Step 1: Complete the squares for each element by adding the atomic number, name, and atomic mass.

Write the atomic number at the top of the square.

Write the element's name under the symbol.

Write the atomic mass at the bottom of the square.

Step 2: Determine the number of protons, neutrons, and electrons in each element.

Step 3: Create a Bohr diagram for each element.

Step 4: Draw the Lewis Structure for each element.

5
B
 Boron

Step 5: Use the following colors to shade in the square for each element. You should ONLY color in the small square in the upper left-hand corner and not the entire card.

Green = Li & Na

Pink = O & S

Blue = Be & Mg

Purple = F & Cl

Orange = B & Al

Red = C & Si

Tan = N & P

Yellow = He, Ne, & Ar

Step 6: Cut the cards apart and arrange according to atomic number in the pattern shown below. Once you have the cards arranged in the correct order, glue them to a large sheet of construction paper.

1								2
3	4	5	6	7	8	9		10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17		18

Step 7: Answer the questions on the back of this worksheet using the information on your Periodic Table.

Periodic Table Basics Answers:

Periodic Table Basic Speedy Publishing, 2014-09-04 Chemistry classes can be some of the most difficult classes for students. There are many formulas, numbers, and calculations to be done and memorized. Students are responsible for many tasks during the school year. Studying the periodic table of the elements of chemistry and physics can be overwhelming. A periodic table study guide can help students remember the chemical numbers and atomic weights of elements. It can be viewed at any time the student has idle time. They can refer to it while waiting in a line or when commuting on mass transportation. The guide is essentially a life saver.

Examination Questions and Answers in Basic Anatomy and Physiology Martin Caon, 2016-10-11 This book provides two thousand multiple choice questions on human anatomy and physiology separated into 40 categories. The answer to each question is accompanied by an explanation. Each category has an introduction to set the scene for the questions to come. However, not all possible information is provided within these introductions, so an Anatomy and Physiology textbook is an indispensable aid to understanding the answers. The questions have been used in examinations for undergraduate introductory courses and as such reflect the focus of these particular courses and are pitched at the level to challenge students that are beginning their training in anatomy and physiology. The questions and answer combinations are to be used both by teachers to select questions for their next examinations and by students when studying for an upcoming test. Students enrolled in the courses for which these questions were written include nursing, midwifery, paramedic, physiotherapy, occupational therapy, nutrition, dietetics, health sciences, and students taking an anatomy and physiology course as an elective.

Answer to the Riddle of 666 Adam Soul, 2007-04-01 In his book Adam Soul renders a compelling interpretation to the riddle of 666 that is based on science, the Bible, and common knowledge that the people of Earth have today. Soul shows how the answer is not about an antichrist but is rather an ancient message sent to give mankind one last chance to survive the future. From this ancient message Soul develops a simple 18 step plan for survival that he calls The Vision of Backwards Bound Soul. His interpretation is not satanic in any way but in the third part of his book Adam Soul does make a plea to the religious realms to see the wisdom of the message in the riddle and to change accordingly. The verse begins with the words Here is wisdom. Discover for yourself the wisdom of the riddle and the road to life for the future of all mankind.
