Rien Quune Dernie Fois French:

Aphorism in the Francophone Novel of the Twentieth Century Mark Bell, 1997-03-27 Aphorism in the Francophone Novel of the Twentieth Century includes critical readings of Terre des hommes by Antoine de Saint Exupéry, Alexandre Chenevert by Gabrielle Roy, Gouverneurs de la rosée by Jacques Roumain, Pluie et vent sur Tulum by Simone Schwarz Bart, La route des Flandres by Claude Simon, Présence de la mort by C.F. Ramuz and Neige noire by Hubert Aquin. Bell addresses the problems inherent in the term aphorism, the narrative and discourse function of aphorism within the genre of the novel, the interrelation between the structure of aphorism and the epistemological and hermeneutical functions this sub genre may perform as a component part of the narrative fabric, the national character of aphoristics and the problems that arise from anthologizing a novel's aphorisms. The importance of aphoristic formulation in the French literary tradition and its undeniable presence in the modern novel make this a particularly significant and fruitful study. French Prose in 2000, 2021-10-18 French Prose in 2000 stems in some important measure from work presented in September 1998 at the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990s held at Dalhousie University. A good number of papers given at that time and since revisited in the light of exchanges join here certain others specifically written for the purposes of this book. Together they constitute a wide ranging and modally varied interrogation of the current state of French and francophone prose writing: its multifaceted manners, its richly divergent fascinations, its many theoretical or philosophical groundings. The book thus ceaselessly moves its attention from fictional biography to the roman noir, from the writing of Glissant and Chamoiseau to that of the tonnants voyageurs, from the powerful discourse of women such as Chawaf or Cond Ernaux or Germain Sallenave or Kristeva to that of writers as diverse in their modes as Le Clézio and Quignard, Duras and Renaud Camus. All chapters focus however in near exclusive measure on the prose production of the last ten or twelve years.
