Richard Serra Early Work:

Richard Serra David Frankel, 2013 This publication focuses on the early work of Richard Serra one of the most influential artists working today The works included in this volume represent the beginning of the artist's innovative process oriented experiments with nontraditional materials such as vulcanized rubber neon and lead in addition to key early examples of his work in steel and a selection of the artist's films from this period The interplay of gravity and material that was introduced early in Serra's career set the stage for his ongoing engagement with the spatial and temporal properties of sculpture This monograph aims to reconsider the groundbreaking practices and ideas that so firmly situate Serra in the history of 20th century art

Richard Serra, 1978

Minimal Art Daniel Marzona, 2004 The bare minimum Often regarded as a backlash against abstract expressionism Minimalism was characterized by simplified stripped down forms and materials used to express ideas in a direct and impersonal manner By presenting artworks as simple objects minimalist artists sought to communicate esthetic ideals without reference to expressive or historical themes This critical movement which began in the 1960s and branched out into land art performance art and conceptual art is still a major influence today This book explains the how why where and when of Minimal Art and the artists who helped define it Featured artists Carl Andre Stephen Antonakos Jo Baer Larry Bell Ronald Bladen Walter De Maria Dan Flavin Robert Grosvenor Eva Hesse Donald Judd Gary Kuehn Sol LeWitt Robert Mangold John McCracken Robert Morris Robert Ryman Fred Sandback Richard Serra Tony Smith Frank Stella Robert Smithson Anne Truitt About the Series Each book in TASCHEN's Basic Genre Series features a detailed illustrated introduction plus a timeline of the most important political cultural and social events that took place during that period a selection of the most important works of the epoch each of which is presented on a 2 page spread with a full page image and with an interpretation of the respective work plus a portrait and brief biography of the artist approximately 100 colour illustrations with explanatory captions

Josef Albers, Late Modernism, and Pedagogic Form Jeffrey Saletnik, 2022-10-13 An incisive analysis of the pedagogy of influential artist and teacher Josef Albers An extraordinary teacher whose influence continues today Josef Albers helped shape the Bauhaus school in Germany and established the art and design programs at Black Mountain College in North Carolina and Yale University His books about color theory have informed generations and his artworks are included in the canon of high modernist non representational art The pedagogy Albers developed was a dynamic approach to teaching that transcended the modernist agendas and cultivated a material way of thinking among his students With this book Jeffrey Saletnik explores the origins of Albers's teaching practices and their significance in conveying attitudes about form material and sensory understanding to artists Eva Hesse and Richard Serra He demonstrates how pedagogy is a framework that establishes the possibility for artistic discourse and how the methods through which artists learn are manifested in their individual practices Tracing through lines from Albers's training in German educational traditions to his influence on American postwar art Josef Albers Late Modernism and Pedagogic Form positions Albers's pedagogy as central to the life of modernism Lead in Modern and Contemporary Art Sharon Hecker, Silvia Bottinelli, 2021-03-25 Lead in Modern and Contemporary Art is the first edited volume to critically examine uses of lead as both material and cultural signifier in modern and contemporary art. The book analyzes the work of a diverse group of artists working in Europe, the Middle East, and North America and takes into account the ways in which gender, race, and class can affect the cultural perception of lead. Bringing together contributions from a distinguished group of international contributors across various fields, this volume explores lead's relevance from a number of perspectives, including art history, technical art history, art criticism, and curatorial studies. Drawing on current art historical concerns with materiality, this volume builds on recent exhibitions and scholarship that reconsider the role of materials in shaping artistic meaning, thus giving a central relevance to the object and its physicality. The Necessity of Sculpture Eric Gibson, 2020-04-07 The Necessity of Sculpture brings together a selection of articles on sculpture and sculptors from Eric Gibson's nearly four-decade career as an art critic. It covers subjects as diverse as Mesopotamian cylinder seals, war memorials, and the art of the American West, stylistic periods such as the Hellenistic in Ancient Greece and Kamakura in medieval Japan, Michelangelo, Gian Lorenzo Bernini, Augustus, Saint Gaudens, and other historical figures, modernists like Auguste Rodin, Pablo Picasso, and Alberto Giacometti, and contemporary artists including Richard Serra, Rachel Whiteread, and Jeff Koons. Organized chronologically by artist and period, this collection is as much a synoptic history of sculpture as it is an art chronicle. At the same time, it is an illuminating introduction to the subject for anyone coming to it for the first time.

