River Of Traps A New Mexico Mountain Life:

River of Traps William deBuys, Alex Harris, 2007-08-28 New Mexico's Sangre de Cristo mountains are a place where two cultures Hispanic and Anglo meet They're also the place where three men meet William deBuys a young writer Alex Harris a young photographer and Jacobo Romero an old farmer When Harris and deBuys move to New Mexico in the 1970s Romero is the neighbor who befriends them and becomes their teacher With the tools of simple labor shovel and axe irony and humor he shows them how to survive even flourish in their isolated village A remarkable look at modern life in the mountains River of Traps also magically evokes the now vanished world in which Romero tended flocks on frontier ranges and absorbed the values of a society untouched by cash or Anglo America His memories and wisdom shared without sentimentality permeate this absorbing story of three men and the place that forever shaped their lives

The Last Unicorn William deBuys, 2015-03-10 An award winning author's quest to find and understand a creature as rare and enigmatic as any on Earth In 1992 in a remote mountain range a team of scientists discovered the remains of an unusual animal with exquisite long horns It turned out to be a living species new to Western science a saola the first large land mammal discovered in fifty years Rare then and rarer now a live saola had never been glimpsed by a Westerner in the wild when Pulitzer Prize finalist and nature writer William deBuys and conservation biologist William Robichaud set off to search for it in central Laos Their team endured a punishing trek up and down white water rivers and through mountainous terrain ribboned with the snare lines of armed poachers who roamed the forest stripping it of wildlife In the tradition of Bruce Chatwin Colin Thubron and Peter Matthiessen The Last Unicorn chronicles deBuys's journey deep into one of the world's most remote places It's a story rich with the joys and sorrows of an expedition into undiscovered country pursuing a species as rare and elusive as the fabled unicorn As is true with the quest for the unicorn in the end the expedition becomes a search for something more the essence of wildness in nature evidence that the soul of a place can endure and the transformative power of natural beauty

Writing Life Stories Bill Roorbach, 2008-06-17 How to Make Memories into Memoirs Ideas into Essays and Life into Literature From drawing a map of a remembered neighborhood to signing a form releasing yourself to take risks in your work Roorbach offers innovative techniques that will trigger ideas for all writers Writing Life Stories is a classic text that appears on countless creative nonfiction and composition syllabi the world over This updated 10th anniversary edition gives you the same friendly instruction and stimulating exercises along with updated information on current memoir writing trends ethics internet research and even marketing ideas You ll discover how to turn your untold life stories into vivid personal essays and riveting memoirs by learning to open up memory access emotions shape scenes from experience develop characters and research supporting details This guide will teach you to see your life more clearly and show you why real stories are often the best ones Fire in the Mind George Johnson,2010-10-06 Are there really laws governing the universe Or is the order we see a mere artifact of the way evolution wired the brain And is what we call science only a set of myths in which quarks DNA and information fill the role once occupied by gods These questions lie at the heart of George Johnson s audacious exploration of the border between science and religion cosmic accident and timeless law Northern New Mexico is home both to the most provocative new enterprises in quantum physics information science and the evolution of complexity and to the cosmologies of the Tewa Indians and the Catholic Penitentes As it draws the reader into this landscape juxtaposing the systems of belief that have taken root there Fire in the Mind into a gripping intellectual adventure story that compels us to ask where science ends and religion begins A must for all those seriously interested in the key ideas at the frontier of scientific discourse Paul Davies Voices of the American West Corinne Platt,Meredith Ogilby,2009 This documentary style collection of photographs and narratives profiles a wide range of prominent figures of the West as they engage in candid discussions about the region and its identity A diverse group of visionary men and women they may differ in politics but remain united in their belief that the West requires inspired action if it is going to endure challenges posed by political cultural and environmental pressures Allowing those on each side of the issues to speak freely this important work tackles such topics as education recreation immigration ranching alternative energy wildlife habitat protection oil and gas extraction urban development and water conservation Exemplifying photography and journalism at its best the book provides a panoramic view of today s evolving West The collection features Terry Tempest Williams Stewart Udall Katie Lee Dave Foreman and many others Land of Nuclear Enchantment Lucie Genay,2019-04-01 In this thoughtful social history of New Mexico s nuclear industry Lucie Genay traces the scientific colonization of the state in the twentieth century from the points of view of the local people Genay focuses on personal experiences in order to give a sense of the upheaval that accompanied the rise of the nuclear era She gives voice to the Hispanics and Native Americans of the Jemez Plateau the blue collar workers of Los Alamos the miners and residents of the Grants Uranium Belt and the ranchers and farmers who were affected by the federal appropriation of land in White Sands Missile Range and whose lives were upended by the Trinity test and the US government s reluctance to address the collateral damage of the work at the Range Genay reveals the far reaching implications for the residents as New Mexico acquired a new identity from its embrace of nuclear science Chicano Culture, Ecology, Politics Devon Gerardo Pena,1998 Until recently mainstream American environmentalism has been a predominantly white middle class movement essentially ignoring the class race and gender dimensions of environmental politics In this provocative collection of original essays the environmental dimensions of the Chicana o experience are explicitly expressed and debated Employing a variety of genres ranging from poetry to autobiography to theoretical and empirical essays the voices in this collection speak to the most significant issues of environmentalism and social justice recognizing throughout the need for a pluralism of Chicana o philosophies The contributors provide an excellent basis for understanding how multiple Chicana o views on the environment play out in the context of dominant social political and economic views Chicano Culture Ecology Politics examines a number of Chicana o ecological perspectives How can the ethics of reciprocity present in Chicana o agropastoral life be protected and applied on a broader scale How can the dominant society whose economic structure is invested in placeless mobility take note of the harm caused to land based cultures take responsibility for it and take heed before it is too late Will the larger society be ecologically housebroken before it destroys its home Grounded in actual political struggles waged by Chicana o communities over issues of environmental destruction cultural genocide and socioeconomic domination this volume provides an important series of snapshots of Chicana o history Chicano Culture Ecology Politics illuminates the bridges that exist and must be understood between race ethnicity class gender politics and ecology

