the book club's history and its ongoing development in relation to other reading groups worldwide including Oprah's the editors consider issues of book marketing and genre Further chapters explore the effects of the mass broadcast celebrity book club on society literature and its marketing and popular culture Contributors ask how readers discuss books judge value and make choices The collection addresses questions of authorship authority and canon in texts connected by theme or genre including the postcolonial exotic disability and representations of the body food books and domesticity In addition book club author Andrew Smith shares his experiences in a fascinating interview Making It Up Penelope Lively, 2006-09-26 Nobody writes more astutely or affectingly about love than Penelope Lively The Washington Post An intelligent examination of alternative destinies choices and the moments in our lives when we could have chosen a different path from Booker Prize winning author Penelope Lively In this fascinating piece of fiction Penelope Lively takes moments from her own life and asks what if she had made other choices what if she hadn't escaped from Alexandria at the outbreak of WWII What would her life have been like if she had become pregnant when she was 18 If she had married someone else If she taken a different job If she had lived her life abroad These stories offer a sublime dance between reality and imagination inviting the reader to ask similar questions