Soft Is Fast Meredith Morse, 2016-02-19 An innovative analysis of Simone Forti's interdisciplinary art, viewing her influential 1960s dance constructions as negotiating the aesthetic strategies of John Cage and Anna Halprin. Simone Forti's art developed within the overlapping circles of New York City's advanced visual art, dance, and music of the early 1960s. Her dance constructions and related works of the 1960s were important for both visual art and dance of the era. Artists Robert Morris and Yvonne Rainer have both acknowledged her influence. Forti seems to have kept one foot inside visual art's frames of meaning and the other outside them. In Soft Is Fast, Meredith Morse adopts a new way to understand Forti's work based in art historical analysis but drawing upon dance history and cultural studies and the history of American social thought. Morse argues that Forti introduced a form of direct encounter that departed radically from the spectatorship proposed by Minimalism and prefigured the participatory art of recent decades. Morse shows that Forti's work negotiated John Cage's ideas of sound, score, and theater through the unique approach to movement, essentially improvisational and grounded in anatomical exploration that she learned from performer and teacher Ann later Anna Halprin. Attentive to Robert Whitman's and La Monte Young's responses to Cage, Forti reshaped Cage's concepts into models that could accommodate Halprin's charged spaces and imagined interpenetrative understanding of other bodies. Morse considers Forti's use of sound and her affective use of materials as central to her work, examines Forti's text pieces little discussed in art historical literature.

analyzes Huddle considered one of Forti s signature works and explicates Forti s later improvisational practice Forti has been relatively overlooked by art historians perhaps because of her work s central concern with modes of feeling and embodiment unlike other art of the 1960s which was characterized by strategies of depersonalization and affectlessness Soft Is Fast corrects this critical oversight Richard Serra Jörg Daur,2017 Richard Serra born November 2 1938 is an American minimalist sculptor and video artist known for working with large scale assemblies of sheet metal 1 Serra was involved in the Process Art Movement He lives and works in Tribeca New York and on Cape Breton Island in Nova Scotia Serra had his first solo exhibitions at the Galleria La Salita Rome 1966 and in the United States at the Leo Castelli Warehouse New York The Pasadena Art Museum organized a solo exhibition of Serra s work in 1970 Serra has since participated in Documentas 5 1972 6 1977 7 1982 and 8 1987 in Kassel the Venice Biennales of 1984 and 2001 and the Whitney Museum of American Art s Annual and Biennial exhibitions of 1968 1970 1973 1977 1979 1981 and 19 95 57 Serra was honored with further solo exhibitions at the Kunsthalle T bingen Germany in 1978 the Mus e National d Art Moderne Paris in 1984 the Museum Haus Lange Krefeld Germany in 1985 and the Museum of Modern Art New York in 1986 From 1997 to 1998 his Torqued Ellipses 1997 were exhibited at and acquired by the Dia Center for the Arts New York In 2005 eight major works by Serra were installed permanently at Guggenheim Museum Bilbao In the summer of 2007 the Museum of Modern Art pre sented a retrospective of Serra s work in New Y ork Intersection II 1992 1993 and Torqued Ellipse IV 1998 were included in this show along with three new works 59 The retrospective consisted of 27 of Serra s works including three large new sculpture s made specifically for the second floor of the museum two works in the garden and Yearlier pieces from the 1960s through the 1980s Metaphorical Materialism Dominic Rahtz,2021-06-29 In Metaphorical Materialism Art in New York in the Late 1960s Dominic Rahtz returns to a period when the materiality of art was thematized and theorized according to varying conceptions of matter and form and consciously related to materialisms held as wider philosophical and political positions and attitudes The book consists of a volume of essays on the relationships between materiality and materialism informed by definitions of labour process corporeality and language in the work of Carl Andre Robert Smithson Richard Serra Eva Hesse and Lawrence Weiner An Anarchitectural Body of Work Friederike Schäfer,2025-05-19 The artist dancer and educator Suzanne Harris 1940 79 was a protagonist of the downtown New York City artists community in the 1970s With her boundary transgressing practice she played a decisive part in avant garde projects such as the Anarchitecture group 112 Greene Street FOOD and the Natural History of the American Dancer Harris furthermore participated in the Heresies editorial collective Nevertheless her own oeuvre fell into abeyance Friederike Sch fer reconstructs Harris s dispersed postminimalist body of work which broke the mold of art categories art practices art spaces and the common notion of space The author draws on post Marxist feminist theory to trace how Harris transcended both sculpture and dance to create site specific ephemeral installations Second revised edition Recipient of the Terra Foundation for American Art International