The Natural West Dan Flores, 2003-03-30 The Natural West offers essays reflecting the natural history of the American West as written by one of its most respected environmental historians Developing a provocative theme Dan Flores asserts that Western environmental history cannot be explained by examining place culture or policy alone but should be understood within the context of a universal human nature The Natural West entertains the notion that we all have a biological nature that helps explain some of our attitudes towards the environment Flores also explains the ways in which various cultures including the Comanches New Mexico Hispanos Mormons Texans and Montanans interact with the environment of the West Gracefully moving between the personal and the objective Flores intersperses his writings with literature scientific theory and personal reflection The topics cover a wide range from historical human nature regarding animals and exploration to the environmental histories of particular Western bioregions and finally to Western restoration as the great environmental theme of the twenty first century Recognizing Heritage Thomas H. Guthrie, 2013-12-01 In 2006 Congress established the Northern Rio Grande National Heritage Area to recognize the four hundred year coexistence of Spanish and Indian peoples in New Mexico and their place in the United States National heritage areas enable local communities to partner with the federal government to promote historic preservation cultural conservation and economic development Recognizing Heritage explores the social political and historical context of this and other public efforts to interpret and preserve Native American and Hispanic heritage in northern New Mexico The federal government s recognition of New Mexico s cultural distinctiveness contrasts sharply with its earlier efforts to wipe out Indian and Hispanic cultures Yet even celebrations of cultural difference can reinforce colonial hierarchies Multiculturalism and colonialism have overlapped in New Mexico since the nineteenth century when Anglo American colonists began promoting the region s unique cultures and exotic images to tourists Thomas H Guthrie analyzes the relationship between heritage preservation and ongoing struggles over land water and identity resulting from American colonization He uses four sites within the heritage area to illustrate the unintentional colonial effects of multiculturalism a history and anthropology museum an Indian art market a tricultural commemorative plaza and a mountain village famous for its adobe architecture Recognizing Heritage critiques the politics of recognition and suggests steps toward a more just multiculturalism that fundamentally challenges colonial inequalities
