Online Book Make Tinkering Learn Making Stuff:

Tinkering Curt Gabrielson, 2015-10-28 How can you consistently pull off hands on tinkering with kids How do you deal with questions that you can't answer How do you know if tinkering kids are learning anything or not Is there a line between fooling around with real stuff and learning The idea of learning through tinkering is not so radical From the dawn of time whenever humanity has wanted to know more we have achieved it most effectively by getting our hands dirty and making careful observations of real stuff Make Tinkering Kids Learn by Making Stuff lets you discover how why and even what it is to tinker and tinker well Author Curt Gabrielson draws on more than 20 years of experience doing hands on science to facilitate tinkering learning science while fooling around with real things This book shows you how to make A drum set from plastic bottles tape and shrink wrap Magnetic toys that dance sway and amaze Catapults ball launchers and table top basketball A battery powered magic wand and a steadiness game don't touch the sides Chemical reactions with household items Models of bones and tendons that work like real arms and ankles Spin art machine and a hovercraft from a paper plate Lifelong learners hungry for their next genuine experience Makeology Kylie Peppler, Erica Halverson, Yasmin B. Kafai, 2016-05-20 Makeology introduces the emerging landscape of the Maker Movement and its connection to interest driven learning While the movement is fueled in part by new tools technologies and online communities available to today's makers its simultaneous emphasis on engaging the world through design and sharing with others harkens back to early educational predecessors including Froebel Dewey Montessori and Papert Makerspaces as Learning Environments Volume 1 focuses on making in a variety of educational ecosystems spanning nursery schools K 12 environments higher education museums and after school spaces Each chapter closes with a set of practical takeaways for educators researchers and parents Maker Literacies and Maker Identities in the Digital Age Cheryl A. McLean, Jennifer Rowsell, 2020-11-18 This book explores making in the school curriculum in a period in which the ability to create and respond to digital artifacts is key and focuses on makerspaces in educational settings Combining the arts with design to give a fuller picture of the engagement and wonder that unfolds with maker literacies the book moves across such settings and themes as Creativity and writing in classrooms Making and developing civic engagement Emotional experiences of making Race and gender in makerspace Game based play and coding in schools and draws its case studies from the Netherlands Finland Canada Australia the United Kingdom and the United States Giving as broad a perspective on makerspaces making and design as possible the book will help scholars expand their understandings and help educators appreciate the power and worth of making to inspire students It is useful for anyone hoping to apply design maker and makerspace approaches to their teaching and learning The Collection Program in Schools Marcia A. Mardis, 2021-07-19 This thorough treatment of collection development for school library educators students and practicing school librarians provides quick access to information This seventh edition of The Collection Program in Schools is updated in several key areas It provides an overview of key education trends affecting school library collections such as digital textbooks instructional improvement systems STEM priorities and open education resource OER use and reuse Topics of discussion include the new AASL standards as they relate to the collection the idea of crowd sourcing in collection development and current trends in the school library profession such as Future Ready Libraries and new standards from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Each chapter has been updated and revised with new material and particular emphasis is placed on disaster preparedness and response as they pertain to policies circulation preservation and moving or closing a collection This edition also includes updates to review of curation and community analysis principles as they affect the development of the library collection

Creating Makers Megan Egbert, 2016-07-18 This book shows you how even with a tight budget and limited space you can foster maker mentality in your library and help patrons reap the learning benefits of making with or without a makerspace Just because your library is small or limited on funds doesn't mean you can't be part of the maker movement This book explains that what is really important about the movement is not the space but the creativity innovation and resilience that go along with a successful maker program All it takes is making some important changes to a library's programs services and collections to facilitate the maker mentality in their patrons and this book shows you how The author explains what a maker is why this movement is important and how making fits in with educational initiatives such as STEM and STEAM as well as with library service Her book supplies practical advice for incorporating the principles of the maker movement into library services how to use small spaces or mobile spaces to accommodate maker programs creating passive maker programs providing access to making through circulating maker tools partnering with other organizations hosting maker fairs and more Readers will better understand their instructional role in cultivating makers by human centered design thinking open source and shared learning and implementation of an inquiry approach
