Murder Carte Hunter Mystery Mysteries:

Murder a la Carte Nancy Skopin, 2015-12-12 Murder A La Carte is the fourth novel in a mystery series featuring Private Investigator Nicoli Nikki Hunter. Nikki lives aboard a 46 foot sailboat on the California coast and rents a ground floor office in the marina complex where her boat is docked. In Murder A La Carte an abused nine year old boy comes to Nikki's office and asks her to find out who killed his mom. Meanwhile Nikki's significant other Detective Bill Anderson is investigating the homicide of a registered sex offender. It doesn't take long for Nikki to identify how these cases and several other local murders intersect. She's in for a wild ride chasing down a vigilante with a mission to kill as many sexual predators as possible.

The Gay Detective Novel Judith A. Markowitz, 2015-02-16 Gertrude Stein called it the only really modern novel form that has come into existence yet the mystery genre was a century old before it featured its first gay main character in a novel. Since then gay and lesbian detective fiction has been one of the fastest growing segments of the genre. It incorporates gay and lesbian cultural elements and offers crossover appeal. Its authors call upon a century of development in the mystery genre while providing new more accurate images of lesbians and gay men than generally found in mainstream literature and popular media. This groundbreaking study of gay and lesbian detective fiction examines mystery series and historically significant stand alone novels published since the early 1960s. Part I is an overview that describes how these novels make gay and lesbian life visible and forge new powerful images. It also examines how they fit into the larger history of mystery fiction. The series analyses in Part II are grouped according to the type of main character: police officer, private investigator, amateur sleuth, etc. Each section discusses main and secondary characters of that type, characteristic themes for the group, and more. The analyses of individual series cover main characters, themes, plot points, and other elements. Comments from authors interviewed for this book play a central role in those analyses. Part III lists series spanning themes e.g. homophobia, the closet, gay marriage, and the novels and series that address each of those themes. The New York Times Book Review, 1995-11

The Omnivore's Dilemma Michael Pollan, 2009-09-07 What shall we have for dinner? Such a simple question has grown to have a very complicated answer. We can eat almost anything nature has to offer but deciding what we should eat stirs anxiety. Should we choose the organic apple or the conventional? If organic, local or imported? Wild fish or farmed? Low carb or low cal? As the American culture of fast food and unlimited choice invades the world, Pollan follows his next meal from land to table, tracing the origin of everything consumed and the implications for ourselves and our planet. His astonishing findings will shock all who care about what they put on their plate. The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, David Remnick, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 1942 Popular Mystery Fiction by Arthur Conan Doyle : The Captain of The Polestar, and Other Tales/The Sign of The Four/Superhit Stories of Arthur Conan Doyle Arthur Conan Doyle, 2022-08-13 Popular Mystery Fiction by Arthur Conan Doyle This collection of books by Arthur Conan
