Navigating the Journey of Aging Parents Cheryl A. Kuba, 2013-05-13 Navigating the Journey of Aging Parents proposes an entirely unique approach to the field of gerontology giving dependent care receivers a voice Caregivers will be made aware of what care receivers truly want during life s final chapters Exploring issues of housing spirituality personal care and death Cheryl Kuba has created a testament to the dependent elderly This book draws on numerous interviews with aging people and discusses common caregiver mistakes and interpretations what a caregiver should expect when an aging parent moves in and how to care for an aging parent from afar Kuba also delves into such phenomena as guilt role reversal changing family dynamics financial stress and caring for oneself while caring for another The 22.4 million elderly people being cared for in the United States comprises the fastest growing segment of the population making this reference on the opinions and concerns of care receivers invaluable

Navigating Numeracies

Brian V. Street, Dave Baker, Alison Tomlin, 2006-03-14 Abstract This introduction sets the scene for the remainder of the book by considering first the international context of widespread concern about the improvement of numeracy skills This is related to reform movements in the UK the US and other countries aimed at modernising primary elementary school mathematics curricula A detailed account is given of the National Numeracy Strategy in England a systemic government imposed response to concern about standards implemented in 1999 2000 This includes a discussion of the alternative meanings of numeracy An earlier initiative sponsored by a UK charitable trust reacting to concern about primary numeracy was the Leverhulme Numeracy Research Programme This large scale longitudinal study and linked set of case study projects focusing on reasons for low attainment took place during 1997 2002 This book and each other in the same series is based on results of that research The timescale fortuitously enabled the research team to also report on some effects of the systemic reform in the National Numeracy Strategy 1 THE INTERNATIONAL CONTEXT In many countries there are recurring periods of national concern about the low standards of calculation skills shown by children in primary elementary schools Recently these concerns have become more urgent and more political with the publication of international comparisons of mathematical achievement first at secondary and more recently at primary level e.g. Lapointe Mead et al 1992 Mullis et al 1997

Navigating Grace

Jeff Jay, 2015-08-11 A moving illustration of the power of grace to elevate us during troubling times Jeff Jay offers a soulful account of his solo sailing journey that turned into a battle for survival on the open sea Jeff Jay's recent life was full of tragedy his marriage had ended his father had passed away his brother had committed suicide and Jeff's own alcoholism had taken him to the edge of death In his desire for a fresh start Jeff set out on a solo adventure by sea on an old sloop named Lifeboat It ultimately became a journey of personal transformation He cast off in Annapolis Maryland with an eye toward the Caribbean Finally able to breathe Jeff relaxed into his first day sailing the Atlantic when a dark winter storm descended tossing him into a week long fight for survival on the open sea As he faced the realization that only divine intervention could deliver him from certain death Jeff desperately called on the deity that had intervened in the darkest hours of his addiction years earlier An intensely personal testimony to calling on the power of grace in our darkest hours Jeff s is a beautifully written tale of far fetched dreams desperate prayers and those miraculous moments that change our lives forever
