Prescription For A Happy Retirement:

Prescription for a Happy Retirement James D. Bash Do,2017-09-07 Has retirement failed to bring the joy you expected If so you re not alone Approximately 10 000 baby boomers retire daily and most have trouble adjusting to retirement because they were unprepared for the loss of identity and purpose their job offered Once retired they may feel unfulfilled and suffer from PMS Post Work Melancholy Syndrome Dr James Bash understands this situation After retiring he felt disappointed and drained He scoured the current literature for a cure but found nothing that would fully revitalize him He decided to write his own book and began exploring what makes retirement satisfying why for some these are the fabled golden years Now he shares what he learned through his research personal experience and the advice of his many retired patients In Prescription for a Happy Retirement Dr Bash teaches readers how to Analyze the causes of their Post Work Melancholy Syndrome Plan for retirement if they re still working Understand the difference between what they want and what they need in retirement Increase their self esteem by building an identity independent of their work persona Create a new social life routines and sense of meaning for their days Engage in lifelong activities and learning Care for themselves physically so retirement is long lasting and enjoyable When you retire it can feel like your spark has been extinguished which can lead to sadness With Dr Bash s prescription you ll reignite your spark and help light up the world

Prescription for a Happy Retirement Thomas F. Lowry,2014-10-10 You save save save for 30 years You live your life and finally you re somewhere near your sixties and you start to think about retirement But you re thinking of that money as savings not as income because income has always come in the form of a paycheck But all that s about to change No more work no more paycheck Your savings have to become your income You ve put a lot into your nest egg over the years it s time to start thinking about getting something back in return
