Queer TV in the 21st Century Kylo-Patrick R. Hart, 2016-06-10 Television has historically been largely ineffective at representing queerness in its various forms In the 21st century however as same sex couples have seen increasing mainstream acceptance and a broader range of queer characters has appeared in the media it seems natural to assume TV portrayals of queerness have become more enlightened But have they This collection of fresh essays analyzes queerness as depicted on TV from 2000 to the present Examining Buffy the Vampire Slayer The Ellen DeGeneres Show The L Word Modern Family The New Normal Queer as Folk Queer Eye for the Straight Guy RuPaul's Drag Race Spartacus and Will Grace among other series the contributors demonstrate that queer characters in general have achieved visibility at the expense of minimizing much of their queerness with a few eye opening exceptions

ABC Family to Freeform TV Emily L. Newman, Emily Witsell, 2018-03-02 Launched in 1977 by the Christian Broadcasting Service originally associated with Pat Robertson the ABC Family Freeform network has gone through a number of changes in name and ownership Over the past decade the network now owned by Disney has redefined family programming for its targeted 14 to 34 year old demographic addressing topics like lesbian and gay parenting postfeminism and changing perceptions of women the issue of race in the U S and the status of disability in American culture This collection of new essays examines the network from a variety of perspectives with a focus on inclusive programming that has created a space for underrepresented communities like transgender youth overweight teens and the deaf

Intersecting Film, Music, and Queerness Jack Curtis Dubowsky, 2016-04-08 Intersecting Film Music and Queerness uses musicology and queer theory to uncover meaning and message in canonical American cinema This study considers how queer readings are reinforced or nuanced through analysis of musical score Taking a broad approach to queerness that questions heteronormative and homonormative patriarchal structures binary relationships gender assumptions and anxieties this book challenges existing interpretations of what is progressive and what is retrogressive in cinema Examined films include Bride of Frankenstein Louisiana Story Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer Blazing Saddles Edward Scissorhands Brokeback Mountain Boys Don't Cry Transamerica Thelma Louise Go Fish and The Living End with special attention given to films that subvert or complicate genre Music is analyzed with concern for composition intertextual references absolute musical structures song lyrics recording arrangement and performance issues This multidisciplinary work featuring groundbreaking research analysis and theory offers new close readings and a model for future scholarship

LGBTQs, Media and Culture in Europe Alexander Dhoest,Lukasz Szulc,Bart Eeckhout,2016-11-10

Media matter particularly to social minorities like lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer people Rather than one homogenised idea of the global gay what we find today is a range of historically and culturally specific expressions of gender and sexuality which are reflected and explored across an ever increasing range of media outlets This collection zooms in on a number of facets of this kaleidoscope each chapter discussing the intersection of a particular European context and a particular medium with its affordances and limitations While traditional mass media form the starting point of this book the primary focus is on digital media such as blogs social media and online dating sites All contributions are based on recent original empirical research using a plethora of qualitative methods to offer a holistic view on the ways media matter to particular LGBTQ individuals and communities Together the chapters cover the diversity of European countries and regions of LGBTQ communities and of the contemporary media ecology Resisting the urge to extrapolate they argue for specificity contextualisation and a provincialized understanding of the connections between media culture gender and sexuality
