Nightmares of Terror Ken R. Abell, 2015-02-18 Nightmares of Terror continuing the saga that began in Days of Purgatory is set in and around Dodge City in 1882 Several characters are having their sleep disturbed by dreams that are flares from the past or harbingers of the future Deacon Coburn flint eyed and tenderhearted aids others and comes to terms with hardscrabble troubles by applying gritty faith An outlaw is on the rampage his life has been violent and he s realizing that hell is a real place A former prostitute is seeking a new life while a teenager stretches her wings One strong man is having a crisis of faith another is in a mess of troubles not of his making Two women are expecting and due at roughly the same time A Texas cattleman arrives in the Queen of the Cowtowns to conclude a business deal which unbeknownst to him forces a onetime slave to come face to face with a seedy episode from bygone days All these threads are woven together in a compelling narrative in which the supernatural is commonplace and real An overarching theme is voiced by Eliza Weitzel Faith is all about having confidence that whatever will be will be and by God s grace we have the hope that he sustains and supports us no matter what
