Marxsen, 2018-09-21 The beginning of the 20th century saw literary scholars from Russia positing a new definition for the nature of literature Within the framework of Russian Formalism the term literariness was coined The driving force behind this theoretical inquiry was the desire to identify literature and art in general as a way of revitalizing human perception which had been numbed by the automatization of everyday life The transformative power of literariness is made manifest in many media artworks by renowned artists such as Chantal Akerman Mona Hatoum Gary Hill Jenny Holzer William Kentridge Nalini Malani Bruce Nauman Martha Rosler and Lawrence Weiner The authors use literariness as a tool to analyze the aesthetics of spoken or written language within experimental film video performance moving image installations and other media based art forms This volume uses as its foundation the Russian Formalist school of literary theory with the goal of extending these theories to include contemporary concepts in film and media studies such as Neoformalism intermediality remediation and postdrama Encyclopedia of Native American Artists Deborah Everett, Elayne L. The Routledge Companion to Nineteenth Century Philosophy Dean Moyal, 2010-04-05 The nineteenth century is a period of stunning philosophical originality characterised by radical engagement with the emerging human sciences. Often overshadowed by twentieth century philosophy which sought to reject some of its central tenets, the philosophers of the nineteenth century have re-emerged as profoundly important figures. The Routledge Companion to Nineteenth Century Philosophy is an outstanding survey and assessment of the century as a whole. Divided into seven parts and including thirty chapters written by leading international scholars, the Companion examines and assesses the central topics, themes and philosophers of the nineteenth century, presenting the first comprehensive picture of the period in a single volume. German Idealism, philosophy as political action including young Hegelians, Marx and Tocqueville, philosophy and subjectivity including Schopenhauer, Kierkegaard and Nietzsche, scientific naturalism including Darwinism, philosophy of race, experimental psychology and Neo-Kantianism, utilitarianism and British Idealism, American Idealism and Pragmatism, new directions in Mind and Logic including Brentano, Frege and Husserl. The Routledge Companion to Nineteenth Century Philosophy is essential reading for students of philosophy and for anyone interested in this period in related disciplines such as politics, history, literature and religion.
