Native Nostalgia Native Nostalgia:

Native Nostalgia Jacob Dlamini, 2009 Challenging the stereotype that black people who lived under South African apartheid have no happy memories of the past this examination into nostalgia carves out a path away from the archetypal musings Even though apartheid itself had no virtue the author himself a young black man who spent his childhood under apartheid insists that it was not a vast moral desert in the lives of those living in townships In this deep meditation on the experiences of those who lived through apartheid it points out that despite the poverty and crime there was still art literature music and morals that when combined determined the shape of black life during that era of repression Post-Soviet Nostalgia Otto Boele, Boris Noordenbos, Ksenia Robbe, 2019-07-24 Bringing together scholars from Russia the United States and Europe this collection of essays is the first to explore the slippery phenomenon of post Soviet nostalgia by studying it as a discursive practice serving a wide variety of ideological agendas The authors demonstrate how feelings of loss and displacement in post Soviet Russia are turned into effective tools of state building and national mobilization as well as into weapons for local resistance and the assertion of individual autonomy Drawing on novels memoirs documentaries photographs and Soviet commodities Post Soviet Nostalgia is an invaluable resource for historians literary scholars and anthropologists interested in how Russia comes to terms with its Soviet past Education as Humanisation Scherto Gill, Ulrike Niens, 2017-10-02 Over the past decades there has been a consistent and poignant ambiguity with regard to the role of education in the context of post conflict and divided societies working towards building peace Most recently global developments including the after effects of the Arab Spring the devastating wars in Syria and the refugee crisis in Europe have directed our attention once more to the part that education can play in building peace at many levels In this context it is timely to create a space for a focused inquiry and scholarly debate about peace oriented pedagogies and how they might affect the post conflict reconstruction in divergent settings Thus both the subject and the content of this book are important in the light of the current needs in many societies emerging from conflicted community relations In particular they propose a refreshing and transformative view of peace based on a humanising conception of education and dialogic pedagogy as a key avenue for peacebuilding Through both conceptual inquiries and empirical case studies the book will appeal to educational thinkers researchers practitioners policy makers NGO workers and the public in re examining some of the key concepts identifying pivotal underlying issues in the field Furthermore by offering a principled persuasive conceptual framework and by problematising implementations and interventions in practice this book can serve to provoke more appraisals evaluations and constructive critiques of humanisation and dialogic pedagogy in peacebuilding education This book was originally published as a special issue of Compare A Journal of Comparative and International Education The Persistence of Taste Malcolm Quinn, Dave Beech, Michael Lehnert, Carol Tulloch, Stephen Wilson, 2018-05-11 This book offers an interdisciplinary analysis of the social practice of taste in the wake of Pierre Bourdieu's sociology of taste For the first time this book unites sociologists and other social scientists with artists and curators art theorists and art educators and art design and cultural historians who engage with the practice of taste as it relates to encounters with art cultural institutions and the practices of everyday life in national and transnational contexts The volume is divided into four sections The first section on Taste and art shows how art practice was drawn into the sphere of good taste contrasting this with a post conceptualist critique that offers a challenge to the social functions of good taste through an encounter with art The next section on Taste making and the museum examines the challenges and changing social political and organisational dynamics propelling museums beyond the terms of a supposedly universal institution and language of taste The third section of the book Taste after Bourdieu in Japan offers a case study of the challenges to the cross cultural transmission and local reproduction of good taste exemplified by the complex cultural context of Japan The final section on Taste the home and everyday life juxtaposes the analysis of the reproduction of inequality and alienation through taste with arguments on how the legacy of ideas of good taste have extended the possibilities of experience and sharpened our consciousness of identity As the first book to bring together arts practitioners and theorists with sociologists and other social scientists to examine the legacy and continuing validity of Pierre Bourdieu s sociology of taste this publication engages with the opportunities and problems involved in understanding the social value and the cultural dispositions of taste after Bourdieu It does so at a moment when the practice of taste is being radically changed by the global expansion of cultural choices and the emergence of deploying impersonal algorithms as solutions to cultural and creative decision making

