Performance And Politics In Tanzania The Nation On Stage African Expressive Cultures:

Performance and Politics in Tanzania Laura Edmondson, 2007-07-20 In Performance and Politics in Tanzania Laura Edmondson examines how politics social values and gender are expressed on stage Now a disappearing tradition Tanzanian popular theatre integrates comic sketches acrobatics melodrama song and dance to produce lively commentaries on what it means to be Tanzanian These dynamic shows invite improvisation and spontaneous and raucous audience participation as they explore popular sentiments Edmondson asserts that these performances overturn the boundary between official and popular art and offer a new way of thinking about African popular culture She discusses how the blurring of state agendas and local desires presents a charged environment for the exploration of Tanzanian political and social realities What is the meaning of democracy and who gets to define it Who is in power and how is power exposed or concealed What is the role of tradition in a postsocialist state How will the future of the nation be negotiated This engaging book provides important insight into the complexity of popular forms of expression during a time of political and social change in East Africa

Robert Serumaga and the Golden Age of Uganda's Theatre (1968-1978) George Bwanika Seremba, 2023-11-14 This book provides a meticulous examination of the work of playwright Robert Serumaga and the Golden Age of Uganda's theatre 1968-1978 It considers the question of individualism or its extreme form solipsism on the one hand and activism or a social conscience on the other Theatrical innovation is another key concern It deconstructs the ruling histories historiography and performance analysis of the time as irremediably tainted by a ferocious post independence nation statism This is a study of a theatre of commitment dissidence resistance resilience struggle signification and survival a theatre born under the unrelenting glare of severe scorching censorship and incarceration For the very first time Serumaga's work is examined in its entirety and afforded the room complexity and scope it requires and deserves For the very first time too scholars of the Golden Age of Uganda's theatre will have to make no more than a single stop in their search for what were hitherto scattered tidbits and sources of Uganda's theatre history Aesthetic Practices in African Tourism Ruti Talmor, 2023-12-05 Aesthetic Practices in African Tourism explores Rastahood a community youth culture and new tourist art form created by young men on the margins of the Ghanaian economy as they came of age at the turn of the millennium This book focuses on art music and affective experience created within tourism contexts which enabled young men without educational or class capital to achieve mobility through work with foreigners transforming the temporal horizon by expanding the geographic one It traces the path that led young men down the path to Rastahood and investigates how they created an art form in and of a particular place and then used it to propel themselves far beyond its confines The book ends with a leap forward into the present out of Ghana and beyond Rastahood as men now in middle age look back upon the path that Rastahood created It explores the social effects of neoliberal capitalism specifically the rise of neoliberal subjectivities collectivities and socialities The book will be of interest to researchers in the fields of anthropology cultural studies tourism
