Corporate Opportunities Marco Claudio Corradi,2021-08-26 This monograph provides a comprehensive analysis of corporate opportunities doctrines from a comparative perspective It looks at both common law and civil law rules and relies to a large extent on a law and economics approach This book broadens the conventional view on corporate opportunities a vital step in light of the adoption of corporate opportunities rules in civil law jurisdictions and in light of investors ever changing strategies This approach considers institutional complementarities and especially industrial complementarities The book thus explores several jurisdictions and their economic and industrial environments whilst also assessing the impact of globalisation onto legal reform Furthermore it analyses the problems related to the application of corporate opportunities rules to cross border venture capital In normative terms the book advances one main stance articulated in three points first it proposes different sanctions for undisclosed and disclosed misappropriations supporting the core idea that sanctions should be set against disclosure and not authorisation Secondly it advances the idea that sanctions against undisclosed misappropriations should be more severe than the ones presently applied Thirdly it considers the possibility of a more flexible treatment of disclosed misappropriations This study is positioned at the intersection of several fields providing a lens into a much broader range of dynamics that will be of interest to a varied international readership and offering a window into the broader institutional dynamics at work in centres of innovation eg Silicon Valley and industrial districts in other jurisdictions It is rooted in law and economics but the emphasis is placed on how corporate opportunities rules fit within a broader set of institutional dynamics that affect innovation industrial efficiency and economic competitiveness The Australia-European Union Free Trade Agreement Marc Bungenberg,Andrew Mitchell,2022-02-26 This book gathers a selection of peer reviewed chapters reflecting on the Australia European Union Free Trade Agreement AEUFTA Since 18 June 2018 ten rounds of negotiations for a AEUFTA have been held in a constructive atmosphere showing a shared commitment to move forward with this ambitious and comprehensive agreement After a lengthy and arduous process interrupted by the United Kingdom s withdrawal from the European Union EU the United States hesitations regarding the EU s global strategy and the outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic the negotiations between Australia and the European Union finally appear to be nearing completion In challenging times both parties share a commitment to a positive trade agenda and to the idea that good trade agreements benefit both sides by boosting jobs growth and investment This book explores the challenges achievements and missed opportunities in the AEUFTA negotiation process and examines current legal and political relations between the EU its Member States and Australia Furthermore it examines in detail a wide and diverse range of negotiated areas including digital trade services intellectual property rules trade remedies and investment screening as well as dispute settlement mechanisms Lastly it sheds light on the likely nature of future commercial relations between Australia and the EU Written by a team of respected authors from leading institutions in both Australia and Europe the book provides a valuable interdisciplinary analysis of the AEUFTA
