Revolution Of Forms Cubas Forgotten Art Schools:

Revolution of Forms John A. Loomis, 1999 A revolution of forms is a revolution of essentials Jos Mart Cuban intellectual and independence leader Although the current surge of interest in Cuba has extended to that country s architecture few know that the most outstanding architectural achievement of the Cuban Revolution stands neglected just outside Havana The Escuelas Nacionales de Arte National Art Schools constructed from 1961 to 1965 were the result of an educational program initiated by Fidel Castro and Che Guevara soon after the Revolution of 1959 The architects they commissioned created an organic complex of brick and terra cotta Catalan vaulted structures that reflected the optimism and exuberance of the period The schools attempted to reinvent architecture just as the Revolution hoped to reinvent society However even before construction was completed the schools fell out of official favor and were subjected to an attack that resulted in their subsequent disappearance An ideological campaign branded them politically incorrect a bourgeois luxury that was not in keeping with the Revolution The buildings fell into disuse and abandoned to the jungle were literally overgrown Now almost 40 years later Cuba is beginning to recognize and reclaim these significant works of architecture Revolution of Forms investigates the history and politics surrounding the creation of these structures as well as their subsequent abandonment The text is accompanied by archival photographs plans and images of the present condition of these structures

Revolution of Forms ,2001 Revolution of Forms Updated Edition John A. Loomis, 2011-06-01 Prior to the publication of Revolution of Forms in 1999 few were aware that the most outstanding architectural achievement of the Cuban Revolution the Escuelas Nacionales de Arte National Art School stood neglected just outside Havana Three architects who aimed to reinvent architecture just as the revolution hoped to reinvent society were commissioned However before construction was completed the school was subjected to an ideological attack that branded it as not in keeping with revolutionary ideals The organic complex of brick and terra cotta Catalan vaulted structures was abandoned until the original publication of Revolution of Forms brought it to the attention of the world and swayed the Cuban government to commit to its restoration This updated edition of the classic book adds a new preface epilogue and a revised chronology to the first edition s numerous photographs drawings and interviews Art and Revolution in Latin America, 1910-1990 David Craven, 2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910 40 in Cuba 1959 89 and in Nicaragua 1979 90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement s artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution s attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process
