natural advantages and a welcoming culture. Decades of unprecedented prosperity followed memorably punctuated by riots, strikes, burning rivers and oil embargoes. A vibrant quintessentially American character bloomed in the region's cities, suburbs and backwaters. But the innovation and industry that defined the Rust Belt also helped to hasten its demise. An air conditioner invented in Upstate New York transformed the South from a sweaty backwoods to a nonunionized industrial competitor. Japan and Germany recovered from their defeat to build fuel-efficient cars in the stagnant 1970s. The tentpole factories that paid workers so well also filled the air with soot and poisoned waters and soil. The jobs drifted elsewhere and many of the people soon followed suit. Nothin' but Blue Skies tells the story of how the country's industrial heartland grew, boomed, bottomed and hopes to be reborn. Through a propulsive blend of storytelling and reportage, celebrated writer Edward McClelland delivers the rise, fall and revival of the Rust Belt and its people.

The ^A Documentary Film Reader Jonathan Kahana, 2016-01-21 The Documentary Film Reader brings together an expansive range of writing by scholars, critics, historians and filmmakers to provide a stimulating foundational text for students and others who want to undertake study of nonfiction film.

Work and Society Tim Strangleman, Tracey Warren, 2008-04-10 Work and Society provides a comprehensive investigation of the major trends in work and employment. The changing social order and its impact upon the labour market in recent years, alongside the huge changes brought about by new technology and globalization, are considered.

Comeback Paul Ingrassia, Joseph B. White, 2013-05-14 In Comeback, Pulitzer Prize winners Paul Ingrassia and Joseph B. White take us to the boardrooms, the executive offices and the shop floors of the auto business to reconstruct in riveting detail how America's premier industry stumbled, fell and picked itself up again. The story begins in 1982 when Honda started building cars in Marysville, Ohio, and the entire U.S. car industry seemed to be on the brink of extinction. It ends just over a decade later with a remarkable turn of the tables as Japan's car industry falters and America's Big Three emerge as formidable global competitors. Comeback is a story propelled by larger-than-life characters: Lee Iacocca, Henry Ford II, Don Petersen, Roger Smith, among many others, and their greed, pride and sheer refusal to face facts. But it is also a story full of dedicated, unlikely heroes who struggled to make the Big Three change before it was too late.
