Muslims And Political Participation In Britain Routledge Studies In Religion And Politics:

Muslims and Political Participation in Britain Timothy Peace, 2015-05-01 This new volume showcases the latest research into Muslim political participation both in terms of electoral politics and civil society initiatives Muslims play a prominent role in British political life yet what do we actually know about the involvement of British Muslims beyond the existence of a handful of Muslim MPs What is unique about political participation in Muslim communities All the major parties actively seek to court a Muslim electorate but does such a phenomenon exist Despite the impact that Muslims have had on election campaigns and their roles in various political institutions research on this topic remains scant Indeed much of the existing work was couched within the broader areas of the participation of ethnic minorities or the impact of race on electoral politics The chapters in this volume address this lacuna by highlighting different aspects of Muslim participation in British politics They investigate voting patterns and election campaigns civil society and grassroots political movements the engagement of young people and the participation of Muslims in formal political institutions Written in an accessible style this book will be of interest to students and scholars of political participation and religious studies Leadership, Authority and Representation in British Muslim Communities

Sophie Gilliat-Ray, Riyaz Timol, 2021-01-26 The contributions explore Muslim religious leadership in multiple forms and settings While traditional authority is usually correlated with theology and piety as in the case of classically trained ulema the public advocacy of Muslim community concerns is often headed by those with professionalized skillsets and civic experience In an increasingly digital world both women and men exercise leadership in novel ways and sites of authority are refracted from traditional loci such as mosques and seminaries to new and unexpected places This collection provides systematic focus on a topic that has hitherto been given rather diffuse consideration It complements historical work on community leadership as well as more contemporary discussion on the training and role of Islamic religious authorities It will be of interest to scholars in Religious Studies Sociology Political Science History and Islamic Studies British Muslim Politics

P. Akhtar, 2013-10-09 Although there has emerged a huge interest in the Muslim communities in Britain since 9 11 and 7 7 few academic studies have focused on the political processes within Muslim communities and the impacts these have on civic engagement This book examines the political biographies and religious identities of British Muslims of Pakistani descent Muslim Identity Politics

Khadijah Elshayyal, 2018-02-28 The surge in divisive and far right politics and growing Islamophobia in Britain pose new challenges for Muslim advocacy organisations British Muslim activism has taken centre stage in the public sphere as a result Yet for over fifty years Muslim advocacy groups have worked to preserve religious identity lobby the state and provide concerted responses to the political establishment This is the first book to chart critically the national and global factors influencing the political mobilisation of British Muslim activists as Muslims Khadijah Elshayyal traces the changes of thought direction and method within Muslim identity politics after 1960 noting key organisations and turning points such as the Rushdie Affair the

9 11 attacks the 7 7 bombings and the current conflict in Syria The book argues that the Rushdie Affair prompted new debate around the subject of freedom of expression which has continued to be a point of contention ever since Providing a history of the interaction between Muslim advocacy groups and the state and the impact of state policy on Muslim communities Muslims Identity Politics shows that that Muslim citizens continue to experience an equality gap and recommends where transformation and progress can be made Based on primary sources and in depth interviews this book is a vital resource for government officials policy makers and researchers interested in multiculturalism Islamophobia and security issues in Britain

British Muslims and Their Discourses Laurens de Rooij, 2023-12-28 This book highlights the changing dynamics of Muslim identity and integration in Britain focusing on the post 9 11 era Historically Muslims faced discrimination based on ethnicity rather than religion However contemporary discrimination against Muslims is rooted in different reasons with events like the Rushdie affair significantly impacting multicultural relations This study analyzes the evolving multicultural landscape in Britain exploring the shift from predominantly assimilationist policies to a more mutual process of integration It delves into the emergence of interfaith dialogue as well as the complexities surrounding the intersection of race religion gender and identity The research examines two key themes the discursive positioning of Islam beyond integration and terrorism narratives and the operationalization of identity by Muslims in various contexts The study employs empirical methods and cultural studies theories to understand how individual and social practices intersect in this context By doing so it contributes to Islamic studies socio political studies and cultural studies shedding light on the discourses that shape and are shaped by Muslim lives in Britain The analysis encompasses diverse perspectives from macro level societal discourses to micro level individual actions thus providing a comprehensive exploration of the multifaceted experiences of Muslims in Britain

The ^AOxford Handbook of Politics in Muslim Societies Melani Cammett, Pauline Jones, 2022-02-22 The Oxford Handbook of Politics in Muslim Societies examines a wide range of topics concerning regimes and regime change electoral politics political attitudes and behavior beyond voting social mobilization economic performance and development outcomes and social welfare and governance The Handbook shifts focus away from the Arab world as the barometer of politics in the Muslim world recognizing that the Islamic world spans several regions including Africa Southeast Asia South Asia and Central Asia This expanded geography enables a thorough investigation of which relationships if any hold across Muslim majority states in different regions of the world

Political Participation and Identities of Muslims in Non-Muslim States W. A. R. Shadid, P. S. van Koningsveld, 1996 The involvement of minorities in politics has been the subject of a considerable number of studies However these studies are rarely concerned with the views of Muslims on their participation in the political processes of non Muslim societies Several Western scholars have thought and still think that the world from the perspective of Muslims can be divided in accordance with the dichotomy of the classical Islamic Law that distinguishes between the Territory of Islam and the Territory of War however during the last decennia various Muslim scholars have tried to reinterpret the position of Muslims in non Muslim societies in new religious terms by which this classification has been emended and corrected In this book four different views are distinguished the pragmatic idealistic or utopian re interpretative and traditionalist views It goes without saying that the practical implementaion of these views to a large degree depends upon the types of Muslim organizations and representative bodies in those societies as well as their denominational and ethnical backgrounds From an international comparative perspective it appears that contrary to the situation in Australia Muslims of most Western European states have been thus far unsuccessful in creating representative organizations at national levels This is also illustrated by studies of Muslim organizations in Germany Italy and the united Kingdom Another important factor consists of the views of the younger generations of Muslim immigrants about the compatibility of their Islamic identiity and full participation in the non Muslim secular societies in which they are living Research on this subject contained in the present book responds to this question in an affirmative way

London Youth, Religion, and Politics Daniel Nilsson DeHanas, 2016-06-23 For more than a decade the Muslim question on integration and alleged extremism has vexed Europe revealing cracks in long held certainties about the role of religion in public life Secular assumptions are being tested not only by the growing presence of Muslims but also by other fervent new arrivals such as Pentecostal Christians London Youth Religion and Politics focuses on young adults of immigrant parents in two inner city London areas the East End and Brixton It paints vivid portraits of dozens of young men and women met at local cafes on park benches and in council estate stairwells and provides reason for a measured hope In East End streets like Brick Lane revivalist Islam has been generating more civic integration although this comes at a price that includes generational conflict and cultural amnesia In Brixton while the influence of Pentecostal and traditional churches can be limited to family and individual renewal there are signs that this may be changing This groundbreaking work offers insight into the lives of urban Muslim Christian and non religious youth In times when the politics of immigration and diversity are in flux it offers a candid appraisal of multiculturalism in practice

The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women Asma Afsaruddin, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women offers authoritative contributions from well known scholars whose sophisticated and cutting edge research explores the diversity of Muslim women s lives and their accomplishments challenging common stereotypes that are particularly prevalent in the West
