberg Andy Warhol Anne Sexton John Coltrane Bob Dylan Erica Jong and Thomas Pynchon to name a few George Cotkin presents their bold headline grabbing performances and places them within the historical moment Celebrity and Mediated Social Connections Neil M. Alperstein, 2019-05-16 Celebrity and Mediated Social Connections is a critical examination of the multiple realities of the mediated culture we traverse extending from our imaginary inner worlds to the imagined communities of digital media Chapters explore the dialogic at work when we connect with celebrities and internalize aspects of their personas due to the various social roles they serve within our everyday lives What might begin as strong identification and internalization within our imaginary worlds in this digital age sometimes seeps out as we connect to celebrities their fans friends and followers in ways that were not formerly possible The book contains topics that range from the degradation of micro celebrities the role of celebrities in promoting prescription drugs and their role in contemporary social movements The common thread that runs through the book presents a mediated world that paradoxically allows if not encourages people to daydream engage in stream of consciousness thinking and fantasize about celebrities all while concurrently compelling us to engage in a digitally based objective world The possibility of interaction on and through digital media intensifies the emotional connection between celebrity and fan The more personal details one gives up the closer we feel we become digital intimacy based on the excessive self Digital media entice us to engage and remain tethered to technology staying continuously connected so as not to miss the latest post or meme To suggest we should build a proverbial wall between the two imaginary and objective worlds runs counter to the reality of an always on always connected culture in which we presently live Asylum Ways of Seeing Heather Murray, 2022-01-04 Asylum Ways of Seeing is a cultural and intellectual history of people with mental illnesses in the twentieth century United States While acknowledging the fraught and often violent histories of American psychiatric hospitals Heather Murray also suggests that it is in these hospitals that patients became more intense observers they gave more conscious consideration to institutional and broader kinds of citizenship to the nature and needs of communities versus those of individuals to scientific modernity and to human rights and solidarities among the suffering All of these ideas have animated twentieth century America and as Murray shows have not just flowed into psychiatric hospitals but outward from them as well These themes are especially clear within patients intimate creative and political correspondence writings and drawings as well as in hospital publications and films This way of thinking and imagining contrasts with more common images of the patient as passive resigned and absented from the world in the cloistered setting of the hospital that have animated psychiatry over the course of the twentieth century Asylum Ways of Seeing traces how it is that patient resignation went from being interpreted as wisdom in the early twentieth century to being understood as a capitulation in scientific and political sources by mid century to being seen as a profound violation of selfhood and individual rights by the century s end In so doing it makes a call to reconsider the philosophical possibilities within resignation Modern American Drama: Playwriting in the 1930s Anne Fletcher,2019-11-14 The Decades of Modern American Drama series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1930s to 2009 in eight volumes Each volume equips readers with a detailed understanding of the context from which work emerged an introduction considers life in the decade with a focus on domestic life and conditions social changes culture media technology industry and political events while a chapter on the theatre of the decade offers a wide ranging and thorough survey of theatres companies dramatists new movements and developments in response to the economic and political conditions of the day The work of the four most prominent playwrights from the decade receives in depth analysis and re evaluation by a team of experts together with commentary on their subsequent work and legacy A final section brings together original documents such as interviews with the playwrights and with directors drafts of play scenes and other previously unpublished material The major playwrights and their works to receive in depth coverage in this volume include Clifford Odets Waiting for Lefty 1935 Awake and Sing 1935 and Golden Boy 1937 Lillian Hellman The Children s Hour 1934 The Little Foxes 1939 and Days to Come 1936 Langston Hughes Mulatto 1935 Mule Bone 1930 with Zora Neale Hurston and Little Ham 1936 Gertrude Stein Doctor Faustus Lights the Lights 1938 Four Saints in Three Acts written in 1927 published in 1932 and Listen to Me 1936

Heritage, Labour and the Working Classes Laurajane Smith,Paul Shackel,Gary Campbell,2012-05-23 Heritage Labour and the Working Classes is both a celebration and commemoration of working class culture It contains sometimes inspiring accounts of working class communities and people telling their own stories and weaves together examples of tangible and intangible heritage place history memory music and literature Rather than being framed in a social inclusion framework which sees working class culture as a deficit this book addresses the question What is labour and working class heritage how does it differ or stand in opposition to dominant ways of understanding heritage and history and in what ways is it used as a contemporary resource It also explores how heritage is used in working class communities and by labour organizations and considers what meanings and significance this heritage may have while also identifying how and why communities and their heritage have been excluded Drawing on new scholarship in heritage studies social memory the public history of labour and new working class studies this volume highlights the heritage of working people communities and organizations Contributions are drawn from a number of Western countries including the USA UK Spain Sweden Australia and New Zealand and from a range of disciplines including heritage and museum studies history sociology politics archaeology and anthropology Heritage Labour and the Working Classes represents an innovative and useful resource for heritage and museum practitioners students and academics concerned with understanding community heritage and the debate on social inclusion exclusion It offers new ways of understanding heritage its values and consequences and presents a challenge to dominant and traditional frameworks for understanding and identifying heritage and heritage making

Objects in Air Margareta Ingrid Christian,2021-06-07 Margareta Ingrid Christian unpacks the ways in which around 1900 art scholars critics and choreographers wrote about the artwork as an actual object in real time and space surrounded and fluently connected to the viewer through the very air we breathe Theorists such as Aby Warburg Alois Riegl Rainer Maria Rilke and the choreographer Rudolf Laban drew on the science of their time to examine air as the material space surrounding an artwork establishing its milieu atmosphere or environment Christian explores how the artwork s external space was seen to work as an aesthetic category in its own right beginning with Rainer Maria Rilke s observation that Rodin s sculpture exhales an atmosphere and that Cezanne s colors create a calm silken air that pervades the empty rooms where the paintings are exhibited Writers created an early theory of unbounded form that described what Christian calls an artwork s ecstasis or its ability to stray outside its limits and engender its own space Objects viewed in this perspective complicate the now fashionable discourse of empathy aesthetics the attention to self projecting subjects and the idea of the modernist self contained artwork For example Christian invites us to historicize the immersive spatial installations and environments that have arisen since the 1960s and to consider their origins in turn of the twentieth century aesthetics Throughout this beautifully written work Christian offers ways for us to rethink entrenched narratives of aesthetics and modernism and to revisit alternatives
