Multinational Federalism In Bosnia And Herzegovina Southeast European Studies:

Multinational Federalism in Bosnia and Herzegovina Soeren Keil, 2016-04-15 In 1995 none of the political parties representing the peoples of Bosnia preferred a federal option Yet Bosnia became a federal state highly decentralised and with a complex institutional architecture This solution was imposed on them by international actors as a result of peace negotiations following the Yugoslav wars Political parties in post war Bosnia were not willing to identify with or accept the federation The international community intervened taking over key decisions and so Bosnia and Herzegovina became the first state to experience a new model of federalism namely imposed federalism and a new model of a federal state that of the internationally administered federation By combining comparative politics conflict analysis and international relations theory Soeren Keil offers a unique analysis of federalism in post Dayton Bosnia and Herzegovina By exploring this model of imposed federalism not only does this study greatly contribute to the literature on developments in Bosnia and Herzegovina it also re evaluates comparative federalism in theory and practice This study also offers important conclusions for similar cases both in the Western Balkans region and the wider world where international involvement and federalism as a method of conflict resolution in diverse societies becomes ever more prevalent and important Ethnonationality's Evolution in Bosnia

Herzegovina and Macedonia Arianna Piacentini, 2020-05-28 This book is centred upon the concept of ethnonationality investigating how its meanings and functions have changed across political regimes time and generations Piacentini explores two similar yet different realities Bosnia Herzegovina and Macedonia now North Macedonia both former Yugoslav republics multiethnic and currently characterised by consociational arrangements and ethnic politics This temporal perspective encompasses both the Yugoslav and post Yugoslav period empirically exploring two generations living together in the same family each socialised by different macro environments and socio political and economic conditions The book explores which ideas rules and patterns of behaviour related to ethnonationality have been transmitted between the generations

Ethnonationality's Evolution in Bosnia Herzegovina and Macedonia will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including sociology politics and conflict studies Multinational Federalism in Bosnia and Herzegovina

Soeren Keil, 2016-04-15 In 1995 none of the political parties representing the peoples of Bosnia preferred a federal option Yet Bosnia became a federal state highly decentralised and with a complex institutional architecture This solution was imposed on them by international actors as a result of peace negotiations following the Yugoslav wars Political parties in post war Bosnia were not willing to identify with or accept the federation The international community intervened taking over key decisions and so Bosnia and Herzegovina became the first state to experience a new model of federalism namely imposed federalism and a new model of a federal state that of the internationally administered federation By combining comparative politics conflict analysis and international relations theory Soeren Keil offers a unique analysis of federalism in post Dayton Bosnia and Herzegovina By exploring this model of imposed federalism not only does this study greatly contribute to the literature on developments in Bosnia and Herzegovina it also re evaluates comparative federalism in theory and practice This study also offers important conclusions for similar cases both in the Western Balkans region and the wider world where international involvement and federalism as a method of conflict resolution in diverse societies becomes ever more prevalent and important Shifting Paradigms Hamza Preljević, Muhidin Mulalić, Emir Hadžikadunić, Mustafa Krupalija, 2025-08-29

This book offers a comprehensive exploration and analysis of the multifaceted challenges and opportunities facing Bosnia and Herzegovina thirty years after the Dayton Peace Agreement DPA Through a series of thematic chapters the volume delves into the country s complex history socio political dynamics and aspirations for integration Themes such as the legacy of the Dayton Peace Agreement DPA transitional justice collective memory and cultural identity civil society activism nationalism economic development and geopolitical shifts are examined to provide a nuanced understanding of the country s past and present Moreover Shifting Paradigms confronts pressing contemporary issues head on offering fresh perspectives on the refugee crisis the threat of secession in Bosnia and Herzegovina the arms race in the Western Balkans the evolving roles of NATO and the European Union and the ongoing quest for regional integration In advocating for a paradigm shift towards democratization reconciliation regional cooperation and integration the book offers a compelling argument for essential alternatives to persistent cycles of conflict and stagnation Shifting Paradigms serves as a timely and indispensable resource for policymakers scholars practitioners and students alike providing both a critical analysis of the country s challenges and a roadmap for meaningful change Through its holistic approach and forward looking vision the book aims to inspire collective action and solidarity in pursuit of a brighter future for Bosnia and Herzegovina Citizenship in Bosnia and

