Service?Learning to Advance Social Justice in a Time of Radical Inequality Alan S. Tinkler,Barri E.

Tinkler, Virginia M. Jagla, Jean R. Strait, 2015-12-01 When considering inequality one goal for educators is to enhance critical engagement to allow learners an opportunity to participate in an inquiry process that advances democracy Service learning pedagogy offers an opportunity to advance engaged learning opportunities within higher education This is particularly important given the power dynamics that are endemic within conversations about education including the conversations around the Common Core charter schools and the privatization of education Critical inquiry is central to the ethos of service learning pedagogy a pedagogy that is built upon community partner participation and active reflection Within higher education service learning offers an important opportunity to enhance practice within the community allowing students to engage stakeholders and youth which is particularly important given the dramatic inequalities that are endemic in today s society

Teacher Education with an Attitude Patrick J. Finn, Mary E. Finn, 2012-03-27

Using a social justice approach to teacher education the contributing teacher educators address the need to prepare teachers to understand the way social class race and culture impact their efforts to educate working class students By helping prepare teachers to strengthen democracy through education the contributors offer ways to help them develop critical consciousness the will to address society s injustices and inequities Teachers who collaborate actively with their students their families and others such as community and labor organizers to challenge the economic and educational policies that keep the hierarchical structure in place develop their own educational and political power alongside their students These educators see schools as sites of struggle for democracy and their students learn to direct their attitude toward outcomes that are in their collective self interest Jones & Bartlett Learning's Comprehensive Medical Assisting Judy Kronenberger, Julie Ledbetter, 2020-05-07
