Analysing Education Policy Meghan Stacey, Nicole Mockler, 2024-02-13

Analysing Education Policy Theory and Method provides a comprehensive overview of key approaches in critical education policy research. With chapters from internationally recognised and established scholars in the field, this book provides an authoritative account of how different questions may be approached and answered. Part 1 features chapters focused on text-based approaches to analysis, including critical discourse analysis, thinking with Foucault, Indigenist Policy Analysis, media analysis, the analysis of promotional texts in education, and the analysis of online networks. Part 2 features chapters focused on network ethnography, actor network theory, materiality in policy, Institutional Ethnography, decolonising approaches to curriculum policy, working with children and young people, and working with education policy elites. These chapters are supported by an introduction to each section as well as an overall introduction and conclusion chapter from the editors drawing together key themes and ongoing considerations for the field. Critical education policy analysis takes many different forms, each of which works with distinctly different questions and fulfils different purposes. This book is the first to clearly map current common and influential approaches to answering these questions, providing important guidance for both new and established researchers. Handbook of Early Language Education Mila Schwartz, 2022-03-30

This is the first international and interdisciplinary handbook to offer a comprehensive and in-depth overview of findings from contemporary research theory and practice in early childhood language education in various parts of the world and with different populations. The contributions by leading scholars and practitioners are structured to give a survey of the topic, highlight its importance, and provide a critical stance. The book covers preschool ages and looks at children belonging to diverse ethno-linguistic groups and experiencing different histories and pathways of their socio-linguistic and socio-cultural development and early education. The languages under the scope of this handbook are identified by the contributors as immigrant languages, indigenous, endangered, heritage, regional, minority, majority, and marginalized, as well as foreign and second languages, all of which are discussed in relation to early language education as the key concept of the handbook. In this volume, early language education will refer to any kind of setting, both formal and informal, e.g. nursery, kindergarten, early childhood education centers, complementary early schooling, etc., in which language learning within a context of children's sociolinguistic diversity takes place before elementary school.

Elite Education and Internationalisation Claire Maxwell, Ulrike Deppe, Heinz-Hermann Krüger, Werner Helsper, 2017-09-26

This book offers both a theoretical and empirical examination of elite education at all stages, from the early years to university level. The book explores the various manifestations of internationalisation of education, the implications of these for national education systems, the formation and re-articulation of elite forms of education locally and globally and how these facilitate the reproduction or disruption of processes of inequality The collection critically considers these questions by drawing on contributions from around the world and focuses on how internationalisation processes shape the various stages of the education system from early years settings to higher education in oftentimes quite different ways At the same time by engaging with the issues through a range of theoretical lenses the book invites readers to consider in greater depth the various ways we can come to understand how processes of internationalisation are both embedding but also at times destabilising the formation and purpose of elite education provision and potentially the configuration of elite groups themselves The book will be relevant to academics researchers students policymakers and educators working in or on the field of education across the world
