Scents and Sensibility Catherine Maxwell, 2017-10-20 This lively accessible book is the first to explore Victorian literature through scent and perfume presenting an extensive range of well known and unfamiliar texts in intriguing and imaginative new ways that make us re think literature's relation with the senses Concentrating on aesthetic and decadent authors Scents and Sensibility introduces a rich selection of poems essays and fiction exploring these texts with reference to both the little known cultural history of perfume use and the appreciation of natural fragrance in Victorian Britain It shows how scent and perfume are used to convey not merely moods and atmospheres but the nuances of the aesthete or decadent's carefully cultivated identity personality or sensibility A key theme is the emergence of the olfactif the cultivated individual with a refined sense of smell influentially represented by the poet and critic Algernon Charles Swinburne who is emulated by a host of canonical and less well known aesthetic and decadent successors such as Walter Pater Edmund Gosse John Addington Symonds Lafcadio Hearn Michael Field Oscar Wilde Arthur Symonds Mark Andr Raffalovich Theodore Wratishlaw and A Mary F Robinson This book explores how scent and perfume

pervade the work of these authors in many different ways signifying such diverse things as style atmosphere influence sexuality sensibility spirituality refinement individuality the expression of love and poetic creativity and the aura of personality dandyism modernity and memory A coda explores the contrasting twentieth century responses of Virginia Woolf and Compton Mackenzie to the scent of Victorian literature The Smell Culture Reader Jim Drobnick, 2024-11-01 Smell is fundamental to experience but mired in paradox Stigmatized as animalistic it nonetheless feeds a vast fragrance and marketing industry Considered ephemeral scents have survived throughout the ages in a number of religious practices The Smell Culture Reader provides a much needed overview of what is arguably the most elusive sense From hygiene to aromatherapy the fetid to the fragrant smells are shown to be much more than just an adornment or a nuisance Addressing this engaging sense in redolent detail The Smell Culture Reader demonstrates how essential smell is to sexuality social status personal identity and cultural tradition The Organization of Craft Work Emma Bell, Gianluigi Mangia, Scott Taylor, Maria Laura Toraldo, 2018-08-06 This edited book focuses on the organization and meaning of craft work in contemporary society It considers the relationship between craft and place and how this enables the construction of a meaningful relationship with objects of production and consumption The book explores the significance of raw materials the relationship between the body the crafted object and the mind and the importance of skill knowledge and learning in the making process Through this it raises important questions about the role of craft in facing future challenges by challenging the logic of globalized production and consumption The Organization of Craft Work encompasses international analyses from the United States France Italy Australia Canada the UK and Japan involving a diverse range of sectors including brewing food and wine production clothing and shoe making and perfumery The book will be of interest to students and academic researchers in organization studies marketing and consumer behaviour business ethics entrepreneurship sociology of work human resource management cultural studies geography and fashion and design In addition the book will be of interest to practitioners and organizations with an interest in the development and promotion of craft work Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license An Ethnography of Fragrance Dinah Jung, 2022-06-08 The perfumery arts in Asia have traditionally been presented as exotic or in recent decades mainly ignored The ethnographic report in hand recalibrates the character and meaning of perfumery in the Islamic world illustrated by the local example of Adan La j By retelling the stories which have become associated with specific fragrances there the author simultaneously introduces the reader to the history and culture of Islam and the southern edge of Yemen The cultural exchange along the Indian Ocean Rim and within the colonial empires supported the spread and refinement of aromatics The result is a new and fascinating portrayal and explanation of perfumery in general as well as of its tradition and special features in West Asia up to recent times Itr | Perfume Creation, Self-Discovery, and The Art of Allure | Biography of a Perfume Artisan Vipul
