Online Book Israel South Africa Faces Apartheid:

Zionist Israel and Apartheid South Africa Amneh Badran, 2009-09-10 This book is a comparison of two ethnic national apartheid states South Africa and Israel which have been in conflict and how internal dissent has developed In particular it examines the evolution of effective white protest in South Africa and explores the reasons why comparably powerful movements have not emerged in Israel The book reveals patterns of behaviour shared by groups in both cases It argues that although the role played by protest groups in peace building may be limited a tipping point or magic point can become as significant as other major factors It highlights the role played by intermediate variables that affect the pathways of protest groups such as changes in the international system the visions and strategies of resistance movements and their degree of success the economic relationship between the dominant and dominated side and the legitimacy of the ideology in power apartheid or Zionism Although the politics and roles of protest groups in both cases share some similarities differences remain Whilst white protest groups moved towards an inclusive peace agenda that adopts the ANC vision of a united non racial democratic South Africa the Jewish Israeli protest groups are still by majority entrenched in their support for an exclusive Jewish state And as such they support separation between the two peoples and a limited division of mandatory Palestine Eretz Israel This timely book sheds light on a controversial and explosive political issue Israel being compared to apartheid South Africa

Israel and South Africa Ilan Pappé, 2015-10-15 Within the already heavily polarised debate on the Israeli Palestinian conflict parallels between Israel and apartheid South Africa remain highly contentious A number of prominent academic and political commentators including former US president Jimmy Carter and UN Special Rapporteur John Dugard have argued that Israel's treatment of its Arab Israeli citizens and the people of the occupied territories amounts to a system of oppression no less brutal or inhumane than that of South Africa's white supremacists Similarly boycott and disinvestment campaigns comparable to those employed by anti apartheid activists have attracted growing support Yet while the apartheid question has become increasingly visible in this debate there has been little in the way of genuine scholarly analysis of the similarities or otherwise between the Zionist and apartheid regimes In Israel and South Africa Ilan Papp one of Israel's preeminent academics and a noted critic of the current government brings together lawyers journalists policy makers and historians of both countries to assess the implications of the apartheid analogy for international law activism and policy making With contributors including the distinguished anti apartheid activist Ronnie Kasrils Israel and South Africa offers a bold and incisive perspective on one of the defining moral questions of our age

Routledge Handbook on Tourism in the Middle East and North Africa Dallen Timothy, 2018-12-07 The Routledge Handbook on Tourism in the Middle East and North Africa examines the importance of tourism as a historical economic social environmental religious and political force in the Middle East and North Africa MENA It highlights the ecological and resource challenges related to water desert environments climate change and oil It provides an in depth analysis of the geopolitical conditions that have long determined the patterns of tourism demand and supply throughout the region and how these play out in the everyday lives of residents and destinations as they attempt to grow tourism or ignore it entirely While cultural heritage remains the primary tourism asset for the region as a whole many new types of tourisms are emerging especially in the Arabian Gulf region where hyper development is closely associated with the increasingly prominent role of luxury real estate and shopping retail medical tourism cruises and transit tourism The growing phenomenon of an expatriate workforce and how its segregation from the citizenry creates a dual socio economic system in several countries is unmatched by other regions of the world Many indigenous people of MENA keep themselves apart from other dominant groups in the region although these social boundaries are becoming increasingly blurred as tourism being one socio economic force for change has inspired many nomadic peoples to settle into towns and villages and rely more on tourists for their livelihoods All of these issues and more shape the foundations of this book This Handbook is the first of its kind to examine tourism from a broad regional and inclusive perspective surveying a broad range of social cultural heritage ecological and political matters in a single volume With a wide range of contributors many of whom are natives of the Middle East and North Africa this Handbook is a vital resource for students and scholars interested in Tourism Middle East Studies and Geography

Decolonial Solidarity in Palestine-Israel Teodora Todorova, 2021-06-17 Recent years have seen the Israeli state become ever more extreme in its treatment of Palestinians manifested both in legislation stripping Palestinians of their rights and in the escalating scale and violence of the Israeli occupation But this hard line stance has in turn provoked a new spirit of dissent among a growing number of Israeli scholars and civil society activists As well as recognising Palestinian claims to justice and self determination this new dissent is characterised by calls for genuine decolonisation and an end to partition as opposed to the now discredited two state solution Through the analytical lens of settler colonial studies this book examines the impact of this new decolonial solidarity through case studies of three activist groups Zochrot Anarchists Against the Wall and the Israeli Committee Against House Demolitions ICAHD In doing so Todorova extends the framework of settler colonial studies beyond scholarly analysis and into the realm of activist practice She also looks at how decolonial solidarity has shaped and been influenced by the writings of both Palestinian and Israeli theorists The book shows that new forms of civil society activism bringing together Palestinian and Israeli activists can rejuvenate the resistance to occupation and the Israeli state's growing authoritarianism

