

Injection Safety Policies and Procedures (Template)

This sample document should be modified to make it unique to your facility's injection safety program needs.

Purpose:

To prevent the spread of blood borne pathogens and bacterial infections through the use of safe injection practices and ongoing standardized competency training.

Policy:

All members of the healthcare team will follow best practices guidance from the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and Association for Professionals in Infection Control (APIC) regarding the safe use of needles, syringes, medications, cannulas and intravenous delivery systems.

Procedures:

The following procedures apply to the use of all needles, syringes, medication vials, intravenous delivery systems and sharps containers.

1. Follow hand hygiene guidelines at all times;
 - a. Before patient contact
 - b. Before carrying out a clean/aseptic procedure such as handling an invasive device, preparing injections
 - c. Immediately after contact with body fluids, mucous membranes or wound dressings
 - d. After touching patient surroundings, all inanimate surfaces in the patient care area and upon leaving the patient room
2. Injections are prepared using aseptic technique in a clean area free from contamination or contact with blood, body fluids, or contaminated equipment.
3. Needles and syringes are used for only one patient (this includes manufactured prefilled syringes and cartridge devices such as insulin pens).
4. The rubber septum on a medication vial is disinfected with alcohol prior to piercing.

Recruitment and Onboarding Richard Skiba, 2024-08-22 This guide is an essential resource for professionals tasked with managing recruitment and onboarding processes within an organization. Whether you are directly involved in recruiting new staff or responsible for coordinating the process, this book provides a thorough understanding of the skills and knowledge required to effectively manage these essential HR functions. The book begins with an exploration of existing recruitment and onboarding policies and procedures, guiding readers on how to identify and evaluate them in the context of their organization. It delves into assessing technology options to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of recruitment processes, providing practical advice on selecting and implementing tools that streamline hiring workflows. A significant portion of the book is dedicated to updating and refining policies and procedures to align with organizational requirements. Readers will learn how to obtain support from relevant stakeholders and create or adjust forms and documents that underpin these policies. Effective communication and training strategies are emphasized to ensure that all relevant staff are well informed and capable of adhering to updated procedures. The book also covers critical aspects of human resource planning, including determining future HR requirements in collaboration with stakeholders and ensuring that position descriptors are current and accurately used throughout the recruitment process. It provides detailed guidance on advertising vacant positions in compliance with legislation and organizational policies, consulting with specialists when necessary, and adhering to selection procedures that meet legal and organizational standards. Additional chapters address the importance of timely and accurate job offers and contracts, providing new appointments with relevant advice and ensuring that onboarding processes are consistently applied across the organization. The book also covers the management of probationary employees, the provision of feedback, and the collection of participant and stakeholder feedback on the onboarding process. Finally, readers are equipped with strategies for updating onboarding policies and procedures based on feedback, ensuring continuous improvement and alignment with organizational goals. This book is an invaluable tool for HR professionals seeking to optimize their recruitment and onboarding practices and contribute to the overall success of their organization.
