Interviewing in Criminal Justice Vivian Lord,Allen Cowan,2011-08-24 Obtaining valid and complete information is one of the most critical skills that any professional working in the criminal justice field can possess Interviewing in Criminal Justice teaches the fundamentals of effective interviewing including critical communication skills interpretation skills and how to effectively relay information This solid resource prepares criminal justice students and professionals in other fields how to assess probation clients communicate with juveniles collect information from defendants and much more

Qualitative Approaches to Criminal Justice Mark Pogrebin,2003 The growth in popularity of qualitative research in the social sciences over the last two decades has been nothing short of amazing Qualitative Approaches to Criminal Justice Perspectives from the Field reveals some of the reasons for the success and stature of this unique methodological approach Exploring the real life experiences of criminal justice professionals this anthology is the first book to focus solely on the use of qualitative research in various components of the criminal justice system The collection is organized from two criminal justice perspectives one qualitatively oriented and the other system oriented including overviews of each qualitative method and commentaries that analyze the research techniques Case studies illustrating actual fieldwork practices bring theory vividly to life Qualitative Approaches to Criminal Justice Perspectives from the Field is multi faceted in both its content and application Through its investigative techniques which rely mainly on observations participant observation and open ended interviews qualitative research reveals parts of the social world that remain hidden to more traditional methodological techniques Recommended as a companion to an administration of criminal justice course as well as courses in qualitative research in criminal justice Also recommended as a supplemental text for any research methods course in a criminal justice degree program including sociology political science and legal studies Federal Probation ,1999 Sentencing Advocacy C.J. Williams,2023-01-11 To ensure a fair criminal trial effective sentencing advocacy is needed in every stage of prosecution from investigation through plea trial and sentencing hearings With fewer criminal cases proceeding to trial advocacy is increasingly critical for both prosecutors and defense attorneys and can determine whether or not a defendant receives an appropriate sentence Here is a volume that comprehensively describes the steps to effective sentencing advocacy addressing not only terms of imprisonment or probation but fines forfeiture restitution and other collateral sentencing consequences It emphasizes approaching sentencing advocacy holistically treating it as a key component of attorney advocacy in every criminal case Covering the fundamental sentencing procedures and concepts it describes where and how attorneys can use advocacy to advance their clients goals It also explains aspects of sentencing that otherwise may appear too complex to a novice criminal practitioner Importantly this is not a book on sentencing law although it addresses legal sentencing issues as they pertain to sentencing advocacy Rather the focus is on teaching attorneys how to use advocacy to achieve the best sentence for their clients Research Methods in Criminal Justice and Criminology Callie Marie Rennison,Timothy C. Hart,2022-01-31 Research Methods in Criminal Justice and Criminology connects key concepts to real field research and practices using contemporary examples and recurring case studies throughout the book that demonstrate how concepts relate to students lives Authors Callie M Rennison and Timothy C Hart introduce practical research strategies used in criminal justice to show students how a research question can become a policy that changes or influences criminal justice practices The book s student driven approach addresses both the why and the how as it covers the research process and focuses on the practical application of data collection and analysis By demonstrating the variety of ways research can be used and reinforcing the need to discern quality research the book prepares students to become critical consumers and ethical producers of research The Second Edition includes two new case studies woven throughout and new expert profiles to highlight contemporary topics Editable PowerPoint slides and a test bank are available to instructors Deskbook for Chief Judges of U.S. District Courts ,2003 ICR-(series) 70-3. MOdern Court Management United States. Department of Justice,1970 The Resettlement of Sex Offenders after Custody David Thompson,Terry Thomas,2017-07-14 Circles of Support and Accountability is a voluntary initiative that assists people with convictions for sexual offences to resettle in the community

People leaving prison with such convictions often have difficulties in resettling. They carry the burden of the conviction itself which may be both stigmatising and isolating and they are the subject of sex offender register requirements, parole and other supervisory conditions. Circles of Support and Accountability in the UK started over ten years ago and have slowly spread across the country. They work closely with the police and probation services but rely entirely on volunteers prepared to give up their time to work with people often otherwise shunned by communities. Circles offer support to the person concerned but also hold them accountable for their future behaviour. They aim to ensure there are no more victims. This book is based on original research and provides a close up picture of how these Circles of Support and Accountability work in practice. It brings together for the first time the voices of all the participants from the offenders and the volunteers through to the Coordinators who link the volunteers to the professionals in the form of the police and probation services. The research was commissioned by Circles UK and funded by the Wates Foundation and the University of Leeds School of Law.
