

The background of the cover is a detailed illustration of a rocky coastline. Dark, jagged rocks are scattered across the foreground and middle ground. In the upper left, a turbulent sea with white-capped waves crashes against the shore. A large, golden, translucent nautilus shell is positioned diagonally across the center, its long, tapered body extending from the bottom left towards the top right. The shell's surface is highly detailed with concentric rings and a metallic sheen. At the top of the shell, a small, colorful, spiral-shaped object, possibly a pearl or a small nautilus, is visible. Several small, red, shell-like objects are scattered on the dark rocks, particularly on the right side. The overall color palette is dominated by the dark greys and blacks of the rocks, the deep blues and whites of the water, and the vibrant gold and reds of the nautilus and its associated objects.
