Princeton David Belden, Bureau

County Historical Society,2010-11-08 In 1831 the settlement of Princeton Illinois began as families from New England and later the Mid Atlantic states traveled West seeking good land These early settlers built the Hampshire Colony Congregational Church Rev Owen Lovejoy one of its earliest pastors became a well known abolitionist and used his Princeton home to harbor runaway slaves Before the Civil War Princeton citizens convinced Burlington Railroad to lay rails within a mile of their town The community expanded its main street to meet the railroad and insure the towns growth Today Princeton remains a richly endowed and vital community set in the peaceful countryside of North Central Illinois Galena Kay Price,Marian Hendricks,2007 At one time the home of Civil War hero Ulysses S Grant and the place where Abraham Lincoln campaigned Galena was once a booming town with the largest hotel in the West It was here that Grant put together his presidential plans When this bustling riverboat mining town and railroad center fell into disrepair it languished for decades and Galena became the town that time forgot Fortunately no one tore down the early 1800s architecture Today Galena is a flourishing tourist mecca where visitors can literally go back in time These postcards tell the story of this quaint village with its magical old atmosphere Washington Zachary R. Borders,2007 In 1825 a blacksmith from North Carolina by the name of William Holland settled in an area east of Peoria Holland had been employed by the United States government to manufacture rifles for the Native American population in the area and he later laid out the original town that would be named Washington This town soon included the proud and beloved commercial square and the beautiful neighborhoods that surround and support it to this day Journal of Illinois History ,2008
