Principles of Language Learning and Teaching H. Douglas Brown, 2000 Language learning and teaching First language acquisition Age and acquisition Human learning Styles and strategies Personality factors Cross linguistic influence and learner language Communicative competence Theories of second language acquisition Linguistic Informatics □

State of the Art and the Future Yuji Kawaguchi, Susumu Zaima, Toshihiro Takagaki, Kohji Shibano, Mayumi Usami, 2005-04-14 It is widely believed that linguistic theories and information technology have considerably influenced foreign language education However the collaboration of these three domains has not brought about new scientific results It is thus our attempt to realize an integration of theoretical and applied linguistics on the basis of computer sciences and establish a new synthetic field called Linguistic Informatics The present volume constitutes the Proceedings of the First International Conference on Linguistic Informatics held at Tokyo University of Foreign Studies TUFS in December 2003 The volume is comprised of five chapters 1 Computer Assisted Linguistics Potential for collaboration between linguistics and informatics 2 Corpus Linguistics Status report on corpus based linguistic research 3 Applied Linguistics Relationship between second language acquisition and linguistic theory 4 Discourse Analysis and Language Teaching Current status of natural dialogue based discourse analysis 5 TUFS Language Modules Development of multilingual e learning materials covering 17 different languages New Perspectives on Individual Differences in Language Learning and Teaching

Miroslaw Pawlak, 2012-04-07 The volume constitutes an attempt to capture the intricate relationship between individual learner differences and other variables which are of interest to theorists researchers and practitioners representing such diverse branches of applied linguistics as psycholinguistics sociolinguistics pragmatics or language teaching methodology It brings together contributions by Polish and international authors including leading experts in the field touching upon changing perspectives on individual variation cognitive affective and social variables learning deficits as well as their impact on learning and teaching It offers a multifaceted perspective on these problems and shows how theory and research can be translated into classroom practice Frontiers of Language and Teaching, Vol.2: Proceedings of the 2011 International Online Language Conference (IOLC 2011) ,

Psycholinguistic and Sociolinguistic Perspectives on Second Language Learning and Teaching Krystyna Drozdziel-Szelest, Miroslaw Pawlak, 2014-07-08 The volume provides a state of the art overview of key issues in second language learning and teaching adopting as a point of reference both psycholinguistic and sociolinguistic perspectives The papers included in the collection which have been contributed by leading specialists in the field from Poland and abroad touch upon important theoretical issues report latest research findings and offer guidelines for classroom practice The range of topics covered and the inclusion of concrete pedagogic proposals ensures that the book will be of interest to a wide audience not only SLA specialists but also methodologists material designers undergraduate and graduate students and practitioners Spoken English 3' 2003 Ed. , Correspondences and Contrasts in Foreign

Language Pedagogy and Translation Studies Katarzyna Piątkowska, Ewa Kościółkowska-Okońska, 2013-05-24 The book constitutes a selection of 18 papers on foreign language pedagogy 11 papers and translation studies 9 papers The first part of the book is devoted to foreign language pedagogy The articles in this part focus on issues such as English as lingua franca foreign language teacher training the role of individual learner differences in language learning and teaching especially with respect to strategies of language learning as well as psychological and socioaffective factors The part focusing on translation studies comprises articles devoted to a variety of topics It places a wide range of readings within the context of varying translation domains such as translation competence literary translation translation strategies translation teaching including strategies of dictionary use and translator training The combination of the above aspects intends to underline the truly interdisciplinary nature of translation

Classroom-oriented Research Mirosław Pawlak, Jakub Bielak, Anna Mystkowska-Wiertelak, 2013-07-20 The volume brings together papers related to different aspects of classroom oriented research on teaching and learning second and foreign languages that have been authored by specialists from Poland and abroad The first part contains contributions dealing with individual variation in the language classroom in particular age anxiety beliefs and language learning strategies The second part deals with various facets of teachers behaviors in the classroom focusing in particular on classroom communication and the use of action research in teacher training The third part includes papers devoted to various instructional practices such as the use of new technologies the development of intercultural competence assessment or combining content and language Finally the last part deals with issues involved in research methodology with special emphasis being placed on the use of diaries observations mixed methods research as well as triangulation

Meta-cognition Michael F. Shaughnessy, Marcel Veenman, Cynthia Kleyn Kennedy, 2008 Over the past two decades the word metacognition has become a regularly used part of our language and vocabulary in both psychology and education Many research articles have been written about it the conceptualisation of this construct has expanded and conferences abound with investigations and empirical research into various facets of this domain This book provides some of the most recent research by scholars from various parts of the world It includes differing perspectives some empirical some theory driven and some application papers The book focuses on metacognition and its relevance to gifted and highly able students Many of the papers focus directly and specifically on this others are more tangential in nature

Interdisciplinary Behavior and Social Sciences Ford Lumban Gaol, 2015-02-27 The human aspect plays an important role in the social sciences The behavior of people has become a vital area of focus in the social sciences as well Interdisciplinary Behavior and Social Sciences contains papers that were originally presented at the 3rd International Congress on Interdisciplinary Behavior and Social Science 2014 ICIBSoS 2014
