Ritual Calendar South Ac H Indonesia:

Calendar London School of Economics and Political Science, 1968 Sindhi Roots & Rituals - Part 1 Dayal N Harjani aka DADUZEN, 2018-07-19 Mr Dayal N Harjani's recent publication Sindhi Roots Rituals a magnum opus is the outcome of Harjani's painstaking research of years studying hundreds of books and collecting the information orally from vast number of persons with intimate knowledge. He has successfully unraveled the historical economical and cultural past of the most ancient race of Indus Valley Civilization with incisive analysis and deep insight. No doubt it is his labour of love and sense of responsibility which has induced him to undertake this arduous task never attempted before. Exploring the subject under his lenses Harjani has realized that Sindhi Community is passing through a serious Identity Crisis. Sindhi Language the quintessence of its rich culture is in pitiable condition. It hangs at the perilous precipice from where it is poised to leap into the chasm of oblivion. The Sound of tolling bells is quite loud and clear. According to Harjani Sindhis have to act fast on war footing if they wish to survive eluding the list of races which may vanish from earth in near future. Mr Harjani has suggested few remedial measures as given below: 1 Sindhis should strive to create their homeland the suitable location for the same is Kutch region adjoining Sindh. 2 They should also establish Bharti Sindhu Vidyapeeth a Cultural University to act as a repository of all the knowledge about Sindh and Sindhis to preserve and promote Sindhi Language Culture. 3 They should build Shree Jhulelal Tirthdham on a gigantic scale at Narayan Sarovar which is the site where River Sindhu merged in Sindhu Sagar. Lord Jhulelal Ishtdev of Sindhis shall certainly reappear at the same spot to become their saviour if all the Sindhis united together to beckon Him whole heartedly in one voice. Lakhmi Khilnani Director and Founder Member Indian Institute of Sindhology Adipur Ritual Voices of Revelation James J. Fox, 2024-11-26 This is a study of a collection of oral compositions of the Rotenese of eastern Indonesia. Recited in semantic parallelism these compositions require a strict pairing of all words to produce correspondingly ordered verses. These narrative verses create an elevated discourse a scriptural voice intended to reveal the origins of Rotenese cultural life. The translations and exegeses of these origin narratives offer a work of world class poetic imagination that recounts a dynastic contest between the Sun and Moon and Lords of the Ocean Sea and its epic consequences. As background to the presentation of these narratives this study provides a description of Rotenese life expressed in the complementary pairs that the Rotenese themselves use to categorise their world. A concluding chapter examines the Rotenese acquisition of Christianity and the subsequent retelling of the Biblical Genesis in Rotenese parallel verse thus continuing the general examination of the use of parallelism as elevated ritual discourse. Gathered from poets from two domains on the island most of these compositions date from fieldwork in 1965-66 and in 1973. The publication of these materials represents the summation of more than fifty years of research Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa Dallen J. Timothy, 2023-03-13 Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa examines the multiple and diverse manifestations of cultural heritage based tourism in Africa from a regional social science and sustainability perspective. This book delivers a comprehensive treatise on the interdependent concepts of cultural heritage and tourism. Heritage is one of the most pervasive tourism assets worldwide and lies at the foundations of tourism in many localities including Africa. However, despite its salience, there has not been a systematic examination of Africa's heritage resources, markets, policies, practices, successes, and challenges in a tourism framework despite the continent's immense heritage value. This book reviews the different types of heritages that pervade the cultural environment of Africa and comprises its vast heritagescapes. It also examines the increasing potential for the growth of heritage tourism throughout the entire continent. The contributions in this volume delve into current thinking about space and place and their effects on heritage, mobilities, globalization, colonialism, and indigeneity, conflict, identity, and nation building, connections with other regions through migration and the slave trade, and a greater emphasis on the ordinary heritage of Africa, which has long been ignored by tourism scholars and industry representatives. The chapters herein are authored by Africa specialists, most being from Africa, offering a truly African perspective. The chapters are conceptually rigorous and empirically rich with examples from all regions of the African continent. This unparalleled interdisciplinary glimpse at cultural heritage and tourism in Africa delivers strong value and is a vital resource for all students and researchers of tourism, cultural studies, heritage studies, geography, anthropology, sociology, history, and global studies.

Models and Mirrors Don Handelman, 1998. Ritual is one of the most discussed cultural practices, yet its treatment in anthropological terms has been seriously limited, characterized by a host of narrow conceptual distinctions. One major reason for this situation has been the prevalence of positivist anthropologies that have viewed and summarized ritual occasions first and foremost in terms of their declared and assumed functions By contrast this book which has become a classic investigates them as epistemological phenomena in their own right Comparing public events a domain which includes ritual and related occasions the author argues that any public event must first be comprehended through the logic of its design It is the logic of organization of an occasion which establishes in large measure what that occasion is able to do in relation to the world within which it is created and practiced Embodying Charisma Helene Basu, Pnina Werbner, 2002-03-11

The continued vitality of Sufism as a living embodied postcolonial reality challenges the argument that Sufism has died in recent times Throughout India and Bangladesh Sufi shrines exist in both the rural and urban areas from the remotest wilderness to the modern Asian city lying opposite banks and skyscrapers This book illuminates the remarkable resilience of South Asian Sufi saints and their cults in the face of radical economic and political dislocations and breaks new ground in current research It addresses the most recent debates on the encounter between Islam and modernity and presents important new comparative ethnographic material Embodying Charisma re-examines some basic concepts in the sociology and anthropology of religion and the organization of religious movements
