Multinational Corporations And Foreign Direct Investment Avoiding Simplicity Embracing Complexity:

Multinational Corporations and Foreign Direct Investment Stephen D. Cohen, 2007 Large companies doing business on a global basis increasingly dominate the production and marketing of the world's goods and services This new book analyses multinational corporations in an eclectic nuanced manner Multinational Corporations and Foreign Direct Investment Stephen D. Cohen, 2007 Large companies doing business on a global basis increasingly dominate the production and marketing of the world's goods and services This book analyses multinational corporations Multinational Corporations and Foreign Direct Investment Stephen D. Cohen, 2007-02-03 Stephen Cohen's innovative approach to multinational corporations and foreign direct investment is to highlight the heterogeneity of and examine with unprecedented thoroughness these two functions Until now they have all too frequently been written off through overly simplified advocacy as either good or bad This book impartially examines both sides of an important debate in a clear non technical and objective manner Acquisitions by Emerging Multinational Corporations Johannes Distler, 2017-07-27 This thesis analyzes the motivation and performance of 403 acquisitions made by emerging multinational corporations EMNCs in Western Europe and North America between 1994 and 2013 The findings indicate that most EMNCs were motivated to acquire in order to obtain access to the upstream and downstream know how of their target firms In addition the thesis event study results demonstrate that EMNCs on average generated value for their shareholders with their acquisitions over short periods around acquisition announcement This result is particularly significant since similar studies on buying firms from developed markets have frequently come to the conclusion that acquirers destroy shareholder value

Global Political Economy Theodore H. Cohn, 2016-05-05 Praised for its authoritative coverage Global Political Economy places the study of international political economy IPE in its broadest theoretical context now updated to cover the continuing global economic crisis and regional relationships and impacts This text not only helps students understand the fundamentals of how the global economy works but also encourages them to use theory to more fully grasp the connections between key issue areas like trade and development Written by a leading IPE scholar this text equally emphasizes theory and practice to provide a framework for analyzing current events and long term developments in the global economy New to the Seventh Edition Focuses on the ongoing global economic crisis and the continuing European sovereign debt crisis along with other regional economic issues including their implications for relationships in the global economy Offers fuller and updated discussions of critical perspectives like feminism and environmentalism and includes new material differentiating among the terms neomercantilism realism mercantilism and economic nationalism Updated author written Test Bank is provided to professors as an e Resource on the book's Webpage Multinational Enterprises and the Law Peter Muchlinski, 2021-02-18 Multinational Enterprises and the Law is the only comprehensive contemporary and interdisciplinary account of the techniques used to regulate multinational enterprises MNEs at the national regional and multilateral levels In addition it considers the effects of corporate self regulation and the impact of civil society and community groups upon the development of the legal order in this area The book has been thoroughly revised and updated for this third edition making it a definitive reference work for students researchers and practitioners of international economic law business corporate and commercial law development studies and international politics Split into four parts the book first deals with the conceptual basis for MNE regulation It explains the growth of MNEs their business and legal forms and the relationship between them and the effects of a globalized economy and society now increasingly challenged by recently revived nationalist economic policies upon the evolution of regulatory agendas in the field In addition the limits of national and regional jurisdiction over MNE activities are considered a question that arises throughout the specialized areas of regulation covered in the remainder of the book Part II covers the main areas of economic regulation including controls over and the liberalization of entry and establishment tax company and competition law and the impact of intellectual property rights on technology diffusion and transfer A specialized chapter on the regulation of multinational banks in the wake of the global financial crisis is new to this edition Part III introduces the social dimension of MNE regulation covering labour rights human rights and environmental issues Finally Part IV deals with the contribution of international investment law to MNE regulation and to the control of investment risks covering the main provisions found in international investment agreements their interpretation by international tribunals the process of investor state arbitration and how concerns over these developments are leading to reform proposals

Experiences of Emerging Economy Firms Marin Marinov, 2015-05-05 Experiences of Emerging Economy Firms investigates the different elements of the experiences of emerging economy firms and sheds essential light on a large variety of aspects associated with their functioning in both home and host contexts Contractual Renegotiations and International Investment Arbitration Aikaterini Florou, 2020-03-02 In Contractual Renegotiations and International Investment Arbitration Aikaterini Florou explores the sensitive issues of renegotiating state contracts and the relationship between those contracts and the overarching international investment treaties By introducing novel insights from economics the author deconstructs the contract treaty interaction demonstrating that it is not only treaties that impact the underlying contracts but also that those contracts have an effect on the way the open textured treaty standards are interpreted The originality of the argument is combined with an innovative interpretative methodology based on relational contract theory and transaction cost economics Departing from the traditional emphasis of international lawyers on the text of investment contracts Florou shows instead that such contracts are first and foremost economic animals and the theory of obsolescing bargaining does not paint a full picture of the contract treaty interaction Advancing Rule of Law in a Global Context Heru Susetyo, Patricia Rinwigati Waagstein, Akhmad Budi Cahyono, 2020-02-25 The papers published in this proceedings volume are written by a selection of authors resulting from a call for papers for the 1st International Conference on Law and Governance in a Global Context ICLAVE originating from Indonesia and other countries This proceedings volume shall be a very valuable contribution to understand contemporary law issues in Indonesia which are not always taught in law schools These proceedings will not only serve as a useful reference for law students and academicians but also help law practitioners to understand law issues that may be encountered in Indonesia It covers selected items such as Administrative Law Constitutional Law Business Law Intellectual Property Law Criminal Law Human Rights Law Adat Law Shariah Law Judiciary Law and International Law which are all important for undergraduate and post graduate law students as well as academicians and law practitioners in the law community

Foreign Direct Investment and International Law Adaeze Agatha Aniodoh, 2025-07-16 This book examines the regulatory framework for foreign direct investments most notably the bilateral investment treaties which provide several guarantees that minimise the exposure of risks to foreign investors in a host State Most States have recognised that one of the ways they can improve their economic growth is by providing effective mechanisms for the attraction of foreign investments In this regard foreign direct investments have become a key element in the strategic vision for advancing any national economy The book examines guarantees which have the capacity to impinge on the economic sovereignty of a State raising questions such as are host States obliged to comply with the rights of foreign investors to free capital repatriation in the face of economic difficulties What power does a host State have to regulate and impose capital controls that are deleterious to the rights of a foreign investor This book argues that policies aimed at increasing foreign direct investment need to extend beyond investment liberalisation to strike a balance between the regulatory rights of a State and the legitimate expectations of foreign investors Advancing the discussion on the necessity of balancing the needs of foreign investors with those of the host community and exploring the power asymmetry present in treaty negotiations this book will be of interest to students academics and practitioners with an interest in international investment law
