Rhetoric and Philosophy in Conflict Samuel IJsseling, 1976 Rhetoric and Philosophy in Conflict J.C. IJsseling, 2012-12-06 Educational Philosophy Edward J. Power, 2021-12-12 The first step in education's long road to respectability lay in the ability of its proponents to demonstrate that it was worthy of collaborating with traditional disciplines in the syllabus of higher learning The universities where the infant discipline of education was promoted benefited from scholars who engaged in teaching and research with enthusiasm and preached the gospel of scientific education These schools Teachers College Columbia University the University of Chicago and Stanford University gained a reputation as oases of pedagogical knowledge Soon public and private colleges alike introduced professional academic programs for the preparation of teachers Foremost among the subjects for these programs was education philosophy with its long history and the impeccable credentials of its ancient and modern expositors Although the principal focus of this study is the history of educational philosophy in colleges and universities it also recognizes educational philosophy's antecedents Chapters cover ancient roots Christian educational theory educational theory and the modern world philosophy and education in early America development of philosophies of education disciplinary maturity for educational philosophy and prospects There is a bibliography and an index Introduction to Scholarship in Modern Languages and Literatures David G. Nicholls, 2015-01-01 The third edition of the MLA's widely used Introduction to Scholarship in Modern Languages and Literatures features sixteen new essays by leading scholars Designed to highlight relations among languages and forms of discourse the volume is organized into three sections Understanding Language provides an overview of the field of linguistics with special attention to language acquisition and the social life of languages Forming Texts offers tools for understanding how speakers and writers shape language it examines scholarship in the distinct but interrelated fields of rhetoric composition and poetics Reading Literature and Culture continues the work of the first two sections by introducing major areas of critical study The nine essays in this section cover textual and historical scholarship interpretation comparative cultural and translation studies and the interdisciplinary topics of gender sexuality race and migrations among others As in previous volumes an epilogue examines the role of the scholar in contemporary society Each essay discusses the significance underlying assumptions and limits of an important field of inquiry traces the historical development of its subject introduces key terms outlines modes of research now being pursued postulates future developments and provides a list of suggestions for further reading This book will interest any member of the academic community seeking a review of recent scholarship while it provides an indispensable resource for undergraduate and graduate students of modern languages and literatures Allegorical Spectrum of the Parables of Jesus Suk Kwan Wong, 2017-02-08 Allegory in the parables of Jesus has never been addressed properly By studying the allegorical features in parables and evaluating some former parable theories current study hopes to bring insight to the hermeneutics of allegory in the parables of Jesus Standing Up, Speaking

Out Matthew R. Meier, Casey R. Schmitt, 2016-10-14 In recent decades some of the most celebrated and culturally influential American oratorical performances have come not from political leaders or religious visionaries but from stand up comics. Even though comedy and satire have been addressed by rhetorical scholarship in recent decades little attention has been paid to stand up. This collection is an attempt to further cultivate the growing conversation about stand up comedy from the perspective of the rhetorical tradition. It brings together literatures from rhetorical, cultural and humor studies to provide a unique exploration of stand up comedy that both argues on behalf of the form's capacity for social change and attempts to draw attention to a series of otherwise unrecognized rhetors who have made significant contributions to public culture through comedy.

Political Theory between Philosophy and Rhetoric Giuseppe Ballacci, 2017-11-28 This book explores the significance of rhetoric from the perspective of its complex relationship with philosophy. It demonstrates how this relationship gives expression to a basic tension at the core of politics that between the contingency of its happening and the transcendence toward which it strives. The first part of the study proposes a reassessment of the ancient quarrel between philosophy and rhetoric as it was discussed by Plato, Aristotle and above all Cicero and Quintilian who ambitiously attempted to bring them together creating an ideal that is at the roots of the humanist tradition. It then moves to twentieth century political theory and shows how the questions that emerge from that quarrel still strongly resonate in the works of key thinkers such as H. Arendt, L. Strauss and R. Rorty. The volume thus offers an original contribution that locates itself at the intersection of politics, rhetoric and philosophy.

Exploring Argumentative Contexts Frans H. van Eemeren, Bart Garssen, 2012-03-28 In Exploring Argumentative Contexts Frans H. van Eemeren and Bart Garssen bring together a broad variety of essays examining argumentation as it occurs in seven communicative domains: the political context, the historical context, the legal context, the academic context, the medical context, the media context and the financial context. These essays are written by an international group of argumentation scholars consisting of Corina Andone, Sarah Bigi, Robert T. Craig, Justin Eckstein, Frans H. van Eemeren, Norman Fairclough, Eveline Feteris, Gerd Fritz, Bart Garssen, Kara Gilbert, Thomas Gloning, G. Thomas Goodnight, Dale A. Herbeck, Darrin Hicks, Thomas Hollihan, Jos Hornikx, Isabela Ie, Cu Fairclough, G. Bor Kutrov, Maurizio Manzin, Davide Mazzi, Dima Mohammed, Rudi Palmieri, Angela G. Ray, Patricia Riley, Robert C. Rowland, Peter Schulz, Karen Tracy and Gergana Zlatkova.

Post-Nationalist American Studies John Carlos Rowe, 2000-12-04 Post-Nationalist American Studies seeks to revise the cultural nationalism and celebratory American exceptionalism that tended to dominate American Studies in the Cold War era. The goal of the book's contributors is a less insular, more trans-national comparative approach to American Studies, one that questions dominant American myths rather than canonizes them. Articulating new ways to think about American Studies, these essays demonstrate how diverse the field has become. Contributors are concerned with cross-cultural communication, race and gender, global and local identities and the complex tensions between symbolic and political economies. Their essays explore among other topics the construction of foreign peoples and cultures.

the notion of borders territorial racial economic and sexual the multilingual reality of the United States the place of the Mexican American War in U S history and the significance of Tiger Woods in today s global market of consumption Together the essays propose a renewed vision of the United States role in the world and how American Studies scholarship can address that vision Each contributor includes a sample syllabus showing how the issues discussed in individual essays can be brought into the classroom
