Personal Construct Counselling in Action Fay Fransella, Peggy Dalton, 2000-05-15 In Praise of the First Edition In Britain few people can have contributed more to the development of a personal construct approach than Fay Fransella and Peggy Dalton Their book is primarily written for those who may wish to incorporate Kelly's ideas into their existing counselling framework This is an informative book which is concise well written and with no shortage of clinical examples relevant to all who are interested in counselling and psychotherapy British Journal of Psychology The revised and updated edition of this practical accessible book gives a clear introduction to personal construct counselling for counselling trainees and practitioners alike

Experiences of Counselling in Action Dave Mearns, Windy Dryden, 1989-12-06 How hard it is to find a book to recommend to trainees which will give them an insight into what counselling and psychotherapy too for that matter is really like This book does exactly that This is a book which would be equally useful to the humanistic practitioner and the more orthodox one The breadth of sympathy is admirable in dealing with what is common to all orientations This is one of those rare books which does justice both to the human experiences involved in counselling and psychotherapy and to the theory which might explain those experiences Changes What is the experience of counselling from the perspectives of both client and counsellor What can be learned for the practice of counselling from an understanding of how it feels to be a client or a counsellor Addressing these questions central to this book are the personal accounts of individual clients and counsellors who each relate their own very different experiences of counselling They explore such issues as identity expectations trust power and boundaries in the client counsellor relationship And each examines the intense personal meanings of success or failure in the client or counsellor role An analysis of the implications for the counselling relationship concludes the volume Person-centred Counselling in Action, 1988 Person-Centred Counselling in Action Dave Mearns, Brian Thorne, John McLeod, 2013-01-22 Audio book out now It is now 25 years since the first edition of Person Centred Counselling in Action appeared offering the definitive exposition of the theory and practice of the person centred approach Since then the book has supported and inspired hundreds of thousands of trainees and practitioners worldwide This important Fourth Edition maintains the book's accessibility clarity and verve whilst incorporating new developments in the approach John McLeod joins authors Dave Mearns and Brian Thorne to contribute an exciting new chapter on research relevant to the person centred field Person Centred Counselling in Action Fourth Edition will be an invaluable resource for those embarking on their first stages of training Well established practitioners and even seasoned scholars will continue to find much to interest and stimulate them Dave Mearns is professor of counselling and retired Director of the Counselling Unit of the University of Strathclyde He has written seven books including Working at Relational Depth in Counselling and Psychotherapy with Mick Cooper and is co editor of the international journal Person Centered and Experiential Psychotherapies Brian Thorne is Emeritus Professor of Counselling at the University of East Anglia Norwich where he was previously Director of Counselling and of the Centre for Counselling Studies He is also a Co founder of the Norwich Centre and continues to work there as a Professional Fellow John McLeod is Emeritus Professor of Counselling at the University of Abertay Dundee and adjunct Professor of Psychology at the University of Oslo Norway Training and Supervision for Counselling in Action Windy Dryden, Brian Thorne, 1991-03-26 An excellent compilation Given the explosion in the demand for both counselling and supervision this book should be required reading for all those putting a toe in these complex waters However I think it is also a salutary guide for those already practising as trainers and supervisors I found the issues raised stimulated me to think again about my own practice and to profit from that exercise Counselling The Journal of The British Association for Counselling Psychotherapy This accessible book explores the issues involved in both the training and supervision of counsellors and in the preparation of those who are to undertake supervisory and training roles The number of training courses is growing and counsellors must undergo supervision if they are to be accredited by professional bodies In this volume leading trainers and supervisors from different counselling traditions discuss the responsibilities and the professional and practical issues involved and a trainee and supervisee give an insider's view of what it feels like to be in these positions The closing chapter deals with the important issue of training for counsellor trainers and supervisors

Feminist Counselling in Action Jocelyn Chaplin, 1999-09-13 For counsellors therapists trainees and others who want a deeper understanding of how society affects them psychologically the revised and updated edition of Feminist Counselling in Action is the ideal resource Drawing on feminist theory Jocelyn Chaplin points to the deeply entrenched hierarchical ways of thinking which permeate every level of our lives The author presents an alternative rhythm model that when applied in counselling increases self confidence wholeness and improved relationships In this model the counsellor is not seen as the expert or the doctor and the client is not a patient They are two equal but different people using clues to understand and improve the life of the client To illu
