Multinational Operations, Alliances, and International Military Cooperation Partnership for Peace. Consortium of Defense Academies and Security Studies Institutes. Military History Working Group, 2006 Multinational Operations, Alliances, and International Military Cooperation Past and Future , Center of Military History Publication 70 101 1

Multinational Operations, Alliances, and International Military Cooperation Robert S Rush, William W Epley, 2007-12-20 Center of Military History Publication 70 101 1 Multinational Operation, Alliances and International Military Cooperation Center of Center of Military History U.S. Army, 2014-12-02 International cooperation whether based on fixed alliances or on ad hoc coalitions obviously is now and will be in the future a main feature of practically all military operations It therefore seemed fitting to look more closely into this topic in the course of the papers presented at the Military History Working Group s MHWG s 2005 workshop More than forty scholars and officers from sixteen countries examined different aspects of military cooperation and in frank and spirited discussions contributed to a better understanding of many of the problems involved in the endeavor The conference was organized jointly by Austria and Canada represented respectively by the National Defense Academy Vienna and the Royal Military College of Canada Kingston Ont Erwin A Schmidl Austria and Ronald G Haycock Canada acted as cochair s with the local organization handled by Felix Schneider Johann Bartl and Ernst M Felberbauer Support from the Partnership for Peace Consortium PfPC was channeled through Vernon Hodges from the George C Marshall Center at Garmisch Partenkirchen Special credit for their untiring support is due to Brig Gen John S Brown William W Epley and Robert S Rush from the U S Army Center of Military History Indeed over the years the continued successes of MHWG conferences owe a great deal to Rush s personal organizational enthusiasm The papers presented at the conference dealt with a variety of topics under the umbrella theme alliances and multinational cooperation Taken together the papers covered several different national experiences during four centuries of history In opening remarks Erwin A Schmidl presented an overview of some of the issues associated with the general topic Whereas political military cooperation is nearly as old as humankind formal alliances are closely linked to the system of territorial states a system usually associated with the 1648 Peace of Westphalia and currently are undergoing dramatic changes that also will reflect on the very concept of alliances In any case numerous experiences from earlier operations reveal general characteristics that are still valid today and one of the MHWG s aims was to deal with issues currently relevant at a time when international associations and other alliance structures such as the European Union EU and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO are undergoing a period of strain and transformation In this way the MHWG is able to contribute usefully to the overall success of the Partnership for Peace Consortium A Military History of the Cold War, 1944-1962 Jonathan M. House, 2014-04-28 The Cold War did not culminate in World War III as so many in the 1950s and 1960s feared yet it spawned a host of military engagements that affected millions of lives This book is the first comprehensive multinational overview of military affairs during the early Cold War beginning with conflicts during World War II in Warsaw Athens and Saigon and ending with the Cuban Missile Crisis A major theme of this account is the relationship between government policy and military preparedness and strategy Author Jonathan M House tells of generals engaging in policy confrontations with their governments political leaders among them Anthony Eden Nikita Khrushchev and John F Kennedy many of whom made military decisions that hamstrung their own political goals In the pressure cooker atmosphere of atomic preparedness politicians as well as soldiers seemed instinctively to prefer military solutions to political problems And national security policies had military implications that took on a life of their own The invasion of South Korea convinced European policy makers that effective deterrence and containment required building up and maintaining credible forces Desire to strengthen the North Atlantic alliance militarily accelerated the rearmament of West Germany and the drive for its sovereignty In addition to examining the major confrontations nuclear and conventional between Washington Moscow and Beijing including the crises over Berlin and Formosa House traces often overlooked military operations against the insurgencies of the era such as French efforts in Indochina and Algeria and British struggles in Malaya Kenya Cyprus and Aden Now more than fifty years after the events House describes understanding the origins and trajectory of the Cold War is as important as ever By the late 1950s the United States had sent forces to Vietnam and the Middle East setting the stage for future conflicts in both regions House s account of the complex relationship between diplomacy and military action directly relates to the insurgencies counterinsurgencies and confrontations that now occupy our attention across the globe

Unified Military Industries of the Soviet Bloc Pál Germuska, 2015-02-17 This book draws a subtle picture of Warsaw Pact economic and military cooperation by presenting a complete branch the military industry from the perspective of a smaller member state Hungary It demonstrates that the military industry s cooperation played a crucial role in the development of economic integration within the Soviet Bloc and it was in this sector that the strongest most efficient integration was established The book builds on recently declassified documentation from Soviet led international economic organizations to give insight into the backstage debates of partner states to shed light on the intensive conflicts and clashes of interests between the nations and to highlight the bureaucratic decision making of the Eastern bloc s supranational organ The transnational analysis is supplemented by the presentation of the national viewpoint how Hungary intended to vindicate its interests what measures Budapest took to optimize international cooperation and what kind of new markets were discovered outside the Warsaw Pact
