Muslim Families In Global Senegal Money Takes Care Of Shame:

Muslim Families in Global Senegal Beth Buggenhagen, 2012-02-06 A first rate ethnography of Muslim women in Dakar an extremely fine grained analysis of women s exchange networks Robert Launay Northwestern University Senegalese Murid migrants have circulated cargo and currency through official and unofficial networks in Africa and the world Muslim Families in Global Senegal focuses on trade and the transmission of enduring social value through cloth videos of life cycle rituals and religious offerings Highlighting women s participation in these networks and the financial strategies they rely on Beth Buggenhagen reveals the deep connections between economic profits and ritual and social authority Buggenhagen discovers that these strategies are not responses to a dispersed community in crisis but rather produce new roles wealth and worth for Senegalese women in all parts of the globe A lively insightful and important study of exchange practices between Senegal and a circuit of global trade The innovative focus is on the meanings not the social and economic functions of exchange Karen Tranberg Hansen Northwestern University While the author s focus is on the transformation in the role of women both within the family network and in the marketplace the book allows readers to better understand the impact of globalism on the citizens of Senegal Recommended Choice Hope and Uncertainty in Contemporary African Migration Nauja Kleist, Dorte Thorsen, 2016-11-25 This volume examines the relationship between hope mobility and immobility in African migration Through case studies set within and beyond the continent it demonstrates that hope offers a unique prism for analyzing the social imaginaries and aspirations which underpin migration in situations of uncertainty deepening inequality and delimited access to global circuits of legal mobility The volume takes departure in a mobility paradox that characterizes contemporary migration Whereas people all over the world are exposed to widening sets of meaning of the good life elsewhere an increasing number of people in the Global South have little or no access to authorized modes of international migration This book examines how African migrants respond to this situation Focusing on hope it explores migrants temporal and spatial horizons of expectation and possibility and how these horizons link to mobility practices Such analysis is pertinent as precarious life conditions and increasingly restrictive regimes of mobility characterize the lives of many Africans while migration continues to constitute important livelihood strategies and to be seen as pathways of improvement Whereas involuntary immobility is one consequence another is the emergence and consolidation of new destinations emerging in the Global South The volume examines this development through empirically grounded and theoretically rich case studies in migrants countries of origin zones of transit and in new and established destinations in Europe North America the Middle East Latin America and China It thereby offers an original perspective on linkages between migration hope and immobility ranging from migration aspirations to return Relative Distance Leslie Fesenmyer, 2023-07-06 The socio economic and political uncertainties of Kenya in the 1990s jeopardised what many saw as the promises of modernity An increasing number of Kenyans migrated many to Britain a country that felt familiar from

Kenyan history Based on extensive fieldwork in Kenya and the United Kingdom Leslie Fesenmyer's work provides a rich historically nuanced study of the kinship dilemmas that underlie transnational migration and explores the dynamic relationship between those who migrate and those who stay behind Challenging a focus on changing modes of economic production push pull factors and globalisation as drivers of familial change she analyses everyday trans national family life Relative Distance shows how quotidian interactions exchanges and practices transform kinship on a local and global scale Through the prism of intergenerational care Fesenmyer reveals that the question of who is responsible for whom is not only a familial matter but is at the heart of relations between individuals societies and states Bottleneck Caroline

Melly,2017-10-17 The age of globalization is generally understood as involving the massive movement of people and goods on a scale never before seen in human history In Mobile Fixations anthropologist Caroline Melly examines mobility as a cultural value in urban Senegal paying close attention to the points at which the ideal of mobility meets obstructive realities Specifically she conceptualizes embouteillage the traffic bottleneck as a symbol for the fraught attempts of Dakar's citizens to construct their own mobile futures Through case studies of investment agencies cab companies investors state workers and return migrants Melly pays keen attention to the chronic uncertainty brought on by structural adjustment and how transnational networks might stand as models of inclusion and exclusion in contemporary Senegalese society Melly also guides us beyond West Africa's shores to the rickety Europe bound fishing boats upon which so many immigrants embark to see a different kind of mobile future abroad one that too often ends in tragedy In so doing the author shows how the consequences of local transformations reach well beyond a country's or even a continent's borders Mobile Fixations is an engaging and accessible work of cultural anthropology one that will be an invaluable read for anyone interested in contemporary African society and the global implications of urban development African Women and Their Networks of Support Elene Cloete,Martha Ndakalako-Bannikov,Mariah C. Stember,2020-10-29

African Women and their Networks of Support Intervening Connections is an interdisciplinary analysis of how African women in their different cultural social and political spaces find innovative strategies to address the challenge they face and voice their often underrepresented perspectives These actions are often molded in either formal or informal networks of support that provide women with the necessary peer based foundation to deal with gender discrimination violence and subjugation On other occasions women's strategies toward change are driven by specific individuals who set the transformative agenda and trajectory toward social change Contributors label these efforts as intervening connections representing women's intentional actions to circumvent disrupt question and ultimately rearrange structures of gender discrimination Respective chapters capture networks that are historic and current real virtual and imagined local and transnational and managed by women on the continent as well as in the diaspora Considering these diverse spaces in which networking happens contributors underscore not only how African women aim at deconstructing current systemic gender inequalities but also how they are developing futures of gender equity

Ethno-erotic Economies George Paul

Meiu, 2017-10-10 Ethno erotic Economies explores a fascinating case of tourism focused on sex and culture in coastal Kenya where young men deploy stereotypes of African warriors to help them establish transactional sexual relationships with European women. In bars and on beaches young men deliberately cultivate their images as sexually potent African men to attract women, sometimes for a night, in other cases for long term relationships. George Paul Meiu uses his deep familiarity with the communities these men come from to explore the long term effects of markets of ethnic culture and sexuality on a wide range of aspects of life in rural Kenya including kinship, ritual, gender, intimate affection, and conceptions of aging. What happens to these communities when young men return with such surprising wealth? And how do they use it to improve their social standing locally? By answering these questions Ethno erotic Economies offers a complex look at how intimacy and ethnicity come together to shape the pathways of global and local trade in the postcolonial world.
