Languages Companion to Qualitative Analysis Jeanine Evers, 2025-10-01 Qualitative analysis resembles a puzzle you are confronted with a heap of data and you find yourself wondering what should I do next Ideally you have already started the analysis before the amount of data becomes overwhelming However realistically qualitative research inevitably generates a large amount of data that requires thorough organization interpretation combination and manipulation A Companion to Qualitative Analysis introduces the concept of Thick analysis a triangulation strategy that enables you to systematically examine your data from a broad perspective to get the most out of your research Part I of the book provides a theoretical overview of different analysis methods the use of QDAS qualitative data analysis software ethical considerations and quality demands Part II illustrates what the combination of different analyses of the same dataset by several researchers yields And this is what Thick analysis is about Jeanine Evers wants to challenge you to think and grow while reading and rereading to understand what Thick analysis might mean for your own research The book is appropriate for PhD Master and Bachelor students and researchers in different phases of their career Expanding the Edges of Narrative Inquiry Laura E. Reimer, Katerina Standish, Chuck Thiessen, 2019-11-29 This captivating book presents innovative answers to the question why storytelling Each chapter represents leading edge narrative research designs from Arthur V Mauro Institute for Peace and Justice in central Canada one of the world's leading academic programs for Peace and Conflict Studies PACS and a major contributor to PACS scholarship The authors are candid and offer inspiration for other scholars seeking groundbreaking ideas for their own research design while offering profound expansions to the current PACS literature The scholarship reflects a diversity of ideas passions approaches disciplinary roots and topic areas Each chapter explores different and critical issues in the field of PACS through various forms of storytelling while providing recent original research designs for the future development of the field and the education of its practitioners and academics This volume co edited by three of the early graduates of the program presents and explores a number of these issues across the broad spectrum of Peace and Conflict Studies Contributors to the book are recognized scholars and practitioners in their respective fields The book has a wide audience targeting those particularly interested in tackling and understanding old conflicts in new ways and for those seeking to learn at the growing edges of PACS at the undergraduate graduate and post graduate levels Voices Juan Fernando Botero-Garcia, Kathryn Vincent, 2011-07-12 Voices Postgraduate Perspectives on Inter disciplinaryity was created out of a compilation of papers presented at the University of Aberdeen's annual College of Arts and Social Sciences Postgraduate Conference more widely known as Moving Forward This conference reached its sixth year in 2009 Both the conference and proposed collection incorporate the colleges of Divinity History and Philosophy Education Language and Literature Law Social Sciences Music and Business Moving Forward is an annual event sponsored by the College of Arts and Social Sciences University of Aberdeen and the Roberts Fund Given the variety of papers received for and the number of disciplines involved in this project it was deemed that a theme of voice would be particularly appropriate This theme attempts to incorporate the interdisciplinary approach taken both within the selection of papers and within the papers themselves Voice is approached in a variety of manners not only referring to the sound produced from the human vocal cords or the literary tool of an author but also through the works of a musical artist or by using unique research methods to understand the perspectives of those lacking a public voice This work seeks to demonstrate an entire range of what voices may do and how they are experienced

The Handbook of Educational Theories Beverly Irby, Genevieve H. Brown, Rafael Lara-Alecio, Dr. Shirley A. Jackson, 2013-03-01 Although educational theories are presented in a variety of textbooks and in some discipline specific handbooks and encyclopedias no publication exists which serves as a comprehensive consolidated collection of the most influential and most frequently quoted and consulted theories There is a need to put such theories into a single easily accessible volume A unique feature of the Handbook is the way in which it conveys the theories The organization of the chapters within each section makes the volume an easy to use and understandable reference tool as researchers and practitioners seek theories to guide their research and practice and as they develop theoretical frameworks In addition to the traditional theories presented the Handbook includes emerging theories for the 21st Century as well as presenting practical examples of the use of these theories in research from dissertations and published articles An appendix which indicates which theories have instruments associated with them and where those instruments can be found is also included The Handbook consists of 12 sections Section I provides the introduction with a focus on what constitutes good theory as well as how theory guides research and practice The remaining sections address Philosophical Educational Constructs Learning Theory Instructional Theory Curriculum theory Literacy and Language Acquisition Theory Counseling Theory Moral Development Theory Classroom Management Theory Assessment Theory Organizational Theory and Leadership Management Theory Each section consists of an overview written by the section editor of the general theoretical concepts to be addressed by the chapter authors Each chapter within the section will include a a description of the theory with goals assumptions and aspects particular to the theory b the original development of and interactions of the theory c validation of the theory d generalizability of the theory across cultures ethnicities and genders e the use and application of the theory f critiques of the theory g any instruments associated with the theory and h two to five particular studies exemplifying particular theories as individuals have used them in theoretical framework of dissertations or published articles and be written by the original theorist or prominent contributors to the theory The Handbook is intended for graduate students enrolled in research courses or completing theses and dissertations Additionally professors of all educational disciplines in the social sciences would be an interested audience There is also potential use of the text as administrators counselors and teachers in schools use theory to guide practice As more inquiry is being promoted among school leaders this book has more meaning for practitioners

Working with Uncertainty for Educational Change Carmel Conn, Bethan Mitchell, Matt Hutt, 2024-09-24 Working with Uncertainty for Educational Change explores the liberating possibilities for those who seek to embrace existing research into uncertainty and complexity at diverse levels in the world of education The lives of education professionals are built upon a multitude of decision making events that frame each working day With a range of expert contributors this insightful book brings together varied perspectives on the nature of complexity within educational contexts focusing particularly on the emotional work involved in change Organised into two major parts its first part focuses on the intellectual challenge of thinking about uncertainty by exploring the dominant discourses of certainty in the field of education The second part on the other hand considers how we can embrace uncertainty within practice by exploring conditions that support reflection agency and acceptance of ambiguity Presenting themes on a wide range of educational issues including curriculum pedagogy equity leadership and professional learning this book will appeal to teachers educational leaders practitioners and researchers as well as students on undergraduate and postgraduate programmes with an education focus
