Battleground Prussia Prit Buttar,2012-02-20 The terrible months between the arrival of the Red Army on German soil and the final collapse of Hitler's regime were like no other in the Second World War The Soviet Army's intent to take revenge for the horror that the Nazis had wreaked on their people produced a conflict of implacable brutality in which millions perished From the great battles that marked the Soviet conquest of East and West Prussia to the final surrender in the Vistula estuary this book recounts in chilling detail the desperate struggle of soldiers and civilians alike These brutal campaigns are brought vividly to life by a combination of previously untold testimony and astute strategic analysis recognising a conflict of unprecedented horror and suffering

The Daring Dozen Gavin Mortimer,2012-06-20 In this new book Gavin Mortimer reveals the 12 legendary Special Forces commanders of World War II Prior to the war the concept of special forces simply didn't exist but thanks to visionary leaders like David Stirling and Charles Hunter our very concept of how wars can be fought and won has totally changed These 12 men not only reshaped military policy but they led from the front accompanying their troops into battle from the sands of North Africa to jumping on D Day and infiltrating behind enemy lines Mortimer also offers a skilful analysis of their qualities as military commanders and the true impact that their own personal actions as well as those of their units had on the eventual outcome of the war