Gender-Based Violence and Digital Media in South Africa Millie Mayiziveyi Phiri, 2023-10-02 This book presents a new paradigm for attending to gender based violence GBV social media discourse among marginalised Black women in South Africa Focusing on the intersections of television and social media the study charts the morphing and merging of the inside of the soap opera and the outside of the real world amid a rise in feminist social media activism The analysis begins with coverage of gender based violence in a long running South African soap opera and social media discussion of these issues in parallel with real world events and the collective social media response The author offers pertinent insights into audiences in sub Saharan Africa presenting a new feminist trajectory for women and activism in the region Offering new insights into an important issue this book will be of interest to scholars and students of gender cultural studies film studies television studies sociology development studies feminism media and journalism

Messianic Zionism in the Digital Age Rachel Z. Feldman, 2024-03-15 Judaism in the twenty first century has seen the rise of the messianic Third Temple movement as religious activists based in Israel have worked to realize biblical prophecies including the restoration of a Jewish theocracy and the construction of the third and final Temple on Jerusalem's Temple Mount Through groundbreaking ethnographic research Messianic Zionism in the Digital Age details how Third Temple visions have gained considerable momentum and political support in Israel and abroad The role of technology in this movement's globalization has been critical Feldman skillfully highlights the ways in which the internet and social media have contributed to the movement's growth beyond the streets of Jerusalem into communities of former Christians around the world who now identify as the Children of Noah Bnei Noah She charts a path for future research while documenting the intimate effects of political theologies in motion and the birth of a new transnational Judaic faith

Apartheid in Palestine Ghada Ageel, 2016-01-18 Of all the crimes to which Palestinians have been subjected through a century of bitter tragedy perhaps none are more cruel than the silencing of their voices The suffering has been most extreme criminal and grotesque in Gaza where Ghada Ageel was one of the victims from childhood This collection of essays is a poignant cry for justice far too long delayed Noam Chomsky There are more than two sides to the conflict between Palestine and Israel There are millions Millions of lives voices and stories behind the enduring struggle in Israel and Palestine Yet the easy binary of Palestine vs Israel on which the media so often relies for context effectively silences the lived experiences of people affected by the strife Ghada Ageel sought leading experts Palestinian and Israeli academic and activist to gather stories that humanize the historic processes of occupation displacement colonization and most controversially apartheid Historians scholars and students of colonialism and Israel Palestine studies and anyone interested in more nuanced debate will want to read this book Foreword by Richard Falk Contributors Yasmeeen Abu Laban Ghada Ageel Huwaida Arraf Abigail B Bakan Ramzy Baroud Samar El Bekai James Cairns Edward C Corrigan Susan Ferguson Keith Hammond Rela Mazali Sherene Razack Tali Shapiro Reem Skeik Rafeef Ziadah

South Africa's Weapons of Mass Destruction Helen E. Purkitt, Stephen F. Burgess, 2005-05-11 South Africa's Weapons of Mass Destruction offers an in depth view of the secret development and voluntary disarmament of South Africa's nuclear biological and chemical weapons program Project Coast Helen E Purkitt and Stephen F Burgess explore how systems used for nuclear biological and chemical weapons in South Africa were acquired and established beyond the gaze of international and domestic political actors On the basis of archival evidence from Project Coast and their own extensive interviews with military and political officials Purkitt and Burgess consider what motivates countries to acquire and build such powerful weaponry and examine when and how decisions are made to dismantle a military arsenal voluntarily

Questions such as how to destroy weapons safely and keep them from reappearing on international markets are considered along with comparative strategies for successful disarmament in other nation states Israel, Palestine and the Politics of Race Yasmeen Abu-Laban, Abigail B. Bakan, 2019-10-31 As the situation in Israel Palestine seems to become ever more intractable and protracted the need for new ways of looking at recent developments and their historical roots is more pressing than ever Bearing this in mind Yasmeen Abu Laban and Abigail B Bakan discuss the historic and contemporary dynamics in Israel Palestine and their international reverberations from the unique vantage point of race racialization racism and anti racism They therefore offer close analysis of the idea of Israel and the absence of Palestine by examining the concepts of race and identity in the region With fresh coverage of themes relating to gender Idigeneity the environment surveillance and the war on terror Israel Palestine and the Politics of Race will appeal to scholars in political science sociology and Middle East studies Israel Denial Cary Nelson, 2019-06-07 A work of rigorous intellectual inquiry critiquing the BDS movement in academia Jewish Journal Israel Denial is the first book to offer detailed analyses of the work faculty members have published individually and collectively in support of the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS movement it contrasts their claims with options for promoting peace The faculty discussed here have devoted a significant part of their professional lives to delegitimizing the Jewish state While there are beliefs they hold in common including the conviction that there is nothing good to say about Israel they also develop distinctive arguments designed to recruit converts to their cause in novel ways They do so both as writers and as teachers Israel Denial is the first to give substantial attention to anti Zionist pedagogy No effort to understand the BDS movement s impact on the academy and public policy can be complete without the kind of understanding this book offers A co publication of the Academic Engagement Network
