Quick Studies - Joshua - Esther David Cook, 1994 45 high impact studies with reproducible resources Called to Live the Gospel Marilyn Kielbasa, 1996 The older teens in your parish want a youth ministry program that exposes them to relevant real world topics in an active engaging way Horizons is an innovative comprehensive approach to religious education Its foundation is teacher led creative learning strategies that give students ample opportunities for discussion reflection and fun Designed for grades 9-12 Horizons utilizes a module system so that you can combine courses and topics to meet the specific needs of your parish Seven core courses set the stage for discussing central and foundational themes Then choose from a wide selection of age appropriate minicourses to round out your curriculum and craft summer courses retreats and youth group activities The Youth Ministry Strategies component features more than 65 creative youth activities to complement the Horizons curriculum And on top of all that Horizons includes outstanding training resources You'll be able to create the most engaging and relevant youth ministry program for senior high that is available anywhere Genesis - Deuteronomy, No boring fill in the blank teen torture here just honest self discovery Games surveys and case studies get young people pumped for studying God's Word Challenging flexible and super relevant A Student in the School of Christ Wasihun Senbeta Gutema, 2021-11-11 I am extremely happy to see the completion of this book A Student in the School of Christ by Wasihun Senbeta Gutema a former student of mine and a colleague in the harvest field of Christ Wasihun has presented a unique simple understandable piece on being a true student of Christ The book challenges each of us preachers teachers and the followers of Christ in our state of where we are in our studentship discipleship process and if we are of course true students that do not quit The simplicity of the book makes it readable by anyone who aspires to be the true student of Christ It is at most worth reading Bulti Fayissa pastor and professor of New Testament To embark on writing a book is a courageous beginning and to finish it is a great accomplishment especially in a context where writing and reading are rarely part of the culture By publishing this book Wasihun Senbeta Gutema has set a good example for many teachers and preachers as well as other potential writers if we are to effectively share our knowledge with the present generation and preserve a repertoire of lessons for the future generations I applaud Wasihun for providing A Student in the School of Christ a revised and coherent compilation of his teachings in the form of a book The book is a reflection of an experienced yet aspiring gospel teacher who has not ceased being a disciple A Student in the School of Christ As it describes what it means to be a student of Christ it discerns wrong assumptions about the same The book is written in a simple to follow and understandable style It is worth reading Gutu Olana Wayessa PhD Synoptic Problems John S. Kloppenborg, 2014-07-02 This volume contains a collection of twenty one essays of John S Kloppenborg with four foci conceptual and methodological issues in the Synoptic Problem the Sayings Gospel Q the Gospel of Mark and the Parables of Jesus Kloppenborg a major contributor to the Synoptic Problem is especially interested in how one constructs synoptic hypotheses always aware of the many gaps in our knowledge the presence of competing hypotheses and the theological and historical entailments in any given hypothesis Common to the essays in the remaining three sections is the insistence that the literature thought and practices of the early Jesus movement must be treated with a deep awareness of their social literary and intellectual contexts The context of the early Jesus movement is illumined not simply by resort to the literary and historical sources produced by Greek and Roman elites but more importantly by data gathered from documentary sources available in non literary papyri
