Glynn, 2016-05-16 This exploration of one of the most concentrated immigrant communities in Britain combines a fascinating narrative history an original theoretical analysis of the evolving relationship between progressive left politics and ethnic minorities and an incisive critique of political multiculturalism It recounts and analyses the experiences of many of those who took part in over six decades of political history that range over secular nationalism trade unionism black radicalism mainstream local politics Islamism and the rise and fall of the Respect Coalition Through this Bengali case study and examples from wider immigrant politics it traces the development and adoption of the concepts of popular frontism revolutionary stages theory and identity politics It demonstrates how these theories and tactics have cut across class based organisation and acted as an impediment to addressing socio economic inequality and it argues for a left materialist alternative It will appeal equally to sociologists political activists and local historians Young American Muslims Nahid

Afroze Kabir,2014-08-20 What is it like to be a young Muslim in America Many young Americans cherish an American dream that all men are created equal And the election of America s first black President in 2008 has shown that America has moved forward Yet since 9 11 Muslim Americans have faced renewed challenges with their loyalty and sense of belonging being questioned Nahid Kabir takes you on a journey into the ideas outlooks and identity of young Muslims in Florida Maryland Massachusetts Michigan New York and Virginia Based on around 400 in depth interviews with young Muslims discover the similarities and differences between ethnic and racial groups such as Iranians Arab Americans and African Americans Find out how they rate President Obama as a national and world leader where they stand on the Israeli Palestine issue and how the media impacts on them Asian American Culture Lan Dong,2016-03-14 Providing comprehensive coverage of a variety of Asian American cultural forms including folk tradition literature religion education politics sports and popular culture this two volume work is an ideal resource for students and general readers that reveals the historical regional and ethnic diversity within specific traditions An invaluable reference for school and public libraries as well as academic libraries at colleges and universities this two volume encyclopedia provides comprehensive coverage of a variety of Asian American cultural forms that enables readers to understand the history complexity and contemporary practices in Asian American culture The contributed entries address the diversity of a group comprising people with geographically discrete origins in the Far East Southeast Asia and the Indian subcontinent identifying the rich variations across the category of Asian American culture that are key to understanding specific cultural expressions while also pointing out some commonalities Entries are organized alphabetically and cover topics in the arts education and politics family and community gender and sexuality history and immigration holidays festivals and folk tradition literature and culture media sports and popular culture and religion belief and spirituality Entries also broadly cover Asian American origins and history regional practices and traditions contemporary culture and art and other forms of shared expression Accompanying sidebars throughout serve to highlight key individuals major events and significant artifacts and allow readers to better appreciate the Asian American experience

The Contexts of Diaspora Citizenship Päivi Armila,Marko Kananen,Yasemin Kontkanen,2018-10-24 This book explores the social participation identification and transnational practices of Somalis living in Finland and the United States Through a multifaceted collection of chapters which are based on data ranging from legislation and policy documents to welfare indicators and interviews this book explores how Somali migrants experience and explore their identities and belongings and how they strive for participation as diaspora citizens of their sending and receiving societies The case studies are conducted in two countries that differ greatly in terms of their social system migration history and integration policies and as such they provide an opportunity to explore how different social political and legal orders influence the life courses and wellbeing of migrant populations Furthermore the book highlights how the fate of the Somalis as a global diaspora is routinely intertwined with the changes in the global political climate and the state level political processes reflecting it This book will be of great interest to researchers students and lecturers of migration and diaspora as well as individuals working with Somali migrants

Gender, Sexuality, Decolonization Ahonaa Roy, 2020-12-28 This book presents a new approach to the understanding of non normative sexuality and gender transgressive modes in South Asia and South Asian diaspora It reconceives sexual representation from the point of view of the theoretical political and empirical trajectories of decolonization provincialization and neoliberalism to look at the role of historical contingency postcolonial sexual politics and gender and sexual diversity The volume brings together anthropological historical material and political analyses around South Asian sexual politics by exploring a range of themes including culture class ethnicity identity intersectionality migration borders diaspora modernity and cosmopolitanism across various local regional and global contexts By using southern non Western and subaltern theorizations of gender and sexuality the book discusses South Asian sexualities through issues such as the sexual politics of indeterminacy sexual subculture iconography and political decision making religious identity queer South Asian diaspora decolonizing the postcolonial body sexual politics gender and feminist debates discrimination and socio political violence the political economy of empowerment and critical appropriation of the 377 Indian Penal Code It also builds forms of dialogues to bridge the gap between academic and development practitioners With diverse case studies and a fresh theoretical framework this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of South Asian studies gender studies sexuality studies sociology and social anthropology political studies diaspora studies postcolonial and global south studies

Family, Citizenship and Islam Nilufar Ahmed, 2016-06-17 A longitudinal intersectional study of migrant women this book examines the lives of first generation Bangladeshi migrants to the UK considering the dynamic relationship between people and place Shedding new light on a migrant population about which little is known the author explores the experiences of women who left rural homes to live in London speaking no English with no experience of local customs and having to adjust to what would now be dramatically shrunken family sizes within which they would act as bearers of culture and tradition Based on research spanning a decade Family Citizenship and Islam draws on qualitative interviews with over 100 women and examines questions of identity belonging citizenship and Britishness religion ageing care and the family With attention to the fluidity of the experiences of the first generation of migration women the book offers an alternative to much ethnographic research which often offers only a snapshot of a particular minority or migrant group as fixed and preserved in time As such Family Citizenship and Islam will appeal to scholars of sociology geography and anthropology with interests in migration and diaspora citizenship gender religion family and the lifecourse and the ways in which these different aspects of a person's life come together to shape lived experience
