Reviving Reading School Library Programming Author Visits And S That Rock:

Reviving Reading Alison M.G. Follos, 2006-07-30 Drawing on her long experience as a school librarian the author uses this middle school library programming book to help you promote free voluntary reading through innovative workshops staff training collection development and collaborative curricular planning Her goal to revive the enthusiasm for reading that is often lost by the middle school years Her recommendation creative library literacy programming designed to pique flagging interest in reading for pleasure Chapters focus on how to use the school s calendar and curriculum to get the time needed for the focused program as well as ways to manipulate budgets get grants and other monies to build a strong literature oriented program and collection One chapter focuses entirely on how to get faculty to become readers of YA and children s literature in order to become models for their students Other programs discussed are author visits book fairs whole school reading programs journaling for readers and many more Also included is an annotated bibliography of great reads Grades 4 12

Supporting Reading in Grades 6-12 Sybil M. Farwell, Nancy L. Teger, 2012-06-11 This book presents a curricular framework for students grades 6 12 that school librarians and teachers can use collaboratively to enhance reading skill development promote literature appreciation and motivate young people to incorporate reading into their lives beyond the required schoolwork Supporting Reading Grades 6 12 A Guide addresses head on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students motivation and test scores The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this the READS curriculum which stands for Read as a personal activity Explore characteristics history and awards of creative works Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works Develop a literary based product and Score reading progress Each of these five components is explained thoroughly describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals in groups and as school communities support classroom teachers instruction and connect students to today s constantly evolving technologies Used in combination with an inquiry information skills model the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic balanced library program that addresses AASL s Standards for the 21st Century Learner

Connecting Boys with Books 2 Michael Sullivan, 2009 In this work Sullivan digs deeper melding his own experiences as an activist with perspectives gleaned from other industry experts to help you learn about the books that boys love to read uncover the signs that point to the reading gap find creative programming ideas to match boys interests and more

The Inter-Galactic Playground Farah Mendlesohn, 2009-07-15 Science fiction is often considered the genre of ideas and imagination which would seem to make it ideal for juveniles and young adults however the ideas are often dispensed by adults This book considers the development of science fiction for children and teens between 1950 and 2010 exploring why it differs from science fiction aimed at adults In a broader sense this critical examination of 400 texts sheds light on changing attitudes toward children and teenagers toward science education and toward the authors expectations and sociological views of their audience Children's Literature in Action Sylvia M. Vardell, 2019-06-14 This practitioner oriented introduction to literature for children ages 5-12 covers the latest trends, titles and tools for choosing the best books and materials as well as for planning fun and effective programs and activities. The third edition of Children's Literature in Action provides an activity-oriented survey of children's literature for undergraduate and graduate students seeking licensure and degrees that will lead to careers working with children in schools and public libraries. Author Sylvia M. Vardell draws on her 30 years of university teaching and extensive familiarity with the major textbooks in the area of children's literature to deliver something different: a book that focuses specifically on the perspective and needs of the librarian with emphasis on practical action and library applications. Its contents address seven major genres: picture books, traditional tales, poetry, contemporary realistic fiction, historical fiction, fantasy, and informational books. Each chapter includes practical applications for the educator who shares books with children and who develops literature-based instruction. Chapters are enriched by author comments, collaborative activities, featured books, special topics, and activities including selected awards and celebrations, historical connections, recommended resources, issues for discussion, and assignment suggestions. This new edition incorporates the 2018 AASL National School Library Standards. School Library Journal, 2006 Library Literature & Information Science, 2006 An index to library and information science literature The Librarian and Book World, 1925 Choice, 2007 Subject Guide to Books, 1924 Contents v 1 History travel description
