Performing Democracy In Iraq And South Africa Gender Media And Resistance:

Performing Democracy in Iraq and South Africa Kimberly Wedeven Segall, 2013-11-08 Reflecting twenty years of research and experience after working with guerrilla fighters in the Kurdish region of northern Iraq with Iranian refugees in Istanbul with interreligious reconciliation groups in Morocco and with former political prisoners in South Africa Segall offers a groundbreaking study of globalization gender and resistance in public spaces With timely correctives to the media lens of the Arab and African Spring the author views protest not just as an economic and political act but also as a potential space of healing and creativity amidst contentious and gendered territories Analyzing blogs graphic novels performances and public testimonials this book is unique in its attention to local expressions and creative use of technology to speak of political identities With its impressive range of generational and gendered voices Performing Democracy suggests hybrid protests that are voicing trauma seeking change The Oxford Handbook of Politics and Performance Shirin Rai, Milija

Gluhovic, Silvija Jestrovic, Michael Saward, 2021 While political scientists and political theorists have long been interested in social and political performance and theatre and performance researchers have often focused on the political dimensions of the live arts the interdisciplinary nature of this labor has typically been assumed rather than rigorously explored This volume brings together leading scholars in the fields of Politics and Performance drawing on experts across the fields of literature law anthropology sociology psychology and media and communication as well as politics and theatre and performance to map out and deepen the evolving interdisciplinary engagement Organized into seven thematic sections the volume investigates the relationship between politics and performance to show that certain features of political transactions shared by performances are fundamental to both disciplines and that to a large extent they also share a common communicational base and language Superheroes in the Streets Kimberly Wedeven Segall, 2024-03-26 The icon of the female protester and her alter ego the female superhero fills screens in the news in theaters and in digital spaces The female protester who is Muslim though has been subject to a legacy of discrimination Superheroes in the Streets Muslim Women Activists and Protest in the Digital Age follows the stories of both famous and grassroots Muslim female protestors bringing careful attention to protest modes and online national icons US Muslim women have long navigated public and digital spaces aware of the complex and nuanced histories that trail them Given the pervasive influence of mainstream feminism Muslim women activists are often made out to be damsels in distress Even when mass media turns its attention to the activism of Muslim women persistence of these false narratives demeans their culture and hypersexualizes their bodies Following the stories of US Muslim women activists author Kimberly Wedeven Segall shows how they have been reinventing the streets and remaking racialized codifications Segall highlights their creativity in crafting protest media of posters rap rally songs and digital images of superheroes carving public spaces into inclusive and digital territories Each chapter teases apart the complexities of public banners and digital activism Heather Raffo's Iraq Plays: The Things That Can't Be Said Heather Raffo, 2021-01-14

The Things That Can't Be Said Three Plays About Iraq is a trilogy of plays by renowned Iraqi American playwright performer Heather Raffo including 9 Parts of Desire Fallujah The First Opera about the Iraq War and Noura In these three works Raffo explores the indelible effects of war on Iraqis Americans and the refugees caught between the two cultures When considered together these three works give voice to nearly two decades of rarely examined traumas that have reshaped cultural and national identity for both Americans and Iraqis since the events of 9 11 Heather Raffo is a renowned playwright and performer whose work has been described by The New Yorker as an example of how art can remake the world An American with Iraqi heritage her work is seen as a rare bridge between western and eastern cultures With ongoing debates about the legacy of America's foreign wars and future role in the Middle East this volume offers a uniquely historical and deeply human perspective on the political issues of our time Spanning a decade and a half together these works form a mosaic of untold stories that were ground breaking in their time and continue to profoundly impact communities and classrooms internationally 9 Parts of Desire 2003 First Choice The Best Shows in London by The Times and as one of the Five Best Plays in London by The Independent Its award winning Off Broadway premiere ran for nine sold out months and was a critics pick of the The New York Times Time Out and Village Voice The play then received productions in nearly every major regional theatre market in America before being translated for international productions in Brazil Greece Sweden Hungary India Turkey Malta France Iraq Egypt and Israel It was the first commercial hit on a national and international stage by an Arab American playwright helping to birth a new genre of Middle Eastern American Theatre Fallujah 2016 received its world premiere at Long Beach Opera before transferring to NYC Opera The first ever opera about the Iraq War it tells a U S Marine's account of the battle of Fallujah it focuses on moral injury and veteran suicide Noura 2018 won the L Arnold Weissberger New Play Award and was hailed The Most Ambitious Premiere of the Women's Voices Theatre Festival by The Washington Post and stirringly powerful by The New York Times Told from inside the marriage of an Iraqi family the play explores the lingering cost of exile for both recent refugees and more established American immigrants Drawing inspiration from Ibsen's A Doll's House and championed as a first of its kind feminist refugee narrative it is already being included in university curriculum both in America and abroad

The Routledge Handbook of Religion, Gender and Society Caroline Starkey, Emma Tomalin, 2021-12-30 In an era which many now recognise as post secular the role that religions play in shaping gender identities and relationships has been awarded a renewed status in the study of societies and social change In both the Global South and the Global North in the 21st century religiosity is of continuing significance not only in people's private lives and in the family but also in the public sphere and with respect to political and legal systems The Routledge Handbook of Religion Gender and Society is an outstanding reference source to these key topics problems and debates in this exciting subject area Comprising over 40 chapters by a team of international contributors the Handbook is divided into 3 parts Critical debates for religions gender and society theories concepts and methodologies Issues and themes in religions gender and society Contexts and locations Within these sections central issues debates and problems are examined including activism gender analysis intersectionality and feminism oppression and liberation equality bodies and embodiment space and place leadership and authority diaspora and migration marriage and the family generation and aging health and reproduction education violence and conflict ecology and climate change and the role of social media The Routledge Handbook of Religion Gender and Society is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies and gender studies The Handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as cultural studies area studies politics sociology anthropology and history

The Kurdish Question Revisited Gareth Stansfield, Mohammed Shareef, 2017-08-15 The Kurds once marginal in the study of the Middle East and secondary in its international relations have moved to centre stage in recent years The contributors to The Kurdish Question Revisited offer insights into how this once seemingly intractable immutable phenomenon is being transformed amid the new political realities of the Middle East

The Paradox of Authenticity Joseph Feinberg, 2018-07-24 A theoretically rich and vividly written ethnography of folklore revival and performance in Eastern Europe that provocatively embraces larger questions of social theory authenticity and philosophy

Resisting the Dehumanization of Refugees Yasmeen Abu-Laban, Michael Frishkopf, Reza Hasmath, Anna Kirova, 2024-05-28 Refugees face distinct challenges and are often subject to dehumanization by politicians media and the public In this context Resisting the Dehumanization of Refugees provides urgent insights and policy relevant perspectives to improve refugees social well being and integration Taking a transdisciplinary approach scholars from the social sciences arts and humanities alongside practitioners and refugees explore what it means to experience dehumanization They consider how refugees experiences of dehumanization inform both epistemological and practical approaches to humanizing or re humanizing refugees before during and after resettlement By addressing these important issues contributors marshal rich and multidimensional responses that draw upon our shared humanity and reveal new possibilities for change
