Sandell,2016-12-08 Cover Title Copyright Dedication CONTENTS List of illustrations Preface Acknowledgements Prologue 1 Progress and protest 2 I am he that aches with love 3 Coming out stories 4 Taking sides 5 Museums and the transgender tipping point 6 Museum work as human rights work Appendix References Index Museum Innovation Haitham Eid,Melissa Forstrom,2021-07-18 Museum Innovation encourages museums to critically reflect upon current practices and adopt new approaches to their civic responsibilities Arguing that museums have a moral duty to perform the book shows how social innovation can make them more equitable relevant and impactful institutions Including contributions from a diverse group of international scholars practitioners and researchers the book investigates the innovative approaches museums are taking to address contemporary social issues The volume focuses on the concept of social innovation and individual chapters address a range of crucial issues such as climate change the COVID 19 pandemic diversity and inclusion the travel ban and the repatriation of museum collections Exploring the impact that organizational structures have on museums aspirations to act as agents for social change the book also unpacks how museums can establish sustainable relationships with minority communities Proposing steps that museums can take to affirm their relevance as viable community partners the book breaks down silos and connects ideas across different areas of museum work Museum Innovation explores the role of contemporary museums in society It is essential reading for academics students and practitioners working in the museum and heritage studies field The book s interdisciplinary nature makes it also an interesting read for those working in business studies digital humanities visual culture arts administration and political science fields Art of Minorities Rey Virginie Rey,2020-07-06 How are issues related to identity representation negotiated in Middle Eastern and North African museums Can museums provide a suitable canvas for minorities to express their voice Can narratives change and stereotypes be broken and if so what kind of identities are being deployed Against the backdrop of the revolutionary upheavals that have shaken the region in recent years the contributors to this volume interrogate a range of case studies from across the region examining how museums engage inclusion diversity and the politics of minority identities They bring to the fore the region s diversity and sketches a museology of disaster in which minoritised political subjects regain visibility Museum as Process Raymond Silverman,2014-09-19 The museum has become a vital strategic space for negotiating ownership of and access to knowledges produced in local settings Museum as Process presents community engaged culture work of a group of scholars whose collaborative projects consider the social spaces between the museum and community and offer new ways of addressing the challenges of bridging the local and the global Museum as Process explores a variety of strategies for engaging source communities in the process of translation and the collaborative mediation of cultural knowledges Scholars from around the world reflect upon their work with specific communities in different parts of the world Australia Canada Ghana Great Britain New Zealand Papua New Guinea Philippines South Africa Taiwan and the United States Each global case study provides significant insights into what happens to knowledge as it moves back and forth between source communities and global sites especially the museum Museum as Process is an important contribution to understanding the relationships between museums and source communities and the flow of cultural knowledge Child Migrant Voices in Modern Britain Eithne Nightingale,2024-01-11 Almost half the people displaced worldwide are under 18 yet their voices are rarely heard This book records the experiences of children arriving in Britain from Hitler s Europe in the 1930s to those escaping war in Ukraine in 2022 It follows the journeys of war traumatised children from Mogadishu to Mile End and from Syria to a Scottish isle Some followed their parents to the motherland from the former British Empire Others came independently to escape forced marriage or military conscription These powerful testimonies shed light on children s motivations trials and achievements including in adult life providing critical insight into how the British both individually and collectively have welcomed or shunned child migrants Importantly Eithne Nightingale links these stories with contemporary issues such as the Windrush Scandal and Britain s Illegal Migration Act 2023 Situated in its historical and political context Child Migrant Voices in Modern Britain makes vital reading for those studying modern British history migration and human rights as well as those working with child migrants It will also appeal to a general audience interested in inspirational life stories For more information on the book related events and to watch award winning films on child migration see childmigrantstories.com

The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Memory Sharon Deane-Cox,Anneleen Spiessens,2022-05-29 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Memory serves as a timely and unique resource for the current boom in thinking around translation and memory The Handbook offers a comprehensive overview of a contemporary and as yet unconsolidated research landscape with a four section structure which encompasses both current debate and future trajectories Twenty four chapters written by leading and emerging international scholars provide a cross sectional snapshot of the diverse angles of approach and case studies that have thus far driven research into translation and memory A valuable far reaching range of theoretical empirical reflective comparative and archival approaches are brought to bear on translational sites of memory and mnemonic sites of translation through the examination of topics such as traumatic postcolonial cultural literary and translator memory This Handbook is key reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in translation studies memory studies and related areas Museums and Social Change Adele Chynoweth,Bernadette Lynch,Klaus Petersen,Sarah Smed,2020-07-09 Museums and Social Change explores the ways museums can work in collaboration with marginalised groups to work for social change and in so doing rethink the museum Drawing on the first hand experiences of museum practitioners and their partners around the world the volume demonstrates the impact of a shared commitment to collaborative reflective practice Including analytical discussion from practitioners in their collegial work with women the homeless survivors of institutionalised child abuse and people with disabilities the book draws attention to the significant contributions of small specialist museums in bringing about social change It is here the book argues that the new museum emerges when museum practitioners see themselves as partners working with others to lead social change this is where museums can play a distinct and important role Emerging in response to ongoing calls for museums to be more inclusive and participate in meaningful engagement Museums and Social Change will be essential reading for academics and students working in museum and gallery studies librarianship archives heritage studies and arts management It will also be of great interest to those working in history and cultural studies as well as museum practitioners and social activists around the world