The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Travel Writing Robert Clarke, 2018-01-11 The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Travel Writing offers readers an insight into the scope and range of perspectives that one encounters in this field of writing Encompassing a diverse range of texts and styles performances and forms postcolonial travel writing recounts journeys undertaken through places cultures and communities that are simultaneously living within through and after colonialism in its various guises The Companion is organized into three parts Part I Departures addresses key theoretical issues topics and themes Part II Performances examines a range of conventional and emerging travel performances and styles in postcolonial travel writing Part III Peripheries continues to shift the analysis of travel writing from the traditional focus on Eurocentric contexts This Companion provides a comprehensive overview of developments in the field appealing to students and teachers of travel writing and postcolonial studies

South African Writing in Transition Rita Barnard, Andrew van der Vlies, 2019-02-21 Bringing together leading and emerging scholars this book asks the question how has contemporary South African literature grappled with ideas of time and history during the political transition away from apartheid Reading the work of major South African writers such as J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer and Ivan Vladislavic as well as contemporary crime fiction South African Writing in Transition explores how concerns about time and temporality have shaped literary form across the country s literary culture Establishing new connections between leading literary voices and lesser known works the book explores themes of truth and reconciliation disappointment and betrayal New South African Review 2 Devan Pillay,2011-10-01 An explanation of the New Growth Plan and alternatives to neo liberal and capitalist development in South Africa In this second volume of the New South African Review the New Growth Path adopted by the South African government in 2010 provides the basis for a dialogue about whether decent work is the best solution to South Africa s problems of low economic growth and high unemployment There are investigations into rising inequality against the backdrop of the failings of Black Economic Empowerment greening the economy with emphasis on biofuels the crisis of acid mine drainage on the Witwatersrand possibilities for participatory forms of government civil society activism transformation of the print media and the SABC the crisis in child care in public hospitals the relationship between the police and a township community the problems related to the absence of legislation to govern the powers of traditional authorities over land allocation and assessments of the state of opposition political parties and the ANC Alliance Asking whether the New Growth Plan reflects a set of new policies or an attempt to re dress old com promises in new clothes this volume brings together different voices in debate about possibilities for alternatives to neo liberal and capitalist development in South Africa Cities in Flux Olivier Moreillon,Alan Muller,Lindy Stiebel,2017 The essays in this volume all circle around questions of urbanisation in post apartheid South Africa and its effects on the country s socio political realities as well as its representation in and effect on the country s literary and artistic production The included essays discuss the constant flow of people not only into within and out of a city but also between different cities the continuously changing conditions both physical and immaterial as well as past and present of South Africa s urban areas and these shifting conditions effects on South Africa s cities Series Swiss African Studies Schweizerische Afrikastudien Etudes africaines suisses Vol 12 Subject African Studies Urban Studies Sociology The Routledge Handbook of Nostalgia Tobias Becker,Dylan Trigg,2024-08-21 The Routledge Handbook of Nostalgia serves as a guide to the complex and often contradictory concept of nostalgia as well as the field of nostalgia studies more broadly Nostalgia is an area of intense interest across several disciplines as well as within society and culture more generally This handbook brings together an international interdisciplinary team of researchers to survey the current landscape and identify common trends achievements and gaps in existing literature Comprising 45 chapters the volume covers the following topics Disciplinary perspectives of nostalgias including philosophy history literature and psychology Conceptual aspects of nostalgia including homesickness temporality affectivity and memory Historical and political dimensions such as afro nostalgia populism feminism and queer nostalgia Spatial and material aspects of nostalgia including ruins regionalism and objects Media related nostalgia such as analogue and digital nostalgia reboots revivals gaming and graphic novels Essential reading for students and researchers working in nostalgia studies this book will also be beneficial to related disciplines such as philosophy anthropology geography history and literature cultural media heritage museum and film studies courses and more generally for readers interested in how the past is represented and used in the present Present Imperfect Andrew Van der Vlies,2017 This book asks how a selection of South African writers have responded to the period since the end of apartheid