Herzegovina, Macedonia and Montenegro Jelena Džankić, 2016-03-03 What happens to the citizen when states and nations come into being How do the different ways in which states and nations exist define relations between individuals groups and the government Are all citizens equal in their rights and duties in the newly established polity Addressing these key questions in the contested and ethnically heterogeneous post Yugoslav states of Bosnia and Herzegovina Macedonia and Montenegro this book reinterprets the place of citizenship in the disintegration of Yugoslavia and the creation of new states in the Western Balkans Carefully analysing the interplay between competing ethnic identities and state building projects the author proposes a new analytical framework for studying continuities and discontinuities of citizenship in post partition post conflict states The book maintains that citizenship regimes in challenged states are shaped not only by the immediate political contexts that generated them but also by their historical trajectories societal environments in which they exist as well as the transformative powers of international and European factors Like Salt for Bread. The Jews of Bosnia and Herzegovina Francine Friedman, 2021-11-22 This book is the only comprehensive treatment in any language of a rather exotic Balkan Jewish community It places the Jewish community of Bosnia and Herzegovina into the context of the Jewish world but also of the world within which it existed for around five hundred years under various empires and regimes The Bosnian Jews might have remained a mostly unknown community to the rest of the world had it not played a unique role within the Bosnian Wars of the early 1990s providing humanitarian aid to its neighbor Serbs Croats and Muslims Watch Francine Friedman's presentation on The Jews of Bosnia and Herzegovina The Principle of Equality in Diverse States Eva Maria Belser, Thea Bächler, Sandra Egli, Lawrence Zünd, 2021-05-25 This book examines different approaches by which states characterised by federal or decentralized arrangements reconcile equality and autonomy In case studies from four continents leading experts analyse the challenges of ensuring institutional social and economic equality whilst respecting the competences of regions and the rights of groups

The Europeanisation of the Western Balkans Jelena Džankić, Soeren Keil, Marko Kmezić, 2018-09-21 This volume casts a fresh look on how the political spaces of the Western Balkan states Croatia Bosnia and Herzegovina Serbia Montenegro Kosovo Macedonia and Albania are shaped governed and transformed during the EU accession process The contributors argue that EU conditionality in the Western Balkans does not work effectively in terms of social change because rule transfer remains a contested business due to veto players on the ground and strong legacies of the past The volume examines specific policy areas salient in the enlargement process and to a different degree incorporated in the accession criteria as well as EU foreign policy in the spheres of post conflict stabilisation democratization and the rule of law promotion

Illiberal Politics in Southeast Europe Damir Kapidžić, Věra Stojarová, 2021-09-30 The world is increasingly becoming less democratic and this trend has not left Southeast Europe untouched But instead of democratic breakdown what we are witnessing is a gradual decline and the rise of competitive authoritarian regimes This book aims to give a country by country overview of how illiberal politics has led to a decline in democracy and the re emergence of autocratic governance in Southeast Europe more specifically in the Western Balkans It defines illiberal politics as the everyday practices through which ruling parties undermine democratic institutions in order to remain in power Individual chapters examine recent political developments and identify practices of illiberal politics that target electoral institutions rule of law media freedom judicial independence and enable political patronage while several thematic chapters comparatively explore cross regional patterns This book addresses academics policymakers and practitioners with professional interest in Southeast Europe or democratic decline and is both timely and relevant as the European Union attempts to reengage with the countries of the Western Balkans The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Southeast European and Black Sea Studies

Emerging Federal Structures in the Post-Cold War Era Soeren Keil, Sabine Kropp, 2022-05-18 This book conceives federalism not as a static institutional architecture but as a dynamic formation always in flux This may entail processes of federalization but in some cases also lead to de federalization It looks at emerging federal structures worldwide and analyses federal structures their emergence operation and categorization The contributors highlight that the emergence of these federal structures has multiple facets from the recognition of ethnic diversity to the use of federalism as a tool of conflict resolution Identifying and categorizing processes of federalization and defederalization in a variety of cases the book provides much needed empirical and theoretical discussion on emerging federal structures and the changing nature of federalism in the post Cold War era
