Principles of marketing CRISTINA CALVO PORRAL ,JOHN L. STANTON,2017-03-08 Marketing reversed prior business logic 50 years ago and said the customer is king and the companies began to recognize that it was not just the product that was the most important aspect of their business Companies recognized that consumers had a myriad of choices of product offerings and marketing was responsible to ensure that the company's products had the benefits and attributes that customers wanted and were willing to pay for Today considering the technology development which influences every function of the company the focus of the successful marketing oriented companies has changed from the customer is king to the customer is a dictator However and despite the new trends in marketing like any social science marketing has basic principles and these principles need to be considered when making any type of marketing decisions So the major step of a student of marketing whether it is a young university student or an experienced business executive is to understand the principles of marketing and reading the present book will be the first step in accomplishing this task This book describes these basic principles of marketing and while the authors recognize that each decision may be slightly different from any previous decision the rules or principles remain the same The present book presents these basic marketing principles and tries to capture the essence of practical and modern marketing today Therefore the purpose of Principles of Marketing is to introduce readers to the fascinating world of marketing today in an easy enjoyable and practical way offering an attractive text from which to learn about and teach marketing

Principles of Marketing Frances Brassington,Stephen Pettitt,2006 This well respected and widely adopted text has now been fully updated to reflect the continued evolution of the marketing discipline and to retain its topicality and freshness Principles of Marketing Engineering, 2nd Edition Gary L. Lilien,Arvind Rangaswamy,Arnaud De Bruyn,2013 The 21st century business environment demands more analysis and rigor in marketing decision making Increasingly marketing decision making resembles design engineering putting together concepts data analyses and simulations to learn about the marketplace and to design effective marketing plans While many view traditional marketing as art and some view it as science the new marketing increasingly looks like engineering that is combining art and science to solve specific problems Marketing Engineering is the systematic approach to harness data and knowledge to drive effective marketing decision making and implementation through a technology enabled and model supported decision process For more information on Excel based models that support these concepts visit DecisionPro biz We have designed this book primarily for the business school student or marketing manager who with minimal background and technical training must understand and employ the basic tools and models associated with Marketing Engineering We offer an accessible overview of the most widely used marketing engineering concepts and tools and show how they drive the collection of the right data and information to perform the right analyses to make better marketing plans better product designs and better marketing decisions What's New In the 2nd Edition While much has changed in the nearly five years since the first edition of Principles of Marketing Engineering was published much has remained the same Hence we have not changed the basic structure or contents of the book We have however Updated the examples and references Added new content on customer lifetime value and customer valuation methods Added several new pricing models Added new material on reverse perceptual mapping to describe some exciting enhancements to our Marketing Engineering for Excel software Provided some new perspectives on the future of Marketing Engineering Provided better alignment between the content of the text and both the software and cases available with Marketing Engineering for Excel 2 0
