Christian Sacred Music in the Americas Andrew Shenton, Joanna Smolko, 2021-02-17 Christian Sacred Music in the Americas explores the richness of Christian musical traditions and reflects the distinctive critical perspectives of the Society for Christian Scholarship in Music This volume edited by Andrew Shenton and Joanna Smolko is a follow up to SCSM's Exploring Christian Song and offers a cross section of the most current and outstanding scholarship from an international array of writers. The essays survey a broad geographical area and demonstrate the enormous diversity of music making and scholarship within that area. Contributors utilize interdisciplinary methodologies including media studies, cultural studies, theological studies, and different analytical and ethnographical approaches to music. While there are some studies that focus on a single country, musical figure, or region, this is the first collection to represent the vast range of sacred music in the Americas and the different approaches to studying them in context. All Things Necessary Marti Rideout, 2013-01-01. This is a complete revision of a detailed resource which has been the essential guide for church musicians working in the Episcopal church for over 20 years. A Guide to the Practice of Church Music 1989 was originally written by Marion J. Hatchett, who taught for many years at the Episcopal seminary at Sewanee, was key in developing materials for The Hymnal 1982. This updated revision contains brief but articulate discussions of the role of music in the church, the variety and nature of music ministries, people, cantor, choirs, organists, directors, instrumentalists, clergy, and music committees, principles for the selection of hymns, psalms, canticles, and other service music, and their sources in materials from CPI and beyond, guidance for planning services for all rites of the church in the BCP and the Book of Occasional Services. Updated revision includes hymnals, electronic resources, and materials published since The Hymnal 1982.

Ancient-Future Disciples Becky Garrison, 2011-10. Fresh expressions of church may offer a fresh take on ancient Anglican tradition and worship. But what difference are they making for the people who call them their church home? Journalist and religion commentator Becky Garrison spent a year visiting mission-shaped ministries in the US and UK. Where most books focus on the pioneers who founded these congregations, Garrison shifts to focus on the people on the ground, what drew them to the community, why they come back, and how they understand themselves to be church. In the process, she reveals wisdom around evangelism, Christian formation, and discipleship that every congregation can use to flourish in this postmodern age. Issues in Prayer Book Revision Robert W. Prichard, 2018-09-17. Essays from academics across a spectrum of perspectives. The Standing Commission on Liturgy and Music sought input from multiple sources in order to better understand the charge of the General Convention of 2015, suggesting that it present a plan for the revision of the Book of Common Prayer to the 2018 Convention. While the individual chapters of this volume raise a variety of differing issues, they share a common assumption that one of the sources of information for the Standing Commission and the Church in its deliberations ought to be the community of academically trained liturgical scholars. The hope of this volume is to open a conversation across the church that will continue in the future. Starting from Zero with $0 Becky Garrison, 2010-09-01. Churches everywhere are suffering from draconian funding cuts, so how do leaders with a heart for alternative ministries fund their passion and build communities that will last? Journalist and commentator Becky Garrison looks deep into the experience of nearly a dozen ministries in the United States and United Kingdom, all of them geared to the growing spiritual but not religious demographic and all of them highly creative venues doing a lot with a little money How did these ministries start from zero with 0 And how could you Music by Heart Church Publishing, The Hymn ,2010
