Mum Moments Journey Through Grief:

Almost 18 " A Mother's Journey Through Grief " Paula Marie Osipovitch,2012-04-23 My daughter Trisha left this world due to a reckless driver just one month short of her eighteenth birthday Confusion rage anger and denial became my new world I felt alone as if I were free falling for years But my words are a sanctuary My desire is to bring awareness to other parents who have lost children My message is to convey to bereaved parents that they are not alone on this journey and their feelings are not only acceptable but also normal I hope to provide a forum in which those who suffer as I have can compare their feelings along with mine can share in the same emotions I have as we try to learn the best way to continue moving along in a world that for us can never be the same Mum Moments Judy Taylor,2014 A personal expression of Judy Taylor s experience of grief following her mother s death The book contains journal spaces for others to explore their own grief experience as a healing tool on their personal journey For Every Dark Night . . . A Mother's Journey Through Grief and Trauma Diane Muller Ludman,2010-03 In Every Dark Night A Mother s Journey through Grief and Trauma Diane Ludman courageously shares her difficult and rewarding journey through the grieving process Her stories of navigating grief s peaks and valleys are clearly driven by love and support from her family and her family of friends Honoring her feelings instincts and intuition Diane embraces the sightings of Mikie and is able to enjoy his presence in her life and to always be Mikie s mom With gathered strength and courage Diane reveals how trust can open doors to healing Diane provides a comforting treasure for grieving parents and a book to remember for us all Elizabeth Pearce KinderMourn Counselor Facilitator The Journey Through Grief and Loss Robert Zucker,2009-08-18 When adults face a significant loss they must grapple with their own profound grief and they are often called upon to nurture and support their grieving children This is the first book to address this very common dual grieving challenge As a practicing psychotherapist for twenty nine years Robert Zucker can offer parents and other concerned readers important insights into managing their own grief while supporting their grieving children He offers Understanding how adults and children grieve differently Learning how to explain the meaning of death to children Knowing what to do when grief gets complicated Deciding when they and or their child need counseling Helping their family members stay connected with loved ones even after death For the countless parents who have tried blocking out their own grief in order to be available to their child Robert Zucker provides a measure of comfort This book will reassure readers that a grieving parent can still be an effective parent Confessions of a Grieving Mother Sherry Anne Coombe,2014-04-10 I did not cry The moment came when Heather died I did not shed a tear I felt numb like I was having an out of body experience and I was watching myself go through the motions There were things to do people to call it was not the time to begin to fall apart I had just joined an elite club of grieving mothers This was the club no one talked about or wanted to become a member of From that moment on my life was getting a makeover that I didnt ask for let alone consent to allowing it to happen It was beyond my control I was not given a choice This was and is my life now I am a grieving mother
