Pakistan Beyond The Crisis State Columbiahurst:

Cleaning Pakistan's Air Ernesto Sánchez-Triana, Santiago Enriquez, Javaid Afzal, Akiko Nakagawa, Asif Shuja Khan, 2014-06-26 The extent of urban air pollution in Pakistan South Asia's most urbanized country is among the world's most severe significantly damaging human health quality of life and the economy and environment of Pakistan The harm from Pakistan's urban air pollution is among the highest in South Asia exceeding several high profile causes of mortality and morbidity in Pakistan Improved air quality management AQM in Pakistan can have notable economic and health benefits For example the estimated health benefits per dollar spent on cleaner diesel are approximately US 1 1 5 for light duty diesel vehicles and US 1 5 2 4 for large buses and trucks This report advocates that Pakistan allocate resources to AQM because its air quality is severely affecting millions of Pakistanis and because experiences around the world indicate that interventions can significantly improve air quality This report details a broad spectrum of research on Pakistan's AQM challenges and identifies a comprehensive set of steps to improve air quality The research presented here underpins the conclusions that addressing Pakistan's urban air pollution requires coordinated interventions to strengthen AQM build agencies institutional capacity bolster AQM's legal and regulatory framework implement policy reforms and investments and fill knowledge gaps However Pakistan's policy makers face major obstacles including limited financial human and technical resources and can pursue only a few AQM interventions at the same time In the short term Pakistan's AQM should give highest priority to reducing pollutants linked to high morbidity and mortality PM_{2.5} and precursors like SO_x and NO_x from mobile sources A second level short term priority could be PM_{2.5} SO_x and emissions of toxic metals from stationary sources An important medium term priority should be mass transportation in major cities controlling traffic and restricting private cars during high pollution episodes A long term priority could be taxing hydrocarbons based on their contribution to greenhouse gases

Pakistan Beyond the Crisis State Maleeha Lodhi, 2012-09 Bringing together an extraordinary array of experts including renowned Pakistani journalist Ahmed Rashid Pakistani American sociologist and historian Ayesha Jalal and Zahid Hussain author of several books on Islamic militancy in Pakistan Pakistan Beyond the Crisis State takes unique stock of the Islamic republic's fundamental strengths and weaknesses Presenting a picture of the nation as understood by its people this anthology assesses the political economic social and foreign policies of an embattled government and its institutional challenges Ambassador Akbar Ahmed chair of Islamic studies at American University and Munir Akram Pakistan's former ambassador to the United Nations provide critical perspectives on Pakistan's future Additional essays capture the complex interplay between domestic and external pressures such as the variety of powers that continue to manipulate the country's behavior and outcomes The contributors gathered here ultimately conclude that Pakistan is capable of transitioning into a stable modern Muslim state though bold reforms are necessary Offering a detailed and balanced agenda for such reform Pakistan takes a bold step in reeling the country back from the brink of crisis Pakistan Maleeha Lodhi, 2011 Beyond

Crisis Naveeda Khan, 2012-04-27 Through the essays in this volume we see how the failure of the state becomes a moment to ruminate on the artificiality of this most modern construct the failure of nationalism an opportunity to dream of alternative modes of association and the failure of sovereignty to consider the threats and possibilities of the realm of foreignness within the nation state as within the self The ambition of this volume is not only to complicate standing representations of Pakistan It is take Pakistan out of the status of exceptionalism that its multiple crises have endowed upon it By now many scholars have written of how exile migrancy refugeedom and other modes of displacement constitute modern subjectivities The arguments made in the book say that Pakistan is no stranger to this condition of human immigrancy and therefore can be pressed into service in helping us to understand our present condition
